PAPERS AND DOCUMENTS

RELATING TO THE

WAR OF 1812--1814.

WAR OF 1812-1814.

GENERAL ORDERS.

The President of the United States having, in conformity to an act of Congress, required a draft of 14,000 men, as the quota of Pennsylvania, towards the detachment of 100,000 militia, the Governor is desirous, with promptitude, to perform all the duties which the Constitution and laws, principle and patriotism, assign him He feels his high responsibility. He knows the ardent heart—warm zeal of the Pennsylvania militia; and his sensibilities are alive to the honor of his Country.

The revolution of America, that great and mighty struggle, which issued in giving to the United States, that place among the powers of the earth, to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitled them, had scarcely been consummated, when the King over whom we had been triumphant, began an invasion of our rights and property. which has almost uninterruptedly been continued, and yearly aggravated in kind and in degree. Remonstrance has followed remonstrance, but they "have been only answered by repeated injury" and new outrage. Their promises, their written engagements, their plighted faith have all been wantonly violated. These wrongs have been so long endured that our motives have been mistaken, and our national character misrepresented. Our forbearance has been called cowardice. Our love of peace a slavish fear to encounter the dangers of war. We know that these representations have no foundation in truth; but it is time that our enemies, that our friends, that the world should know we are not degenerated sons of gallant sires.

For nearly thirty years, we have been at peace with all the nations of the earth. The gales of prosperity and the full tide of happiness have borne us along; while the storm of war has been desolating the greater part of the civilized world, and inundated it with the bitter waters of affliction. All the means, which wisdom and patriotism could devise, have been in vain resorted to, in the hope of preserving peace. The cup of patience, of humiliation and long suffering has been filled to overflowing; and the indignant arm of an injured people must be raised to dash it to the earth, and grasp the avenging sword.

In the cultivation of the earth, and in manufacturing and transporting its products, the people of the United States have been honestly, usefully, and harmlessly employed, and for many years have we been feeding the nation whose navy "has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, and destroyed the lives of our people," our ability and disposition to serve them has whetted their commercial jealousy and monopolizing animosity. It is our property that has been plundered—it is our rights that have been invaded—it is the persons of our friends, relatives, and countrymen, that have been "taken captive on the high seas," and constrained "to bear arms against their country: to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or fall, themselves, by their hands." It is our flag that has been bathed in our waters—made red with the blood of our fellow-citizens. Every gale from the ocean wafts to our ears the sighs the groans of our impressed seamen, demanding retribution. It is our homes and firesides that have been invaded by the "merciless Indian savages," who have been instigated to pollute our sacred soil with hostile feet, and tomahawk our citizens reposing in peace in the bosom of our country. The seeds of discord have been sown amongst our people by an accredited Spy of the British government, at a time, too, when the relations of peace and amity were subsisting between our own and that government, founded on reiterated assurances from them of national esteem and friendship. If ever a nation had justifiable cause of war, that nation is the United States. If ever a people had motives to fight, we are that people. Our government, the watchful guardians of our welfare, have sounded the alarm—they have called upon us to gird on our swords and be ready to go forth and meet our enemies. Let us hasten to obey the government of our choice, and rally around the constituted authorities of the Union. Let an honorable zeal glow in our bosoms as we eagerly press forward to render our services. It would give the Governor inexpressible satisfaction if Pennsylvania would volunteer her quota. May each State animate the others, and every citizen act as if the public weal, the national honor, and independence, rested on his single arm. The example of the Heroes and Statesmen of our revolution, and the rich inheritance their courage and wisdom achieved, cannot fail to urge all who love their country, to flock around her standard. Upborne by the right hands of freemen, planted in the sacred soil their valor won, and consecrated by a righteous cause, this nation may well go forth "with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence," and a conscious belief that the arm of the Lord of Hosts, the strength of the mighty one of Israel, will be on our side.

The last appeal being now to be made by an injured and indignant nation, it remains for the militia and volunteers of Pennsylvania, by a prompt coöperation with her sister tates, to render efficient the measures which are or may hereafter be adopted by the United States Government.

The Adjutant General is charged with the necessary organization of the quota of the State conformably to the following plan:

1st. There shall forthwith be drafted, in the manner prescribed by law, 14,000 militia officers and privates, to be formed into two divisions, four brigades, and twenty-two regiments. The offer of service to the Governor of any flank company or companies attached to any regiment, of a number equal to the number of militia required to be drafted from such regiment, may be accepted in substitution of such draft from the regiment.

The corps of Artillery, Cavalry, Riflemen, and Infantry shall be in the following general proportions, as nearly as practicable:

Artillery, ...	700	Riflemen, ...	1,400
Cavalry, ...	700	Infantry, ...	11,200

2nd. The whole quota required shall be apportioned among the several divisions of the State, agreeably to a detail to be furnished by the Adjutant General.

The quotas of the several divisions of the State shall be formed into two divisions for the present service.

The quotas of the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh divisions of the State, shall form the first division for service, under the command of Major General Isaac Worrell, a Brigadier General from the first division and a Brigadier General from the third division of the State.

The quotas of the eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth divisions of the State shall form the second division for service, under the command of Major General Adamson Tannehill, with a Brigadier General from the second division and a Brigadier General from the fourth division of the State.

3rd. The men shall be mustered and inspected as soon as the drafts are made, and without delay returns shall be made to the Adjutant General, who shall thereupon transmit copies to the Secretary at War.

When the organization of the detachment shall be effected the respective corps will be exercised under the officers set over them—Drafted militia, by their proper officers; volunteers, as prescribed by law. The corps (either of drafted militia or of volunteers) will not remain embodied, nor be considered as in actual service, until by subsequent orders, they are directed to take the field.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have the honor to be, your Excellency's obedient servant,

SAMUEL AGNEW, Capt.

Capt. William Mitchell to Gov. Snyder.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23, 1812.

SIR: I have the honor of tendering the services of the Independent Blues to you, the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, as part of the first quota of the militia of the city of Philadelphia, agreeable to general orders and are ready to march at a moment's warning.

I remain your humble servant,

WILLIAM MITCHELL, Capt.

Capt. William Mitchell to Gov. Snyder.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23, 1812.

SIR: The company I have the honor to command consists of from sixty to eighty members, and there is no doubt but I will have one hundred in three weeks' time; we are ready to march at a moment's warning, with the exception of arms, those we have at present belong to the Fiftieth regiment, and we are attached to the Twenty-fourth regiment, and are compelled to give them up to the Fiftieth regiment. I applied to the Twenty-fourth regiment and I cannot get any from that quarter; indeed the arms we have at present are not fit for service. I, therefore, hope your Excellency will consider our situation, and furnish us with arms.

I remain, your humble servant,

WILLIAM MITCHELL,
Captain of Independent Blues.

George Mayer, &c., to Gov. Snyder.

LANCASTER, 25th May, 1812.

His Excellency, the Commander-in-Chief:

SIR: During the long space of time wherein other nations, under the scourge of ambitious and profligate princes, have been the victims of destructive wars, our favored country, by a judicious policy, has been sustained in the almost undisturbed enjoyment of happy peace. But in this singular age of revolutions, the convulsed state of the world at length threatens to involve our peaceful regions in the general vortex: and the hostile encroachments on our sovereignty by nations arrogantly presuming power, and unmindful of right, as well as past events yet too recent to have been forgotten, has rendered it necessary that the republic be placed into an attitude to support its dignity and maintain its independence.

To contribute to this end the Lancaster Phalanx, commanded by Captain James Humes, under the impulse that led their ancestors of glorious memory into an arduous and then almost hopeless contest, have this day unanimously resolved on a voluntary tender of their service to their country.

We, the undersigned, having been appointed a committee for the purpose, hereby, in the name and on behalf of the said corps, with pleasure tender their services to the Governor, as part of the quota to be detached from this Commonwealth, and as such are prepared to march, completely armed and equipped, at the required notice.

Felicitating the Commander-inChief on the patriotic ardor that pervades our country at this eventful crisis, we remain,

Your Excellency's most obedient,

GEO. MAYER,
JNO. F. STEINMAN, Jr.,
JNO. JEFFERIS, Lieut.,
Committee of the Lancaster Phalanx.

Abstract from the muster-roll of the Lancaster Phalanx, (light infantry, under the command of Capt. James Humes, attached to the One Hundred and Twenty-first regiment of Pennsylvania militia.

I certify the foregoing a true return of my company, this 25th day of May, 1812.

JAMES HUMES,
Captain.

GEO. MAYER,

Capt. Henry Jarrett to Gov. Snyder.

LOWER NAZARETH TOWNSHIP, June 2, 1812.

To His Excellency, SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: I have the honor to inform you that the troop of Cavalry under my command have unanimously agreed to tender to you their services, as a part of the quota of the Seventy-first regiment required by General Orders lately issued. When our country is insulted by foreign nations, when our citizens are murdered in our own waters by the British, when our fellow-citizens are taken captive on the high seas, and compelled to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands, and when internal enemies threaten a disolution of our happy Union, it is time for those who care their country and who are ready to die in its defense to be up and doing. Under this conviction, sir, the troop I have the honor to command, alive to the interest and honor of their country, and convinced of the wrongs, the injustice, and the accumulated insults heaped upon us by the British government, have determined to offer to their country their services and their lives, if required, in defense of its violated rights. I have in charge from them to state to you, sir, that we will be ready, at a moment's warning, to go on any service our country may call us, to defend and preserve those rights and liberties which were secured to us by the heroes of '76. We have at present forty-eight men in the troop, and, if I am not very much mistaken—indeed, each man will glory in an opportunity of defending their country against the wrongs and injuries heaped upon us by foreign nations, particularly the piratical nation of Great Britain, whose officers have basely and treacherously murdered our citizens in our own waters, and whose agents use the scalping-knife and tomahawk against our innocent and helpless citizens on our frontiers.

I have the honor to be, sir, with much respect, your obedient servant,

By order of my troop,

HENRY JARRETT,
Captain.

J. Young to Gov. Snyder.

AARONSBURG, June 2, 1812.

To his Excellency, SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: Enclosed I have the honor of transmitting to you the tender of service of a spirited and patriotic rifle company attached to the One Hundred and Thirty-first regiment, Pennsylvania militia, in substitution of the required draft from this regiment.

I have the honor to be,
Your Excellency's obedient servant,
J. YOUNG,
Inspector First B., Eleventh D., P. M.

J. Young to Capt. Joseph Klekner.

JOSEPH KLEKNER, Captain of the Rifle Company attached to the One Hundred and Thirty-first Regiment, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: I shall lose no time in transmitting to his Excellency, the Governor of Pennsylvania, the prompt and patriotic offer of service of the company under your command, in substitution of the militia required to be drafted from this regiment. Your readiness to march, I have experienced on a former occasion. You deserve well of your country.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. YOUNG,
Inspector First B., Eleventh D., P. M.

Capt. Joseph Kleckner to Major John Young.

TO MAJOR JOHN YOUNG, Inspector of the First Brigade, Eleventh Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: I have the honor to inform you that the Rifle company attached to the One Hundred and Thirty-first regiment, Pennsylvania militia, who have honored me with their command, have this day resolved to tender their services to the Governor of this Commonwealth, through you, as the quota of militia now required to be drafted from this regiment, and ready to march at a moment's warning.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant,
JOSEPH KLECKNER, Captain.

Capt. Walter Lithgow to Gov. Snyder.

To his Excellency, SIMON SNYDER, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia of Pennsylvania:

SIR: On behalf of the "Pittsburgh Republican Volunteers," attached to the One Hundred and Forty-first regiment of Pennsylvania Militia, I beg leave to tender you their services as part of the 14,000 men required to be furnished by this State, agreeably to the orders of the President of the United States.

At this eventful crisis of our national affairs, they conceive it to be their duty as citizens of the only free government in the world, and as supporters of the present administration, to step forth with their mite in defense of those sacred rights, for which their forefathers fought, bled, and died; that should occasion require, they may have an apportunity of proving in the field, that they are not the degenerate sons of gallant sires.

The muster-roll enclosed, contains the names of such as could, at a very short notice, be procured to sign, and in the course of a few days, I have no doubt, it might be signed by the whole corps, amounting to fifty-three, officers included.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your fellow citizen, &c.,
WALTER LITHGOW,
Captain.

We, the subscribers, do hereby volunteer, and offer our services to the United States, under and pursuant to the act of Congress, entitled "An act to authorize a detachment from the Militia of the United States," passed the 10th day of April, 1812, as a part of the detachment of 14,000 men required by the general orders of the Commander-in-Chief, bearing date the 12th day of May, 1812. In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names, this 2d day of June, 1812.

Lieut. Col. John Smith to Gov. Snyder.

SIR: It is with great pleasure I have to announce to you the voluntary tender of service of the First regiment of Pennsylvania cavalry, whose wish it is to be considered as part of the quota of Pennsylvania, under the requisition authorized by the President of the United States. What makes the offer peculiarly patriotic, is the conflicting political opinions entertained by those corps who compose the regiment cordially uniting in supporting the honor and rights of our common country.

The resolution, which I have the honor to enclose to the Governor, exhibits the solicitude of the regiment not to be disunited or subject to a draft, but, if it is his pleasure not to accept of the offer of the entire regiment, that, in that case, the requisite number wanted be supplied by troops under the command of their respective officers.

I am, sir, with sentiments of high consideration and respect,

Your obedient servant,

JNO. SMITH,

Lieutenant Colonel Commandant.

At a meeting of the First regiment of cavalry, convened at the house of Mr. Rubican, June 2, 1812, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this regiment offer its services to the Commander-in-Chief of the militia of Pennsylvania, to be called into the field either in a body or by troops in substitution of a draft from the regiment: and that the commandant be requested to transmit to the Governor a copy of this resolution.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3, 1812.

N. B. Boileau to Col. John Smith.

HARRISBURG, July 9th, 1812.

SIR: I have to inform you that the tender of service made to the Governor by the First regiment of the Pennsylvania cavalry, under date of the 10th of June, has been duly received and appreciated. The reason why yours of the 24th of June was not sooner acknowledged, was on account of the Governor's and my absence from the seat of government.

The first tender of service made to the Governor was from the volunteer company at this place, and immediately after the issuing the Governor's general orders, in that case the Governor thought it proper to return them a special answer.

You can easily perceive the inconvenience of giving a particular answer to every volunteer company that might tender their service. It would occupy more of the Governor's time and attention than could be spared from his various and arduous official duties. The subject also would have been so completely exhausted as to render it almost impossible to have avoided a repetition of the same sentiments and ideas. The Governor, therefore, instructed the Adjutant General to write a circular to the different brigade inspectors requesting the tender services should be made a general return to him of the volunteers who had tendered their services, he would then notice their patriotism in a suitable manner.

Very respectfully,

N. B. BOILEAU.

Capt. William Mitchell to Gov. Snyder.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6, 1812.

SIR: Being impressed with the opinion that you did not receive my first letter, bearing date the 19th of May last, from which I received no answer. I directed it to Harrisburg, to your honor. It contains the offered services of the Independent Blues, of which I have the honor to command. I hope, sir, you will receive it, and answer it as soon as most convenient. We have formed the Philadelphia Militia Legion, and I hope in a few days we shall have the honor to offer their services, and have our own field officers.

With respect, I remain, sir,
Your humble servant,
WILLIAM MITCHELL,
Captain, No. 75 Lombard st.

Capt. Samuel Thomas to Gov. Snyder.

KINGSTON, June 10, 1812.

To his Excellency, SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: I have the honor of informing your Excellency that the Luzerne Volunteer Matross, who have honored me with their command, have unanimously resolved to tender their services to the Governor of Pennsylvana, as part of the quota of the Pennsylvania militia. required by general orders issued the 12th day of May, 1812, and that they will be in readiness to march, when ordered, on any tour of duty which the honor and safety of their country may require.

I have the honor to be
Your Excellency's obedient servant,
SAMUEL THOMAS,
Captain.

SIR: Please to authorize me to purchase twenty dollars' worth of powder for the use of the Luzerne Volunteer Corps of Artillerists under my command, for the year 1812.

And oblige your obedient servant,
SAMUEL THOMAS,
Captain.

Lewis Rush to N. B. Boileau.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9, 1812.

N. B. BOILEAU, Esquire:

SIR: Inclosed you will find a letter addressed to the Governor, I not knowing whether the Governor was in Harrisburg or not, I thought best to forward it in this manner, as it is on public business. You, therefore, will oblige the legionary board of officers by giving them the earliest information on the subject of the letter and the resolution of the board.

I remain your humble servant,
LEWIS RUSH,

Lewis Rush to Gov. Snyder.

SIMON SNYDER, Esquire, SIR:

Agreeably to a resolution of the legionary board of officers, I was requested to obtain information from you concerning the command of the legion, in case they tender their service to you. The officers are of an opinion that they will be commanded by some other colonel. They well know that they come under the notice of the general staff, but are not willing to be commanded by any other regimental officers but their own. I am of an opinion that the legion can tender their service by law as a separate body from the other regiments. I also inclose a copy from our minutes. An answer from you to the above will be thankfully received by,

Your obedient humble servant,
LEWIS RUSH.

Resolved, That Col. Rush be desired to obtain information from the Governor, whether, upon a tender of the services to him of the legion, they will be commanded by their own officers, or placed under a separate command. Upon that inquiry being made, Col. Rush is requested to call a special meeting of the legion.

June 8, 1812.

To his Excellency, SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania:

At a crisis like the present while wars and rumors of wars are abroad in the earth, and the two great belligerents continue to add insult to injury, it becomes the sons of Columbia to arouse from their apathy and stand forth in the defence of their country's rights. Rights which have been dearly bought by the blood and treasure of our forefathers. (Although we deprecate war with all its train of concomitant evils) yet we, as a troop or band of brothers, are ready to stand forth in the defence of our country's just rights, and do frankly tender our services as a volunteer corps, to be at your command for the legalized time required by the militia law.

With sentiments of due esteem,
I rest, affectionately yours, &c.,

PHILADELPHIA, June 24, 1812.

SIMON SNYDER, Esq.:

SIR: I had the honor of addressing you by letter the 10th instant a copy of which, together with the resolution to which it refers, you have herewith. Not receiving an answer, has induced me to suppose that it has been miscarried. The subject to which it refers being of importance to those concerned as well to the public, must plead my apology for thus troubling you.

With great respect, I am, sir,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN SMITH,
Lieut. Col. First Regiment, Penn'a Cavalry.

[Copy]

SIR: It is with great pleasure I have to announce to you the voluntary tender of service of the First regiment of Pennsylvania cavalry, whose wish is to be considered as part of the quota of Pennsylvania under the requisition authorized by the President of the United States. What makes the offer peculiarly patriotic is, the conflicting political opinion entertained by those corps who compose the regiment, cordially uniting in supporting the honor and right of our common country.

The resolution which I have the honor to inclose to the Governor, exhibits the solicitude of the regiment not to be disunited or subject to a draft. But if it be his pleasure not to accept of the offer of the entire regiment, that, in that case, the requisite number wanted, be supplied by troops under the command of their respective officers.

With sentiments of high consideration and respect,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN SMITH,
Lieut. Col. Commandant.

SIR: It becomes my duty, in behalf of the Philadelphia Militia Legion, which I have the honor at present to command, to communicate to you the following resolutions of the legionary board of officers. An answer previous to the 4th of July would be very pleasing to the Legion:

Resolved, That the commandant be requested to make a tender of the service agreeable to the foregoing resolution.

Sir, your most obedient humble servant,
ROBERT McGUIGAN,

Brig. Gen. John Noble to Gov. Simon Snyder.

September 9, 1812.

GOVERNOR SNYDER: Your Excellency's general orders of the 5th September instant, I had the honor to receive on the 8th instant, which being the day the brigade inspector leaves home to commence the march of volunteers from my brigade. Considering myself, under these circumstances, required to act, and by doing my duty, in some cases, would have to perform the duty of brigade inspector. This day, in Fifty-fifth regiment, I had a conference with the officers of a volunteer Rifle company. Elected and a return made for commissions, they desire to be accepted in substitution of the draft for s^d regiment: Provided, 1st, that their commissions be received by them before the march does commence; 2d, their camp equipage furnished to them before they march or, at furthest, Bedford; 3d, that their services may be accepted in the bounds of the Union, and not beyond the line, unless by their own consent. Then they desire me to communicate and through me wish your Excellency's answer in that day usual for your Excellency to communicate. In the mean time, I have appointed the senior officer, &c., will immediately proceed to the next regiment, &c. I doubt not but the quotas will commence their march from their respective regiments 22d inst. I humbly request, if consistent with your Excellency's pleasure and arrangements, to be furnished with tents and other field equipage for this detachment, consisting of about one hundred and twenty officers, included by the time before mentioned, 22d inst., one half at McConnelsburgh, the rest at Bloody Run. Should your Excellency honor me with an answer through your secretary or aid-de-camp, order the same to be left in McConnelsburg post-office, or should the bearer of these wait, and your Excellency favor with an answer by him would come safe to me, whilst I beg leave to subscribe.

Your Excellency's most obedient and Very humble servant,
JOHN NOBLE,
Brigadier General, Second Brigade, Twelfth Division.

GOV. SNYDER TO CAPT. SAMUEL AGNEW.

TO SAMUEL AGNEW, Captain of the Harrisburg Volunteers:

SIR: The prompt offer by the Harrisburg Volunteers to serve as part of the quota of Pennsylvania militia (in substitution of the draft of the regiment to which they are attached) required to be held in readiness for active service, under the order of the President of the United States, as contained in General Orders promulgated this morning through the Adjutant General, proves that whenever any foreign power attempts to invade the inestimable rights acquired by the patriotism and valor of the heroes of the Revolution, these men are prepared to defend the sacred trust and glorious inheritance that descends upon them, and that "we are not degenerate sons of gallant sires." With high gratification, gentlemen, I accept your offering the first fruit of patriotism. It is, I trust, a happy omen of an abundant harvest throughout the State.

SIMON SNYDER.

JOHN GOODMAN TO GOV. SNYDER.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17, 1812.

To his Excellency, SIMON SNYDER, Esq., Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

SIR: Permit me to discharge a duty which I think I owe the State, by making a brief statement of the condition in which the Pennsylvania State Arsenal is found at the present time.

On a view of the lot, on which the arsenal (so-called) is erected, on Saturday last, I found the western part of the same covered with putrid, stagnant water, of the depth of some inches, the cause of which may be attributed to the raising of the adjoining streets. The lot may, at this time, with propriety, be termed a nuisance, which, unless speedily removed, must endanger the health of the neighborhood. The public property contained in the arsenal has, also, suffered severely from the water, which hath risen above its floor. Within the space of one year or eighteen months, the State has sustained considerable damages in the perishable articles contained in the building, in addition to the damage suffered by the carriages from the continual dampness of the place. By the heavy fall of rain yesterday, I have no doubt the water must have risen considerable.

Colonel Ferguson, who is the bearer of this letter, will give you further information on this subject.

I am, Sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant, &c.,
JOHN GOODMAN.

John Slater to Board of Health.

June 10, 1812.

To Board of Health:

I am attending to the complaint of those residing in Juniper street near Centre square; but take liberty of representing the arsenal lot of ground as comprising a part of the grievance complained of, three fourths of which is completely inundated. Col. Ferguson will, no doubt, take it into consideration.

I am, &c.,
JOHN SLATER.

I expect that the water is considerable above the floor of the cannon-house.

N. B. BOILEAU TO ADJUTANT GEN. REED.

HARRISBURG, July 14, 1812.

SIR: I am instructed by the Governor, to direct you to issue orders immediately to the respective brigade inspectors, to inspect the public arms within the bounds of their brigades, and to have a sufficient number of them put into complete repair, ready for delivery to the men drafted, whenever they may be called into actual service. For this purpose the said brigade inspectors shall direct the captains, or commanding officers of companies in the bounds of which the army may be found, to have such of them as may require it, cleaned and put in complete repair. The expense incurred in the aforesaid cleaning and repairs to be paid out of the regimental funds; but if the funds be inadequate then the accounts for doing the same, with proper vouchers, to be exhibited to the accounting officers of the Commonwealth, by the proper brigade inspectors. The captains or commanding officers of the companies to be further directed, to make previous specific agreements with the person or persons whom they may employ to perform the above service; and the said brigade inspectors to be further instructed to make return to you, of any deficiency of arms in their brigades to supply the present draft; a copy of which you will transmit to the Governor with the least possible delay.

Very respectfully, &c.,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GENERAL ORDERS.

To WILLIAM CLARK, Esq.:

Actual hostilities having been commenced by the forces of the King of Great Britain, on the waters of Lake Erie, within the jurisdiction of the United States, and an invasion of the territories of this State threatened, I order and direct you, the said William Clark, forthwith to have in readiness for field duty two classes of your brigade of militia not already drafted under the requisition of the President of the United States, in the manner and order prescribed by law. And that you order, from time to time, such portion of those classes, (or of flank, or other companies as may volunteer their services in substitution) as may be deemed sufficient by Brig. Gen. John Kelso, to guard and protect the inhabitants, to repair without delay to the most suitable place of rendezvous, to be at the further disposition of the said Brig. Gen. Kelso; which detachment or detachments, at the station or stations to which they may be ordered shall be under the immediate command of such officer or officers as is directed by the twenty-fifth section of the Act of Assembly of April 9, 1807. And you are further authorized and directed to have purchased for the use of the troops on service, any quantity of powder not exceeding one thousand pounds' weight, together with a sufficient quantity of lead for ball. The amount whereof with other expenses incident to the service, to be paid at this place on producing accounts accompanied by proper vouchers.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. DAVID B. WHEELER.

HARRISBURG, July 16, 1812.

SIR: Yours of the 8th instant has been received, but the letter to which you allude containing an affidavit has not come to hand. I am instructed by the Governor to state to you, that if the fact be true that Moses Kilpatrick be an alien, he is under a legal disability to hold a commission in the militia. You will, therefore, withhold his commission until you have further instructions from the Governor, and, in the meantime, forward a copy of the affidavit you have mentioned, and any other information you may obtain, the Governor will then direct what proceedings are to be had.

Very respectfully, &c.,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN GOODMAN.

HARRISBURG, July 16, 1812.

SIR: In answer to yours of the ——[*] to the Governor, I have to state that the Governor feels every disposition to place the military establishment of the State, both as it regards discipline and arms, in as respectable a situation as is within the limits of his legal power. On perusing the eleventh section of the supplement to the militia law, passed 26th March, 1808, there appears to be power given to him, at least incidentally, to direct, if necessary, the repairs of the arsenal carriages, &c. Previously, however, to his giving such directions, it appears proper for him to ascertain what repairs are necessary, and a probable estimate of the expense of such repairs, and whether the fund appropriated for that purpose is adequate to the object. In the section above alluded to, it is directed that the expenses of such repairs shall be paid by the county treasurer out of the exempt fines. The Governor wishes information on the above points before he gives any order on the subject.

Very respectfully, &c.,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S. Your letter, no doubt, was written with the knowledge of the commanding officers of the regiment of artillery. You, of course, will shew them the above.

N. B. BOILEAU TO P. FARRELLY.

P. FARRELLY, Esq., Meadville:

SIR: Yours of the 8th instant was received by this day's mail. I have laid it, together with your resolutions relative to quieting distrusts which may exist among the Indians on the Allegheny, before the Governor. He approves the measures you have taken with regard to arms and ammunition. I have to state to you that your wishes have been, in some degree at least, anticipated. In consequence of a representation made to the Governor by General Kelso, he has ordered a portion of the militia of the First brigade, Sixteenth division, into actual service, to be stationed at such points as

---

[*] The letter was mislaid and the date not recollected.

General Kelso shall deem most expedient. We are also now engaged in packing up in boxes 500 muskets, together with 200 pounds of lead, 5,000 flints and six kegs of powder. That being all the ammunition that could be procured at this place. The Governor has also directed Mr. Clark, the Brigade Inspector, to procure a further supply of those articles wherever they can most conveniently be had. The muskets, &c., above mentioned, I expect will leave this place, for Erie, to-morrow. Cartridge boxes also would have been sent had there been any belonging to the State, or could they have been procured. You must endeavor to accommodate yourselves as well as you can, by substituting pouches instead of boxes until provision is made to supply you otherwise. It is much to be regretted that the Legislature did not put it into the power of the Governor to place the State in a more defensible situation.

Very respectfully, &c.,

N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO NICHOLAS SAEGER.

NICHOLAS SAEGER, Esq., Inspector 1st Brigade, 8th Division, Pennsylvania militia:

SIR: Mr. Henry, of Nazareth, manufactured a number of muskets for the use of the Commonwealth, a part of which is still in his possession. The Governor directs you to open a box or two of them, and examine in what state they are; also, how many boxes there are, and the number in each box, and whether there are any that are not in boxes, and if there are, their number and situation. And that you will, as early as possible, make report of the result of your examination to the Governor or to me. The present situation of our country is such as to render a prompt attention to the above subject necessary.

Very respectfully, &c.,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO P. A. BROWNE.

HARRISBURG, July 21, 1812.

P. A. BROWNE, Esq., Philadelphia:

SIR: Yours of the 13th instant was received this morning. I have to regret that I cannot comply with your request, without a departure from the established usage of the office, which is never to suffer a certificate to go out of the office without attaching it ourselves, by means of the seal itself, to the paper or document it is designed to authenticate. The keeping of the Great Seal is confided to me, and I am responsible for the application of it, and cannot transfer that responsibility to another person. I wish to be clearly understood as not having the smallest apprehension that you would use the certificate improperly; but you will easily perceive the inconveniences that might result, were I to deviate in a single instance from the established usage. I will only add that it appears to me necessary, to give authority to the document, it ought to bear the mark of the seal itself, or that the certificate itself should manifestly appear to have been attached to the document by means of the Great Seal.

Very respectfully, &c.,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM CLARK.

HARRISBURG, July 23, 1812.

WILLIAM CLARK, Esq., Brigade Inspector, Meadville:

SIR: Agreeably to the orders of the Governor, three wagons this day left Harrisburg for Meadville, containing 32 boxes of muskets. The lighter boxes containing 12 muskets each, with their locks on, the heavier 24, with the locks taken off, lapp'd in paper and numbered. The muskets have a corresponding number marked near the screw plate. The whole number, 504. In the different boxes is distributed 200 pounds of lead. Those boxes are marked. In one box there are 1000 flints, which box is also marked. There are also two small boxes, containing three kegs of powder each, amounting in the whole to 150 pounds. The best muskets were selected. They are rusty and want cleaning and oiling, which would have been done here, but the Governor was apprehensive it would have occasioned too much delay. It will occupy but a short time for each man to clean his own musket. In the distribution of them, you will be governed by the law and your own sound discretion, aided by the general and other field officers of the division or brigade. Knowing the time of the wagons leaving this place you will be able to calculate nearly the time of their arrival at Meadville. It would, therefore, be desirable that you should be there to receive them, and to give a receipt to the wagoners for the safe delivery of the muskets and other articles above mentioned.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S. It is suggested for your consideration, whether Waterford being on the turnpike and the head of the navigation of French creek, would not be a proper place of deposit for the arms.

N. B. A letter of similar import to the above, was sent by the wagon.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. WILLIAM REED.

HARRISBURG, August 18, 1812.

Gen. WILLIAM REED:

SIR: By this morning's mail I received a letter from the Governor. The following extracts from his letter will explain his views relative to the enquiries submitted to him: "I am of opinion that the Adjutant General, in his return to the Secretary at War, need not make a specific or detailed account of deficiencies of arms and other military equipments of the drafted militia and volunteers, he may say That some deficiences appear to exist, but that they would, as promptly as possible, be supplied." Again, with regard to the Brigadier Generals, he writes: "If I am to designate the Brigadier Generals that are to serve under the Major Generals Worrall and Tannehill, the rule that obtains generally must prevail in this case. I, therefore, designate the oldest brigadiers in each of the two divisions mentioned in general orders of May last." It appeared on examining our military book, when you were here, that William Duncan was the oldest Brigadier in the First division, and William Harris, of the Third division; Samuel Smith, of the Second division, and Jacob Hilghman, of the Fourth division. Those, therefore, I suppose, are to be the Generals. You will report them accordingly, and perhaps it would be proper for you to give them notice. It would be desirable that you should, as early as possible, make your return to the Secretary at War.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. EBENEZER FERGUSON.

HARRISBURG, August 21, 1812.

Col. EBENEZER FERGUSON:

SIR: By a letter received from you some time since, it appears that the artillery in the city is in a bad situation, particularly as it regards their exposure to the weather. I wish to be informed what would be the probable expense of erecting a temporary building to secure them from the injury of the weather, and if a site for such building could not be procured without much difficulty. I wish, also, to be informed whether or not there are some apartments in the State house unoccupied, in which, for the present, the necessary apparatus for the artillery could be deposited. I have one further enquiry to make, that is, whether each company of artillery has not one piece fit for actual service, in case of necessity; if not, the probable expense of putting such a number in a situation for actual use. I expect the Governor here to-morrow, and, therefore, request your answer as early as convenient, that I may submit the same to his consideration.

Very respectfully, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, August 25, 1812.

The President of the United States having, through the Secretary at War, and General Dearborn, under date, respectively, of the 13th inst., required a detachment of 2,000 militia to be marched, with the least possible delay, from the north-western parts of Pennsylvania to Buffalo, in the State of New York, duty and feeling direct a prompt compliance with a requisition, giving scope for action to the patriotism evinced by that portion of our citizen soldiers who have volunteered their services, under general orders of 12th May last, in substitution of the draft required of the State. To obey this call, in defence of rights sacred to freemen, to avenge the injuries of the nation, and defend the cause of suffering humanity, the volunteers of Pennsylvania will not hesitate a moment to meet the avowed enemy of those rights, not only within the bounds of the United States, but will, without those limits, with ardor seek, and with the determination characteristic of freemen, punish the unprovoked invaders of our rights and property. For obvious reasons the adjutant general has orders to designate for service, such of the volunteers as can, with the least possible delay be marched to the scene of action; and is charged with the organization of the detachment of 2,000 men, conformably to the following plan: The detachment to constitute a brigade, to consist of four regiments, and each regiment to consist of two battalions, to be arranged by the Adjutant General at the place of rendezvous.

The general rendezvous will be at Meadville, to which place the volunteers, composing the detachment, will march with the requisite expedition, so that they be there on the 25th day of September next. By the twenty-sixth section of the general militia law, among other services by them to be performed, it is made the duty of the brigade inspectors to march each with his proper detachment to the place of rendezvous.

These officers are severally required and directed to provide subsistence, and other necessary accommodation for the troops on their march, and exhibit detailed accounts for settlement and payment, to the accountant officers of the Commonwealth.

Apprised of the generally prevailing desire that those appointed to command may be the choice of the commanded, the Governor, agreeably to the tenth section of a supplement to the militia law, passed 26th March, 1808, and the twenty-seventh section of the general militia law, authorizes and directs the officers and privates of the detachment, on the day succeeding the 25th day of September next, or those who shall have arrived to elect agreeably to the rules prescribed by the militia law, one brigadier general; each regiment to elect a colonel commandant; each battalion, one major. The brigadier general to appoint his own brigade major. The field officers of each regiment shall appoint their respective regimental staffs. To expedite the expedition in discharge of his duty, the Adjutant General will attend and deliver to the officers elect their commissions.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO DANIEL SHARP.

HARRISBURG, August 24, 1812.

DANIEL SHARP, Esq.:

SIR: By your letter of the 4th, to Gen. Reed, now before me, it appears you entertain some doubts whether or not the tender of service made by the Philadelphia legion would be accepted by the Governor.

The first tender of service made under date of June 9, 1812, was connected with a condition that the legion should be under the command of their own officers. It was not in the power of the Governor to say that this should always be the case when in actual service, as exigencies might arise in which the Commander-in-Chief of the army or detachment to which the legion might be attached, might deem it necessary to make a different arrangement. But the second tender, made under date of June 27, 1812, being without any such condition annexed, it was thought that a special answer of acceptance from the Governor was superseded by the general orders, in which it was expressed explicitly that such tender would be accepted.

Gen. Reed is now at the seat of government, and will remain here a few days, during which time an opportunity will be afforded to you for forwarding your returns to him with more dispatch than to Millerstown, his usual place of residence.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM LINNARD.

HARRISBURG, August 25, 1812.

WILLIAM LINNARD, Esq., Department Quarter-Master General :

SIR : Your letter of — inst. has been received by the Governor, and I have to inform you that the Governor has issued general orders for 2,409 volunteer militia, to rendezvous at Meadville, on the 25th day of September next. You will, therefore, please to give instructions to the proper officer at Pittsburgh, to furnish the necessary articles for the use of the troops assembled at that place at the time appointed, to insure the number of 2,000. The Governor has ordered 2,409 to march. It would, therefore, be expedient to direct supplies for the larger number.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

P. S. If it is not your province to direct camp kettles to be supplied, please to intimate to C. Irwin, Esq., superintendent military stores, to direct them to be furnished.

N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CALENDER IRVINE.

HARRISBURG, August 25, 1812.

TO CALENDER IRVINE, Superintendent Military Stores :

SIR : Your letter of the 17th instant has been received by the Governor, who has issued general orders for 2409 volunteer militia, to rendezvous at Meadville, on the 25th day of September next. You will, therefore, please to intrust the proper officers to forward to that place a sufficient number of tents, kettles, and other camp equipage necessary for the detachment above mentioned, so as to be ready at the time appointed for assembling the troops at Meadville. There will be in the detachment 1 brigadier, 4 colonels, 8 majors, 46 captains.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S. General Reed will be at Meadville to receipt for the articles delivered. To ensure the number of 2,000 the Governor has ordered out the number of 2,409. It might be prudent to supply for the larger number.

N. B. BOILEAU TO LIEUT. JOHNSON, ASSISTANT QUARTER-MASTER.

HARRISBURG, SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 25, 1812.

LIEUT. JOHNSON, Assistant Quarter-Master, Pittsburgh.

SIR: I herewith enclose to you a copy of a letter from Calender Irvine (superintendent of military stores) to the Governor, and have to inform you that the Governor has issued general orders for 2,409 volunteer militia to assemble at Meadville, on the 25th day of September next. I have deemed it expedient to give you the earliest information of the above circumstances, that you may make the necessary arrangements, with the least possible delay, to execute the orders you may receive from Mr. Irvine, whom I have written to on the subject. I hope, however, on perusing the enclosed, you will feel justified in proceeding to forward tents to Meadville, without waiting for any further instructions, to prevent serious inconveniencies that might result, in case the instructions from Mr. Irvine might, by some unforeseen delay, not reach you in time.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO LIEUT. JOHNSON, DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT MILITARY STORES.

HARRISBURG, SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 26, 1812.

SIR: By the last mail I wrote a letter to you, inclosing a letter from Calender Irvine, Esq., superintendent of military stores, in which he states that he is directed to furnish tents and other camp equipage for a detachment of 2,000 militia, ordered into service from this State. The Governor issued general orders for that purpose yesterday, directing the troops to assemble at Meadville on the 25th of September next. I deemed it expedient to write to you again on the subject, (lest the former letter might have miscarried,) by an express who carries out the general orders, to give you an early intimation of the circumstance, that you might have an opportunity of making arrangements to carry promptly into effect any directions you might receive from the superintendent of military stores, to whom I have written on the subject.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SNYDER TO THE BRIGADE INSPECTORS.

SIR: You will immediately, on the receipt of the General Orders, communicate them to the captains or commanding officers of the volunteer companies within the bounds of your brigade, viz: [This blank was filled with the names of the commanding officers of the companies in the respective brigades,] and give every aid in your power to have the companies marched as expeditiously as possible to the place of rendezvous (Meadville) mentioned in General Orders. The troops will be supplied with rations, tents, and other camp equipage, by the United States. Should there be any deficiency of arms in any of the volunteer companies, you will supply them out of any that may be in the bounds of your brigade. If there cannot be a sufficient number found in that way, they will be furnished at the place of rendezvous. Every man will take care to supply himself with a blanket and knapsack. It is confidently expected that the patriotism of the volunteers is too sincere and ardent to permit them to make any objections to crossing the boundary line of the United States; otherwise they will render no service to their country.

By order of the Governor.

To ——— ———, Esquire,
Brigade Inspector.

Adjutant General.

N. B. BOILEAU TO E. DENNY.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, August 26, 1812.

SIR: I wrote to you by the last mail, enclosing a copy of a letter from Gen. Dearborn to Mr. Linnard, deputy quarter-master general, in which he is directed to make arrangements for supplying a detachment of 2,000 militia, of this State, with rations, &c., until they reach Buffalo; as that letter might possibly be miscarried, I have thought it advisable to write you by the express who carries the General Orders of the Governor, issued yesterday, which directs the said detachment to rendezvous at Meadville on the 25th of September next: I hope, therefore, that you will make the necessary arrangements for supplying the troops with rations at Meadville, and from thence to Buffalo. I have written to Mr. Linnard on the subject, from whom I expect you will shortly receive more particular instructions.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, August 26, 1812.

TO WILLIAM REED, Esq., Adjutant General of Pennsylvania:

SIR: You are ordered to attend at Meadville, the rendezvous for 2,000 volunteers of this State, ordered into service on the north-western frontier of this Commonwealth, under a requisition of the proper authority. You will, accordingly, with the least possible delay, repair to the said rendezvous, and take command of the detachment. The citizen soldiers whereof, officers and privates, as they shall, from day to day, arrive, are commanded strictly to obey and execute all that you shall lawfully order and direct, until a Brigadier General and other officers for said detachment shall have been elected and commissioned, agreeably to the general orders of yesterday. The said Brigadier General having taken the command, is ordered and commanded, with the least possible delay, to march the brigade under his command to Niagara, and on his arrival, immediately report himself to the Commanding General of the troops at that place.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp.

GOV. SNYDER TO GEN. HENRY DEARBORN.

HARRISBURG, 26th August, 1812.

To Gen. HENRY DEARBORN, Commanding the Army of the United States, Greenbush, near Albany, in the State of New York:

SIR: Your request, under authority of the President, of the 13th instant, which I received by express from this place, at Selins' Grove, on the 21st, that I would order out 2,000 of the north-western militia of Pennsylvania, is complied with, as you will perceive by a copy of the General Orders, under date of yesterday, which I have the honor to inclose. I take the liberty to inclose also a copy of a letter to me, on the same subject, from the Secretary at War, because of the variance between the two requisitions. You make the request under the act of February 28, 1795, under which the militia cannot be longer retained in service than three months. The act of 10th April, 1812, authorizes the retention of militia in service six months. The Secretary at War directs that the detachment shall consist of the proportions recognized in the order of April 15. Your letter says: "There will be no use for cavalry nor any artillery, unless supplied with field pieces and apparatus complete." On this subject I have, by letter of this day, said to the Secretary at War, that under the belief, the object of both was to have detached for the service the most efficient force, the General Orders are for volunteer infantry and riflemen. They are of the military of Pennsylvania the best equipped and the best disciplined, and, in my opinion, the most efficient for the service. The number of riflemen is 1,380, of infantry 962, giving a surplus equal to any probable deficiency.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO EBENEZER FERGUSON, OF PHILADELPHIA.

HARRISBURG, August 29, 1812.

SIR: Yours of the 26th I received this morning, which I submitted to the Governor, and am instructed to request you to have, with as little delay as possible, nine pieces of artillery put in complete repair, provided that you can get it done, so as that the whole expense does not exceed fifty dollars for each piece. Your estimate of expense, exclusive of boring, is thirty dollars. On examining the accounts of Mr. Goodman, for boring one of the pieces, as stated in the Auditor General's office, is found to be twenty dollars. With regard to an arsenal for keeping the cannon, it would appear to me that it must remain with the Legislature to direct, if there are no apartments in the State House which could be occupied for that purpose. I should suppose if the guns were dismounted, and the carriages taken apart, one chamber in the court-house would hold them.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SNYDER TO WILLIAM EUSTIS, SECRETARY OF WAR.

HARRISBURG, August 26, 1812.

To Hon. WILLIAM EUSTIS, Secretary at War, at the city of Washington:

SIR: Yours, under date of the 13th inst., reached me at Selins Grove, the place of my residence, on the 21st, by express from Harrisburg. On Sunday evening, the 23d, I arrived at this place, and yesterday general orders were issued. directing 2000 volunteers militia to march and rendezvous at Meadville, in the north-western part of this State, a copy of which order I have the honor herewith to enclose. I also enclose a copy of a letter to me from Gen. Dearborn of the same date and on the same subject. I do this because of the variation between your letter and the General's. The former requiring a detachment of military, under the act April 10, 1812, in the proportion recognized in the order of April 15th, under which act the military may be retained in service six months. The latter makes the requisition under the act of Congress of March 28, 1795. Under this last act the militia cannot be longer retained in service than three months. The General further says, there would be no use for cavalry nor artillery unless supplied with field pieces and apparatus complete. Under the belief the object of both was to have detached for the service the most efficient force, the general orders are for volunteer infantry and riflemen. They are of the militia of Pennsylvania, the best equipped, the best disciplined, and, in my opinion, the most efficient for the service. The number of riflemen is 1380, of infantry 962, giving a surplus equal to any probable deficiency. The only artillery in a situation to be efficient is at Philadelphia, a point to remote from the scene of action. If, however, the President should deem it necessary to order out a portion of artillery, upon intimation to me, it will be promptly attended to.

With sentiments of high consideration,
I am, sir, your most obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO ROBERT SMITH.

HARRISBURG, September 1, 1812.

ROBERT SMITH, Inspector First Brigade, Ninth Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: Your letter of the 31st ult., to the Governor, has been received. It was confidently presumed that all those volunteer companies which had tendered their services to the Governor, were completely uniformed, armed, and equipped for service, as it was there duty to be; from your letter, however, it appears not to be the case. The only alternative now remains that you collect a sufficient number of muskets, within the bounds of your brigade, and furnish the men, ordered to march, with them, instead of rifles. There are no rifles belonging to the Commonwealth at the disposition of the Governor. With regard to blankets, each man must supply himself, as well as a knapsack. This certainly can be done with little difficulty or expense. Tents and other camp equipage, will be furnished at Meadville by the general orders. You perceive it will be your duty to provide rations for the men until they reach Meadville. This you can accomplish by either going forward in advance of the detachment from your brigade, or sending forward an officer from the detachment, to make contracts for provisions to supply the men from day to day, until they reach the place of general rendezvous, giving a receipt to the person who furnishes the supply, which will be settled at the department of accounts. The Governor has no power to draw money for that purpose in advance. If there are any rifles belonging to the Commonwealth, in either the First or Second brigades, in the hands of men not ordered into service, you are hereby authorized to take such rifles, and put them into the hands of those who are ordered to march. If Mr. Fruit, the inspector of the the Second brigade, is not in a situation to conduct the detachment called for from his brigade, to the place of rendezvous, (as, from some intimation to the Governor, such a circumstance is not altogether improbable,) you are required to perform the duty asssigned to him. It is recommended that you procure rifles if possible, upon loan from individuals. It is confidently believed that patriotism will prompt to a ready compliance with such request in the present exigency.

The Legislature will unquestionably make provision, that in case such rifles are lost or injured, the owner will be fully indemnified.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

REPRESENTATION OF THE FRONTIER SETTLERS OF THE NORTHERN COUNTIES, SEPTEMBER, 1812.

His Excellency the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania:

Your petitioners, inhabitants of the county of Tioga and its vicinity, viewing with anxious solicitude the alarming situation in which the sound of war has placed them, beg leave to suggest to your Excellency the propriety of taking some effective measures to guard against and repel the inroads and depredations of our common enemy on the unprotected inhabitants of the counties of Tioga, Potter, and McKean. We have no longer any confidence in such a part of our red brethren as have lately left their homes to join our enemy, (as we suppose,) and fear many acts of cruelty and barbarity may be perpetrated by those above described, and others who may lead them on. The country west of this, to Lake Erie, is thinly inhabited, which will be favorable to any desperate fellows to hold intercourse with those among us, and execute their black designs, and escape with impunity. We, therefore, pray your Excellency to take our unprotected situation into consideration, and cause such a part of the militia as have lately been drafted from Colonel Satterlees' and Colonel Killburn's regiments, to be stationed in the most convenient situation in Potter or McKean, for the protection of our defenceless frontiers. We hope your Excellency will not consider us as presuming or officious by renewing our solicitations that our destitute situation may be immediately taken into consideration. And we, your petitioners, in duty bound, will ever pray.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. H. SHIPPEN.

HARRISBURG, September 1, 1812.

SIR: Your letter of yesterday I received by the mail of this morning. It was with much regret the Governor discovered, after his general orders were issued, that your name was omitted. Be assured it was entirely unintentional. I presume it happened in this way: The tenders of service that I received in his absence I sent on to Selin's Grove. He was there when the requisition made by the President came to this office. I immediately forwarded, by express, the letters of Eustis and Dearborn to him. He immediately left Selin's Grove for this place, and, probably, in consequence of hurry, he left your letter there, as he cannot find it here among his papers. At the same time I sent an express to the Governor, I also sent one to General Reed. The express found him at Gettysburg attending court. Unfortunately, he also came to the seat of Government without having the tender of service from you, made through Mr. Light, the brigade inspector, or he had not received it. Of this I am not informed. When the Governor drew up the General Orders, he left a blank for the names of the commanding officers of the companies which had tendered their services, and directed the Adjutant General to fill the blank, at the same time furnished him with all the tenders of service that had been made to him personally that he could here lay his hands on; and thus it happened, as I before mentioned, that he did not discover the omission until it was too late. I expect he will have occasion to issue General Orders again in a few days to the brigade inspectors, in which he will notice all omissions that have undesignedly occurred in the former orders. I hope the foregoing explanation will be satisfactory, and request that you will communicate it to the officers and men composing the Lancaster Yagers.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S. Since writing the above, I find, on examining the returns of militia officers, that the tender of service was made by Mr. Light to the Governor in the same return which reported the names of the officers elect of your company, the return being filed in this office. The Governor never saw it until this day. I had concluded that you had written to the Governor, and that I had forwarded your letter to him. It, however, appears otherwise.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CHARLES LAMBAERT.

HARRISBURG, September 3, 1812.

SIR: Your letter of the 24th ult. to Mr. Trimble, relative to muskets for the Easton Light Infantry company, is now before me. In answer to which I have to state that it appears from the representation of Mr. Seeger that the muskets at Nazareth are not in complete repair; but I expect the only repair the most of them want, is merely to rub off the rust, and oil them. This can be done by each individual, in whose hands the musket is placed, with very little trouble and expense. This has been done by several volunteer companies who have received muskets from the State in the same way. If, therefore, you think proper to make a selection of those that want the least repair, under the direction of Mr. Seger, and will forward your bond, an order will be immediately issued for the delivery of the muskets you have selected.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO RICHARD PARKER.

HARRISBURG, September 2, 1812.

RICHARD PARKER, Esq.:

SIR: Mr. McClellan has just informed the Governor that, agreeably to your contract, you will supply the volunteers from this State, ordered to rendezvous at Meadville on the 25th instant, with rations on their march to that place. I have, therefore, deemed it expedient to furnish you the inclosed list of officers and men ordered on that service, residing east of the Allegheny and within the bounds of your contract. You are also furnished with the names of the several brigade inspectors from whose brigades the detachments are to be formed. Could you intimate to them that you would furnish the necessary rations, it would exempt them from the trouble of making other arrangements for that purpose.

N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO MR. DUNCAN.

HARRISBURG, September 2, 1812.

MR. DUNCAN, Deputy Superintendent of Military Stores:

SIR: Mr. McClellan, the Inspector of the Second brigade, Seventh division, whose duty it is to march with a detachment of volunteers from his brigade to Meadville, has said that you have offered to furnish, from Carlisle, the tents and other camp equipage for the detachment. From the enclosed copy of a letter from Cadwallader Irvine, you will perceive that arrangements have been made to furnish tents and other camp equipage from the deposit at Pittsburg. At the same time it is apparent that it would be more for the convenience and accommodation of the troops on this side the Allegheny, to be furnished with these articles from Carlisle. If, therefore, you think it consistent with your duty to supply them, I request that you would do it, and at the same time give early intimation of your doing so to the Superintendent of Military Stores at Pittsburg.

I am, &c.,

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM MOORE.

HARRISBURG, September 3, 1812.

SIR: Yours of the 29th ult. I received yesterday. Two copies of the general orders were forwarded to you, one by express and another by mail. We have not a spare copy, or I would forward it. As you have already given notice to the commanding officers of the companies that are to march, the time and place of rendezvous, which is at Meadville, the 25th inst., it will be sufficient, I presume, to give you an extract from the orders, which points out your further duty: "These officers, brigade inspectors, are to march, each with his proper detachment, to the place of rendezvous; are required and directed, severally, to provide subsistence and other necessary accommodations for the troops on their march, and exhibit detailed account for settlement and payment to the accounting officer of the Commonwealth." Should there be any deficiency of arms in any of the volunteer companies, you will supply them with any that may be in the bounds in your brigade; every man must supply himself with a blanket, and knapsack. Tents and other camp equipage will be furnished at Meadville. General Dearborn, in his letter to the Governor, states that no horsemen are wanted, the Governor, therefore, has ordered none to march. You will, therefore, inform the troop accordingly. We cannot find on our files any return of William Jackson being returned as an officer elect. If the company you state to be commanded by William Jackson is one of the marching companies, commissions will be handed out by General Reed at Meadville; he took blanks with him.

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

HARRISBURG, September 4, 1812.

JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq., Inspector First Brigade, Seventh Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: The obvious necessity for field artillery on the western frontier of this State, impels me to direct you immediately to have put in traveling condition the brass field piece, the property of the State, remaining at Shippensburg, and send it to Erie by some trusty person. Your account for repairs and for transportation will be paid on production of proper vouchers at this place.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. E. FERGUSON AND JOHN GOODMAN.

HARRISBURG, September 4, 1812.

The exposed state of the western country, and my knowledge of the want of ordinance there, impels me to direct you immediately to have fitted up for transportation four of the field-pieces, at present in the arsenal at Philadelphia, the property of the State, and that you contract for their transportation to Erie, in the county of Erie, or to this place. It is of importance that such be selected as are fit for service. Your account for repairs will be paid at this on the production of proper vouchers.

SIMON SNYDER.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, September 5, 1812.

To N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

The recent disastrous events on the north-western frontiers of the United States, presenting imminent danger, impels the Executive of Pennsylvania under the requisition of the constituted authorities of the United States, to order out for the service of the Union, a detachment of 2000 men to be composed of the drafted militia, and of flank companies and horse of the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, and Sixteenth divisions, each division to furnish a number, which added to the volunteers already in service under general orders of the 25th ult., will be equal to its quota, as designated by the Adjutant General orders of the 12th May last.

No return of drafts having been received by the Executive from the Second brigade of the Thirteenth division, the brigade inspector thereof is directed to give immediate notice to three flank companies of horse attached to his brigade to march, and he is directed to march them to the place of rendezvous hereinafter mentioned.

The Brigade Inspector of the First brigade of the Thirteenth division is commanded to march the drafts from his brigade to the place of rendezvous.

The Brigade Inspectors of the other divisions being now on their march with their respective detachments under general orders of the 25th ult., the brigadier generals of the other divisions will appoint the senior officer of each regimental draft to give notice to the drafts, officers, and privates within the bounds of their respective regiments, to meet at some convenient place within the brigade, and after having mustered the respective detachments, the said brigade inspectors, as aforesaid, and the said senior officers shall march their respective detachments to Pittsburgh, with the requisite dispatch, so that they arrive at the said place of rendezvous on the 2d day of October next. On the next day thereafter, or as soon as a majority of the detachment shall have arrived, the officers and privates shall elect one Brigadier General to command the detachment, which is to constitute a brigade, and is to consist of and be formed into four regiments, and each regiment to consist of two battalions. Each regiment to elect one colonel commandant, and each battalion one major.

Volunteers will be accepted in substitution of any draft or drafts. Subsistence and accommodations for the troops on their march to the place of rendezvous, it is presumed, will be furnished by the United States contractors. If no provision shall have been made by those contractors, the men will either supply themselves, or the several commandants on the march to the rendezvous will do it, and render their accounts, as directed by general orders of the 25th ult.

The Brigadiers General, for ascertaining their respective drafts, are referred to a note accompanying this, containing so much as is necessary of the Adjutant General's detail, founded on returns to him from the respective brigade inspectors.

The Adjutant General will attend at the place of rendezvous and take the command of the detachment, until the officers are chosen. To them respectively, that officer will deliver commissions; and will pay any expenses incident to the service that may not be provided for by the United States. At the place of rendezvous the detachment will be furnished with tents and other field equipage. Should there be any deficiency of arms, the said Brigade Inspectors and Brigadiers General will supply the respective detachments with any to be found within the bounds of their respective brigades. If there cannot be found a sufficient number, they will be furnished at the place of rendezvous. Every man will supply himself with a blanket and knapsack.

The Brigadier General having assumed the command, will, with the least possible delay, march his detachment to, and join, an army now assembling in the State of Ohio for defense of the western frontiers, unless otherwise ordered by the Commander-in-Chief of the United States army.

The Governor embraces the present opportunity of recording the names of commanding officers of companies who have patriotically tendered their services, not included in General Orders of the 25th ultimo.

Henry Shippen, captain company of Yagers, First brigade, Fourth division.

William Adams, captain troop of horse, Second brigade, Sixth division.

Jacob U. Snyder, captain troop of horse, Second brigade, Sixth division.

Robert McGuigan, captain light infantry, Second brigade, Ninth division.

Isaac Vandevender, captain rifle company, Second brigade, Eleventh division.

And also to express his high sense of the valor of these patriotic citizens, who voluntarily flocked to the standard of their country, on the north-western frontiers of the State, to arrest the progress of an invading foe.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

EXTRACT FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S RETURN.

N. B. Boileau, Aid-de-Camp:

From the First brigade, Eleventh division, three hundred and forty-six drafts, including officers out of that number, one hundred and one volunteers have already marched. It will be understood, and it is so directed, that if the proper brigade inspector can attend to the execution of the duties above enjoined on the Brigadier General, and the senior officers of regimental detachments, these general orders are, in that case, considered as being directed to the Brigade Inspector of your brigade. As soon as you have fixed the place of assembling the detachment in the bounds of the brigade from whence they are to march to Pittsburgh. and their number you will please to communicate the same to one of the contractors. Ebenezer Denny, at Pittsburgh, is for the west, Richard Parker, at Carlisle, for the east side of the Allegheny mountain.

N. B. BOILEAU.

Copies of the above were directed to the proper officers and sent by expresses on the 6th instant to Messrs. Antes & Cochran.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM LINNARD.

HARRISBURG, September 5, 1812.

WILLIAM LINNARD, Deputy Quarter-Master General:

SIR: In consequence of a requisition made by the Executive of the United States, by a letter from the Secretary of War, of September 1, 1812, the Governor has issued general orders for another detachment of two thousand men, to march and rendezvous at Pittsburgh, on the 2d day of October next. It becomes necessary again to apply for camp equipage from the United States. I have, therefore, to request that you will consult with Gen. Duncan, who, I understand, is appointed Superintendent of Military Stores, and make arrangements to have the necessary articles at the place of rendezvous, by the time appointed for assembling the troops.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

P. S.—The classes ordered to march in the above detachment amount to 2,273. The Governor has ordered about 800 muskets to Pittsburgh, to supply the detachment; but it is feared that there will be still a deficiency, as well as for cartridge boxes. Could not arrangements be made to meet such deficiency? A contract has been made for 2,000 cartridge boxes, which will be ready in about two weeks. These might be appropriated to re-place any loan from the United States.

N. B. BOILEAU TO RICHARD PARKER.

HARRISBURG, September 5, 1812.

RICHARD PARKER, Esq., Contractor for the Eastern District, Carlisle:

SIR: Under requisition of the President of the United States, the Governor of this Commonwealth has issued general orders for marching a detachment of 2,000 militia, in addition to those ordered into service by general orders of August 25th. The detachment is composed of drafts from the militia of Westmoreland, Fayette, Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Mercer, Crawford, Venango, Warren, Erie, Armstrong, Indiana, Washington, Greene, Somerset, Bedford, and Cambria. You are requested to make arrangements for furnishing rations for the troops on their march from the eastern side of the Allegheny Mountain to the place of rendezvous, which will be at Pittsburgh, on the 2d day of October next.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

P. S.—The classes ordered to march in the above detachment amount to 2,273.

N. B. BOILEAU TO EBENEZER DENNY.

HARRISBURG, September 5, 1812.

EBENEZER DENNY, Esq., Contractor, Pittsburgh:

SIR: The President of the United States having required an additional detachment of 2,000 men from the State of Pennsylvania to those already ordered into service, the Governorhas issued genorders this day, in compliance with the said requisition.

The detachment will be composed of the militia from the counties of Washington, Greene, Somerset, Bedford, Westmoreland, Fayette, Allegheny, Armstrong, Indiana, and Cambria. You are requested to make arrangements for supplying the troops with rations, on their march from the counties west of the Allegheny to the place of rendezvous, which will be at Pittsburgh, on the 2d day of October next. You will be informed by the proper officers of the time and place from whence the detachment will commence their march to the place of rendezvous.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

P. S.—The classes ordered to march in the above detachment amount to 2,273.

N. B. BOIULEAU TO WILLIAM REED, ADJUTANT GENERAL.

HARRISBURG, September 5, 1812.

WILLIAM REED, Esq., Adjutant General:

SIR: From the general orders herewith enclosed, you will perceive that the Governor has been under the necessity of imposing additional duties upon you. Commissions have been forwarded for you, to the care of Mr. Pentland, at Pittsburgh. As soon as you have organized the detachment at Meadville, you will repair, with all possible dispatch, to Pittsburgh. From the letter of the Secretary of War, dated September 1st, of which the following is an extract: "I have to request your Excellency to hasten the march of the 2,000 troops required through General Dearborn; you will please to communicate with him, and adopt such measures as he may recommend," it would appear that the detachment at Meadville is to be under the direction of General Dearborn. The detachment at Meadville will, therefore, proceed on to the point designated in the general orders of the 25th August last, unless ordered differently by General Dearborn, to whom the Governor has written on the subject. (Permit me to mention to you the propriety of making a similar suggestion to the officers at Pittsburgh, relative to the general election, to that which it was thought expedient to the officers at Meadville.)

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SNYDER TO HON. WILLIAM EUSTIS.

HARRISBURG, September 5, 1812.

HON. WILLIAM EUSTIS, Esq., Secretary at War, Washington city:

SIR: In obedience to the President's requisition, communicated by your letter to me of the 1st inst., I have ordered into the service of the United States a detachment of Pennsylvania militia, consisting of two thousand men, as you will perceive by a copy of general orders enclosed. To make up possible deficiencies about two hundred and seventy over the number required are ordered to march, which I trust will have the President's approbation. From recent information communicated to me by gentlemen styling themselves a committee of safety at Pittsburgh, it would appear that except muskets, flints, and lead, there is a total deficiency in the United States arsenal of powder and other military stores.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SNYDER TO BRIGADE INSPECTORS.

HARRISBURG, 5th September, 1812.

Instructions for Henry Antes and George Cochran expresses dispatched 5th September, 1812, with orders to several Brigade Inspectors and Brigadiers General of the divisions from which troops are to be detached for service of the United States, under general orders of this day.

In every instance where the Brigade Inspector of any brigade heretofore ordered to march to Meadville, has not marched, such Brigade Inspector is to put the marching detachment under the command of the senior officer thereof, and shall execute the duties of his office, under general orders of this day; and so soon as the detachment of his brigade is ready to depart, shall march it to Pittsburgh, and the Brigadier General is in that case relieved from the duty imposed on him.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM CLARK.

HARRISBURG, September 9, 1812.

To WILLIAM CLARK, Esquire, Inspector First brigade, Sixteenth division:

SIR: I am instructed by the Governor to request you to have all the public arms in your possession transported to this place as early as practicable. The expense incurred will be settled at this place to transport the arms from Lancaster to this place, which is thirty-six miles, for twenty-four dollars the trip. It is expected that teams in your neighborhood can be obtained as cheap as here; if not so, you will endeavor to accomplish the business at as little expense as possible. A volunteer company at Easton were offered arms from the deposit at Nazareth upon certain conditions. If the company calls for the arms before they are removed you will please to deliver them.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO SAMUEL COCHRAN, BRIGADE INSPECTOR, PITTSBURGH.

HARRISBURG September 10, 1812.

SIR: The Governor has directed seven hundred and twenty stands of arms to be forwarded to Pittsburgh, for the purpose of supplying such of the militia called into service by general orders of the 5th instant, as may not be already furnished. The arms are contained in twenty-five boxes; twenty of which contain thirty stands, and five twenty-four stands each. The locks and screws are folded in paper, and numbered corresponding with the numbers marked on the gun stocks near the screw plate. You will please to give the wagoners a receipt for the boxes when delivered, and have them safely deposited until the troops arrive. You will then furnish such of the men with muskets as have none, taking a receipt for them from the commanding officer of the company to which they are delivered.

Very respectfully, &c.,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. Four boxes containing twenty-four stands each were left, for want of room, in the wagons.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. HENRY DEARBORN.

HARRISBURG, September 11, 1812.

SIR: Yours of the 2d instant has been duly received by the Governor. I have the honor to inform you that yours of the 13th ult., was also received by him at Selins Grove the 21st; he immediately repaired to the seat of government at this place, and on the 25th issued general orders for twenty-four hundred volunteers to rendezvous at Meadville on the 25th of the present month, and from thence to march with all possible dispatch to Buffalo. On the 26th ult. a letter inclosing general orders was directed to you at Greenbush, and put in the mail at this place. On the 5th instant the Governor issued general orders, agreeably to the request of the Secretary at War, for two thousand two hundred more of the militia of this State to rendezvous at Pittsburgh on the 2d of October, and from thence to join, without delay, the troops assembling in the State of Ohio. A letter, also, inclosing the last mentioned orders was put in the mail at this place, directed to you at Greenbush. That the Governor's letter of the 26th ult. has not reached you, is matter of surprise and regret. The detachment assembling at Meadville will proceed on to Buffalo, unless otherwise directed by you. You will, therefore forward to the commanding officer of that detachment, such orders as you may deem expedient. It will be commanded by a Brigadier General, but, as he was to be elected by the volunteers composing the detachment, I cannot yet give you his name.

The Adjutant General, William Reed, Esq., will attend, and is gone to Meadville to take the command until the detachment is organized. Any instructions inclosed to him will be punctually attended to. You will, therefore, please to communicate with him as early as possible.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO Mr. DUNCAN, DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT MILITARY STORES AT CARLISLE.

HARRISBURG, September 11, 1812.

SIR: A volunteer company of riflemen of Bedford county has offered their services to the Governor, upon condition that they are furnished with tents and other camp equipage at Bedford. I have, therefore, by direction of the Governor, to request you to supply the company with those articles, if you can consistently with your duty. The company consists of one hundred and twenty, including officers. The general rendezvous is to be at Pittsburgh on the 2d of October next. Mr. David Metzler, one of the officers of the company, will hand you this and receive your answer.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

P. S. If you think proper to comply with the above request, you will please to inform Gen. Duncan, of Philadelphia, Superintendent of Military Stores, of the circumstance.

GOV. SNYDER TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

HARRISBURG, 11*th September*, 1812.

SIR: There are remaining here five boxes, wherein are packed one hundred and twenty muskets yet to be forwarded to the western country. These and the cannon wheels, &c., at Shippensburg, would make a light load for a four-horse team to Pittsburgh or to Erie. Please to inform me at what price you can hire a team at Carlisle to go to any of the two places, first to come to this place for the muskets. I wait your answer. The waggons sent from here have for the trip to Pittsburgh one hundred and seventy-five dollars.

Sincerely, your friend and servant,

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO SAMUEL COCHRAN.

HARRISBURG, September 11, 1812.

TO SAMUEL COCHRAN, Esquire, Inspector First brigade, Fifteenth division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: Yesterday morning three wagon load of muskets left this place for Pittsburgh, directed to your care. They were contained in twenty-five boxes, twenty of which had in them thirty stand, the other five, twenty-four stand each. The locks are put up in paper, and numbered, corresponding with numbers marked on the gun stocks, near the screw-plate. You will please to give the wagoners a receipt for them when delivered. Deposit them safely until the troops assemble, which will be on the 2d of October. You will then distribute them to such companies as are not supplied, taking a receipt from the commanding officer of such company. The arms were inspected here by a gunsmith, who selected them, and states that they want nothing but cleaning from rust and oiling, to make them fit for service. Time would not permit of having it done here; but each man will be able, in a very short time, to clean and oil his own musket. The number sent is seven hundred and twenty. About one hundred and eighty more will be forwarded, if possible, so as to be at Pittsburgh by the 2d of October. Such of them as want repairing are now in the hands of a gunsmith for that purpose. It is also intended to forward, at the same time, about two thousand cartridge-boxes, to be delivered and receipted for as directed with regard to the muskets.

Very respectfully, sir,

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SNYDER TO GEN. JOHN NOBLE.

HARRISBURG, September 11, 1812.

GEN. JOHN NOBLE:

SIR: I have much gratification, on the receipt of your favor of the 7th inst., just handed to me by Mr. David Metzler, and take much pleasure by saying the promptitude with which you have executed general orders of the 5th inst., does you much honor. I accept with great satisfaction the tender of service of the volunteer rifle company which, in the hour of peril and danger, have patriotically stepped forward to serve their country in substitution of the remainder of the draft required of the Fifty-fifth regiment, part of the detachment ordered to rendezvous at Pittsburgh, on the 2d of October next. In compliance with the company's conditions No. 1, commissions are forwarded; on the second, can only say the State owns not a single tent. These camp kettles and other camp equipments will be furnished at Pittsburgh, by the United States Deputy Superintendent of Military Stores, or may be furnished at Carlisle, as has been done in case of volunteers marched from Franklin county, if Mr. Metzler will make the application founded on my requisition to the deputy there. The third condition, must be referredto those patriotic feelings inherent in the bosom of every true American.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GENERAL WILLIAM DUANE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 14, 1812.

To Gen. WILLIAM DUANE, Superintendent of Military Stores:

SIR: About the 5th inst. I wrote to Mr. Linnard informing him that the Governor, in compliance with the request of the Secretary at War, had issued general orders for 2,000 militia, to rendezvous at Pittsburgh on the 2d of October, and requested that Mr. Linnard would make arrangements to furnish them with tents and other camp equipage. I also wished him to consult with you on the subject of supplying the men with cartridge boxes out of the stores at Pittsburgh, if they should need them, upon loan, or otherwise. The Governor has contracted for two thousand at Harrisburg, and they are in considerable forwardness, and will be forwarded to Pittsburgh, if possible, by the 2d of October. But I fear they will not reach that place quite so early. I would also wish to be informed whether or not tents and other camp equipage could not be supplied from Carlisle for such of the militia as may, from time to time, be called from the east side of the mountain. Mr. Duncan, of Carlisle, feels disposed to accommodate in that way, if he could be authorized to do so. I am sorry to add that Lieut. Johnson, of Pittsburgh, does not discover such an accommodating disposition. As I received no answer to my letter sent to Mr. Linnard, I fear that it has not reached him, please to mention the subject to him. In consequence of sickness in my family, I was sent for, and am now on my way home. I shall probably be absent from the seat of government for some short time. I wish that you and Mr. Linnard would write to the Governor at Harrisburg on the subjects above mentioned. Should you authorize a loan of muskets and cartridge-boxes, they would be returned or re-placed in a very short time. Seven hundred and twenty stands have been sent on to Pittsburgh. One hundred and eighty more will be forwarded in a few days. One thousand have been ordered from Nazareth to Harrisburg, a part, on the whole of which will be forwarded to that place, should it be necessary.

I am, very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SNYDER TO WILLIAM EUSTIS.

HARRISBURG, 15th September, 1812.

WILLIAM EUSTIS, Esq., Secretary of War:

SIR: The original communication, of which the accompanying is a copy, signed by gentlemen of the first respectability at Erie, was transmitted to me by Brigadier General John Kelso of that place. A copy of General Kelso's letter I take the liberty also to forward. Placing on their statement the fullest reliance, I hasten to transmit it to you, to be laid before the President of the United States. To their request, I beg leave to add my wish that some efficient measures for the protection of that frontier may speedily be taken. I ask this because the very imperfect militia system of this State presents so many obstacles to the adoption by the executive of efficient measures, that, unless the General Government comes in aid of our feeble efforts, that country, if an irruption by the enemy be made, will fall a sacrifice to savage ferocity. Permit me to solicit the earliest possible information of the President's determination on this interesting subject, and permit also to assure you of my perfect consideration, &c.

SIMON SNYDER.

WILLIAM DUNCAN TO GOV. SNYDER.

UNITED STATES ARSENAL, September 15, 1812.

His Excellency SIMON SNYDER, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

SIR: I this moment received a letter from the Secretary of the Commonwealth, relative to the late requisition, made through Mr. Linnard on this department, for tents and other articles of camp equipage, and do myself the honor of returning an answer with that promptitude which the occasion and my high respect for your excellency demand. Permit me to premise that if the requisition had been made on me, which was inadvertantly made on the deputy quarter-master, I should have returned an immediate answer; but presuming that Mr. Linnard had done so, I did not deem it necessary. I received a letter from him on the subject, dated the 9th instant, in which he expressed doubts whether the requisition could be complied with without the approbation of the Secretary of War, and suggested the propriety of his writing to him on the subject. To which I immediately wrote an answer, assuring him that I should, in anticipation of the answer of the Secretary of War, order camp kettles and such camp equipage as were forwarded from this place on the former requisition, to be packed without delay, and prepared for transportation, so that the operations of the militia might not be retarded by pursuing this course. The muskets are also in readiness, waiting the secretary's answer, which is daily expected.

There are not a sufficient number of cartridge-boxes in store to complete existing orders, which are of a very urgent nature. I, therefore, sincerely hope that those contracted for in Harrisburg may be furnished in time to meet our citizen soldiers in Pittsburgh, on the 2d of October next.

The anxious solicitude I feel to promote the patriotic views of your Excellency and the militia of Pennsylvania, together with the service of the United States in general, will, I trust, always secure to the officers with whom I have the honor to act, a prompt coöperation in every measure calculated to advance the honor and interest of our beloved country.

With sentiments of the highest esteem and regard,
I have the honor to be
Your Excellency's obedient, very humble servant,
WILLIAM DUNCAN,
Superintendent Military Stores.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO WILLIAM EUSTIS.

HARRISBURG, 16*th September*, 1812.

Postscript to my letter of yesterday.

WILLIAM EUSTIS, Esq., Secretary at War:

SIR: To make up possible deficiencies, I ordered to rendezvous at Meadville, 2,516 volunteers, at Pittsburgh 2,214, drafted militia.

The promptitude with which the orders were obeyed induces the belief that the whole, or nearly the whole number ordered will rendezvous at both places. Permit me, through you, to suggest to the President the propriety of employing the surplus number of both detachments in the defence of Erie. If the President should so determine, I would further suggest that from the volunteer and drafted men of the Sixteenth division of Pennsylvania militia, composed of the counties of Erie, Crawford, Warren, Mercer, Venango, Beaver, and Butler, might be detached the said surplus for the defence of that important post. For reasons, I beg leave to refer to the representation made by Judge Moore and others, a copy whereof was forwarded to you under date of yesterday. William Reed, Adjutant General, who commands both detachments until organized for their march, will promptly obey any directions given by the President. Permit me again to ask an early answer, and to assure you of my perfect consideration and esteem.

SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO SAMUEL THOMAS.

HARRISBURG, September 16, 1812.

TO SAMUEL THOMAS, Esq., Captain of a Company of Artillery, attached to the Thirty-fifth regiment, Second brigade, and Ninth division of Militia:

SIR: In answer to your letter to the Governor of the 11th instant, I am directed by him to inform you that your company may be supplied with a competent number of muskets, the property of the State, upon the same terms that others have been furnished with them, to wit: By executing a bond conditioned for their re-delivery in as good order and repair as when received by the company, whenever a demand of them shall be made by the proper authority. I inclose a blank bond, which you, with the Lieutenant and Ensign, may execute if you think proper, and upon the same being transmitted to this office, and receiving the approbation of the Governor, he will issue an order for the delivery of such number as may be necessary for your company out of the public store, and directions will be then given where to apply for them. I will thank you to inform me what number of men your company consists of.

I am, sir, with much respect,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO Dr. GEORGE DAWSON.

HARRISBURG, 16*th September*, 1812.

To Dr. GEORGE DAWSON, Pittsburgh:

SIR: Under my orders of the 4th instant, James Lamberton, Esquire, Brigade Inspector, residing at Carlisle, has forwarded to your care a brass field piece, the property of the State, as I stand informed by that officer. The gun is intended for the use of the military force now on duty at Erie, for the defence of that frontier. You will, therefore, deliver the gun to the order of Major William Clark, who will pay any reasonable expenses that may have been incurred by its delivery to you.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. JOHN KELSO.

HARRISBURG, September 16, 1812.

To Gen. JOHN KELSO:

SIR: To make up possible deficiencies, I ordered under the requisition of Gen. Dearborn, to rendezvous at Meadville, 2,516 volunteers, and at Pittsburgh, under reqisition of the President, 2214. The promptitude with which the orders are obeyed, leads me to anticipate the rendezvousing at both places, of the largest number.

I have, under date of this day, suggested to the President, through the Secretary at War, the propriety of employing in the defence of Erie, this surplus force, and that the volunteers and drafts from the Sixteenth division, because consisting of men living at, and contiguous to Erie, might be detached for that service. The result of this application I will communicate to you.

I have to lament that your letter, though dated the 5th inst., and the communication from Judge Moore, and others of the same date, was so long delayed as to protract its delivery to yesterday. Copies of both I have transmited to the President of the United States.

Please write me again, and if by you deemed necessary, and I fail in my application to the President, I will order a draft from without the bounds of the Sixteenth division, say from Westmoreland and adjoining counties. I am happy to have it in my power to say you wish to have artillery is anticipated. One brass field piece is now on the road to Pittsburgh, directed to the care of Dr. George Dawson. For its delivery to Maj. Clark I have given an order, who will have it transported to Erie. Grape shot and ball can be procured at Pittsburgh, as we are informed by Maj. Clark. Four more 4-pounders I had brought from Philadelphia to this place, and will be sent to Erie as soon as teams can be provided.

On the morning of the 7th inst., the day on which the bond for $4,000, signed by yourself and Col. Philips, as surety for Maj. Clark came to hand. A commission of quarter-master general for Wilson Smith had been made out, and measures were preparing to have placed to his credit at the Branch Bank of Pittsburgh $10,000, subject to his draft, for provisions and munition of war, &c., already purchased by Maj. Clark, and such as might be purchased by him. The duties imposed by my order, and other multifarious duties incumbent on Maj. Clark, in consequence of several offices he holds, are too burdensome for any one individual to perform. These considerations induce the appointment of a quarter-master. To him most properly, if to any officer in my appointment, it belongs to provide the detachment now performing duty at Erie.

The commission for Wilson Smith will soon be forwarded, and money placed to his credit. In the interim, the $4,000 placed to the credit of Maj. Clark, at the Branch Bank of Pittsburgh, will be equal to the payment of his purchases; the balance, if any, will be discharged by Wilson Smith.

Sincerely your friend, &c.,

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, September 18, 1812.

WILSON SMITH, Esq., Quarter-master General of the Militia of Pennsylvania:

SIR: Circumstances arising out of the measures taken to defend the frontiers of this State, make it desirous that your services might avail the public in the capacity of quarter-master general of the militia of Pennsylvania, which appointment, from my knowledge of your republican integrity, I confer on you. With the commission herewith transmitted, the public interest requires that you act also in the capacity of commissary for furnishing supplies of provisions, camp equipage, and munitions of war, for the militia now in service, and that may hereafter be ordered on service there or elsewhere, the northwestern frontiers of this State under the orders of the executive. For defraying the expenses incident to this service, there will be placed to your credit, on the books of the Branch Bank of Pittsburgh, six thousand dollars. For further directions in the execution of the trust reposed in you, I refer to a letter to you from the Auditor General. The money will be transmitted in checks drawn by the State Treasurer on the Bank of Pennsylvania, payable to your order, which shall be forwarded to the cashier of the Branch Bank at Pittsburgh, where they will be duly honored; but it will be necessary for you to endorse the checks or to authorise the cashier to place the amount to your credit on the books of the Branch bank, and you can, thereupon, draw checks on him from time to time as the public service may require. Maj. Clark, when here, expressed fears that your appointment and transfer of duties, until now performed by him to you, would very much embarrass him, because of large purchases of provisions made by him in anticipation of a continuance in the capacity of commissary, and expressed a strong desire to have the contract from you for furnishing rations for the troops in future. On this representation being made, I did not hesitate to say, you would contract with him for the rations if he agreed to furnish them at the price paid by the United States to Ebenezer Denny, at Pittsburgh. Our military operations being at this time altogether confined to your section of the State, has induced your appointment to the office of quarter-master general. You will readily perceive that, if the scene of war should be changed, and a person competent, living near the seat of government will accept thereof, the public interest would require the appointment of such other person.

Your liberality, I am persuaded, would, in such case, ascribe the act to the proper motive, and dictate the course you ought to pursue.

Be assured of my sincere regard and esteem.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, 19*th September*, 1812.

TO WILSON SMITH, Esq., Quartermaster General of the Militia of Pennsylvania:

SIR: George Waggoner, Peter Shott, Jacob R. Stine, and Isaiah Muhaffee, each of them has undertaken to transport from this place to Erie a brass four-pound piece of ordnance, the property of the Commonwealth, fitted with every necessary apparatus for service, and intended for the defence of the north-western frontiers. You will, at such place as Brig. Gen. John Kelso should designate as the most safe and convenient for the service, provide a suitable building for their safe keeping, and the apparatus appurtenant thereto. For the time being, and until otherwise ordered by proper authority, these guns and another of the same description, forwarded by my order, through James Lamberton, Brigade Inspector, residing at Carlisle, are confided to his order and direction, whenever they, or any of them, may be required for service in defence of the north-western frontiers. To each of the carters, who shall deliver his gun, and the apparatus appurtenant thereto belonging, in good condition, agreeably to a schedule accompanying these orders, you will give a receipt, purporting such delivery, or otherwise, as the state of the gun and apparatus in his charge shall warrant. You will take charge, generally, of all the munitions of war and other military public property now in store, or that may hereafter come under your notice as Quartermaster General of the Militia of Pennsylvania.

I am, very respectfully,
Your friend,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. JOHN KELSO.

HARRISBURG, September 19, 1812.

Brigadier General JOHN KELSO, Esq., at Erie:

SIR: Four pieces of brass field artillery this day forwarded to Erie, and committed to the immediate care of Wilson Smith, Esq., Quarter-Master General of the militia of Pennsylvania, and one other piece of brass ordnance, forwarded to the same place some time since, under my orders, by James Lamberton, Esq., Brigade Inspector, residing at Carlisle, are, for to the time being, and until otherwise directed by the proper authority, together with the necessary apparatus to each of them belonging, subject to your order and direction, whenever, in your opinion, they, or any of them, shall be required for defending against the north-western frontiers. To this order the said Quarter-Master General will strictly conform.

I am very respectfully,
Your friend, &c.,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. WILLIAM REED.

HARRISBURG, September 21, 1812.

To WILLIAM REED, Esq., Adjutant General of the Militia of Pennsylvania, at Meadville:

DEAR SIR: I had flattered myself the cartridge-boxes ordered to be made at this place would have been completed in time, so as to have had them in Pittsburgh on the 2d of October next, to be delivered to such of the drafted militia as may not have supplied themselves, but am much disappointed. Not more than four or five hundred will be furnished in the early part of this week. These should be forwarded as soon as a team can be procured; if they arrive not in time, I hope you may procure the number required out of the United States military stores. On notice from you they shall be promptly re-placed. I have directed to be inclosed an extract of a letter from General Duncan, Superintendent of Military Stores, to me, in answer to a letter from Mr. Boileau to him, in conformity to my directions on the subject of military equipments.

Very sincerely yours,
SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO SAMUEL COCHRAN.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH,
HARRISBURG, September 21, 1812.

To SAMUEL COCHRAN, Esq., Inspector First Brigade of the Fifteenth Division of Militia.

SIR: In answer to your letter of the 9th inst., apprising the Governor that in order to enable you to execute his orders of the 25th ult., you had drawn on him for twelve hundred and fifty dollars in favor of Ebenezer Denny, Esq., I am directed to say to you that the Governor cannot honor your order. The troops rendezvous at Meadville, under the President's requisition, are considered in the service of the United States. Ebenezer Denney, Esq., in his capacity of contractor of the United States west of Allegheny, has orders to furnish rations for the detachment. The Deputy Superintendent of Military Stores at Pittsburgh, has also orders to furnish tents and other camp equipments. Expenses incurred by you in the performance of your duty, and warranted by the laws of the State, will be paid on the exhibition to the accountant department of regular accounts, accompanied by the proper vouchers. I am directed further to inform you that no similar draft has been made by any other Brigade Inspector.

I am, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO JACOB REIGART.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH,
HARRISBURG, September 22, 1812.

TO JACOB REIGART, Esq., Colonel of the Eighty-third Regiment in the First Brigade, and Eleventh Division of Militia composed of Mifflin county, &c.

SIR: Your letter of the 19th inst., and one accompanying it of 18th, from Capt. Daniel Christy, and the other officers, of a troop of light dragoons, formed within the bounds of the Eighty-third regiment of militia, tendering the services of that troop, have been received by the Governor, who directs me to inform you that inasmuch as there is no requisition uncomplied with, the commissioning of the volunteers is the less urgent, and may be delayed until a regular return, as required by law, can be had from the Brigade Inspector, who will return in a very short time. In the mean time the Governor applauds much the patriotism of the company, who at this crisis have volunteered their service in defence of our country's rights, long violated by an implacable foe.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, September 23, 1812.

To WILSON SMITH, Esq., Quarter-Master General of the Militia of Pennsylvania:

SIR: The Governor has drawn a warrant for $6,000, to enable you to procure subsistence for the militia now employed and that may be employed at Erie, under his orders, for the defence of the Western frontiers, and directs me now to inform you that the State Treasurer's check on the Bank of Pennsylvania has been transmitted by this day's mail to the cashier of the Branch Bank at Pittsburgh, where the $6,000 will be placed to your credit on the books of that bank, upon your endorsing the check or making the necessary and usual arrangement therefor with the cashier.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO SAMUEL STEWART.

HARRISBURG, September 23, 1812.

To SAMUEL STEWART, Esq., Inspector of the First Brigade, Tenth Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: Herewith you will receive commissions for all the officers returned by you on the 17th instant, except for Capt. Gortner's company, which cannot issue until you certify to what battalion of the Fourth regiment that company is attached. The number of men to be above thirty, that they are equipped and uniformed, and whether they are riflemen or light infantry. As soon as this information is received from you, the commissions will be issued without delay. So many muskets have lately been sent to Erie and the westward, that it cannot just now be ascertained whether the number you mention can be spared. There are no rifles belonging to the State.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO SAMUEL COCHRAN.

HARRISBURG, September 25, 1812.

TO SAMUEL COCHRAN, Esq., Inspector of the First Brigade of the Fifteenth Division of militia; or, in his absence, to WILLIAM REED, Esq., Adjutant General; or, in the absence of both these gentlemen, to EPHRAIM PENTLAND, Esq., at Pittsburgh:

SIR: A wagon has been sent from this place to Pittsburgh, with five hundred cartouch-boxes, toward supplying with that article the militia that are to rendezvous at the latter place on the 2d day of October next. These please to receipt for to the wagoner. The Governor directs me to request that you will be pleased to cause them to be delivered, at the rendezvous, to such of the militia as shall appear not to have been furnished, or if the detachment shall have marched, and shall have been supplied out of the United States arsenal, the number so supplied be returned to the officer who may have furnished the detachment, and receipt taken. If more than five hundred shall have been furnished, a receipt be taken for five hundred on account. The remainder shall be sent on as soon as completed. If any remain after a disposition has been made, as above directed, that such remainder shall be subject to the order of Wilson Smith, Quarter-master General. If any of the troops shall have marched unsupplied, the Governor directs that a number sufficient, or the whole of them, if necessary, be immediately sent after them, with directions to the carrier to take a receipt for their delivery, the expense of which to be paid by Mr. Smith. Whatever may be done in execution of this order you will be pleased immediately to communicate to the Quarter-master General, and to the Executive Department at this place.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. WILLIAM REED.

HARRISBURG, September 26, 1812.

WILLIAM REED, Esq., Adjutant General:

SIR: Yesterday at noon five hundred cartouch-boxes were completed, and this day forwarded, by a two-horse wagon, for Pittsburgh, directed to Samuel Cochran, Brigade Inspector; in his absence, to yourself, and in the absence of both, to Ephraim Pentland, Esq. Having reason to fear they will not arrive before the detachments has marched, directions are given in Mr. Trimble's letter as to their disposition in case of that event. It is thought (bating accidents) the wagon may arrive on the 5th of October, and if the detachment shall have marched before that day, and any of the men are destitute of that necessary article, I flatter myself dispatch will be used, that they may be supplied at some place considerably short of their destination.

In much haste,
I am yours respectfully,
SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO IRA KILBURN.

HARRISBURG, September 28, 1812.

TO IRA KILBURN, Esq., and others, inhabitants of the counties of Tioga and its vicinity, Wellsboro':

SIR: In answer to the request of yourself and others, that the Governor would order on service, for the defence of Potter and McKean counties, the drafts heretofore made from Colonels Killburn's and Satterly's regiments, he has instructed me to inform you that those drafts are subject to the requisition of the United States Government, and, therefore, he cannot order them into the service of the State, nor can he perceive the danger those counties have to apprehend, the seat of war being considerably more than one hundred miles from them, on the frontier of the State of New York. The enemy, after defeating our troops there, which he trusts will not happen, must penetrate through that State before the just fears of the petitioners can be excited.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO GEORGE ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, September 29, 1812.

To GEORGE ARMSTRONG, Esq., Inspector of the First Brigade, Thirteenth Division Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: Your return of the 22d inst. came duly to hand, and for the officers therein mentioned I transmit commissions, except for John Burn, lieutenant of the Third company of the Sixty-third regiment, who has been commissioned some time since for the same office.

As to Capt. McCullough's company, I can only say that it was never returned into this office. You will therefore see the propriety of transmiting a return of his election to this department as early as possible.

I wrote to you on the 10th of June last, relative to a company of riflemen, commanded by John Morrow, attached to the Second battalion of the Nineteenth regiment, requesting you to certify that there are thirty men in complete uniform in his company, which has not yet been received.

The above information is absolutely necessary before commissions can be issued for either of the aforesaid companies. Your speedy attention to the above will obtain the commissions without delay.

I am, with great respect,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES TRIMBLE.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

HARRISBURG, October 2, 1812.

JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq., Inspector of the First Brigade, Seventh Division, Pennsylvania Militia, at Carlisle:

SIR: The patriotic endeavors of a number of the young men of the borough of Carlisle to form themselves into a corps of artillerists, of which the Governor has received information through Messrs. Wilson and Bell, members of the association, are highly approved of by him, and he directs me to communicate his wish to the members of that association through you, that they may continue those endeavors until the number is completely uniformed and equipped to the number of forty men and upwards, required by law, so as to entitle the officers duly elected and returned to receive their commissions, and the company to the piece of ordinance, which, under the provisions of the militia law, may be furnished.

The Governor has no doubt of the readiness of this company, when organized, to obey the call of the government, and that, whenever their services shall be lawfully required in the field, the necessary cannon and horses will be furnished by the government.

I am respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO SAMUEL WALLICH.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH,
HARRISBURG, October 8, 1812.

To SAMUEL WALLICH, Esq., Major of the Second Battalion of the Fifty-second Regiment Eleventh Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: Your letter of the 1st inst., communicating a tender of services of the rifle company attached to your battalion, has been received by the Governor, who directs me to inform you, and the officers and men of that company, that, inasmuch as there is no requisition of the President's uncomplied with, the commissions of the volunteers is the less urgent, and may be delayed until a regular return of the election of the officers, as required by law, from the Brigade Inspector can be had. In the mean time the Governor applauds much the patriotism of the company, who at this crisis have volunteered their services in defence of our country's rights, long violated by an implacable foe.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. WILLIAM REED.

To Gen. WILLIAM REED:

SIR: Your letter, under date of the 26th ult., stating difficulties connected with the electing or designating of a Brigadier General to command the detachment that are to rendezvous at Pittsburgh, and the field officers, I did not receive until late in the evening of the 5th instant; I thought it then too late to give you any explanation of my general order.

But, upon reflection, I think it not improbable that you may be waiting for an answer before you proceed to carry the orders into effect. If the direction to elect a Brigadier General and field officers, by the officers and privates composing the detachment, be at variance with the letter and spirit of the law, the law must undoubtedly govern you. If the detachments consist of drafts, which you will have ascertained by the report of the proper officers, the designating principle must evidently obtain. The militia law contains contradictory provisions which cannot be reconciled, and renders extremely difficult the execution of the duties it enjoins. Such a construction as seems best calculated to promote the public interest I trust you have already given, or will yet give, the law. The officers are to take rank according to the date of their commissions, agreeably to a law which also directs that all commissions shall bear date on the same day, and when two or more of the same grade bear even date, their rank shall be determined by lot. From this view it would appear to be proper for the field officers of the drafted militia to be designated in conformity to the law, and the volunteer companies, if there be any, to elect their field officers agreeably to the law. If the detachment be composed of both descriptions of militia, there is no explicit direction in the law for the selection of a Brigadier General. In such case no other alternative presents itself to my mind at present, but that the Brigadiers General of the State (their commissions bearing one date) do meet and draw lot for command, or that the detachment elect one. The former might be attended with injurious delay. The principles of equity, as well as public advantage, would seem to dictate the latter.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. JOHN KELSO.

HARRISBURG, October 21, 1812.

Gen. JOHN KELSO, at Erie:

SIR: The short period of time within which Maj. Clark contemplated performing his journey from this place to Meadville, led me to hope my letter of the 16th September would reach you in time, so that I might have had your answer about the first day of this present month, before which day I anticipated an answer, from the Secretary at War, to my application to the President for aid in defending our lake frontier. His answer I received the 25th September, and with much anxiety indeed, did I expect an answer from you, because on it, principally, did I intend to predicate future measures.

What I said relative to the employment, by the United States, of the anticipated surplus force at Meadville in the defense of Erie, seems to have been construed by you as dictating a delay of your answer until it was ascertained whether a surplus would or would not result out of the rendezvous at that place. I had at length concluded that probably you accorded in opinion with the Secretary at War, "that the several forces destined for Detroit and Niagara would prevent any incursions of the enemy on Lake Erie." Your letter of the 1st October, (which I did not receive until the 16th, and which I could not answer by mail before to-morrow,) has undeceived me.

I have to regret that out of occurrences not within my control, there may have happened an interval between the expiration of service of those of the militia on service under my orders of the 15th day of July last, and the arrival of any draft to supply them, unless you have engaged volunteers to serve as you contemplated doing. Believing with you, that with the end of next month the necessity for any defense will cease, and persuaded that a regular draft from the militia cannot be had in service much short of the period when the necessity may cease to exist, I do, therefore, request, order, and direct you to employ volunteers, if practicable, for the defence of Erie, not exceeding a major's command; that they be continued in service to the 30th November next, if by you deemed necessary. I feel confident that the Legislature will provide by law for the expense that may be incurred, if it should be deemed not to come within the provisions of the existing laws.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO MAJ. SAMUEL WALLICH.

HARRISBURG, October 28, 1812.

To Maj. SAMUEL WALLICH:

SIR: Mr. Thomas Wharry, lieutenant elect of a rifle company within the bounds of the Second battalion, Fifty-second regiment, Pennsylvania militia, informs me that in consequence of the said officers not having received their commissions, a fine has been imposed on the officers and men of the said company. In addition to the suggestion contained in Mr. Trimble's letter, under date of October 8, 1812, I have to state explicitly that the reason why commissions did not issue, was because the return was not made by the Brigadier Inspector, who is the proper officer to make return of militia officers elect, and to certify that thirty or more men were in complete uniform. Hence, then, it was not in consequence of any default or neglect of the officers or men composing the company, that commissions were not issued. Under such circumstances the field officers will judge of the justice or propriety of imposing fines upon the officers and men composing said company.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO EBENEZER DENNY.

HARRISBURG, November 4, 1812.

TO EBENEZER DENNY, at Pittsburgh:

SIR: The Governor being absent from the seat of govenrment, and will not return until sometime hence, I, in the meantime, conceive it my duty to state to you, that no one viewed with more regret than the Governor, the embarrassments which were likely to attend the marching of the militia to the place of rendezvous in consequence of the want of money. He had conceived that a liberal construction of the militia law, would justify an advance to the Brigade Inspectors, to enable them to meet the expenses thereof; in which opinion, however, he was opposed by the Auditor General and State Treasurer. Thus circumstanced, he adopted the mode mentioned in his general orders of the 25th of August, to which mode all the Brigade Inspectors accommodated themselves, except Maj. Cochran. If he will transmit a statment of his accounts in detail, as other Brigade Inspectors have done, it will receive immediate attention.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO J. INGERSOLL.

HARRISBURG, November 21, 1812.

To J. INGERSOLL, Esq.:

SIR: In consequence of a communication received from you in July last, relative to certain persons charged with kidnapping and carrying away certain free negroes from the city of Philadelphia, the Governor applied to the Governor of Maryland to have them arrested. By a letter from him of the 5th ult., the Governor is informed that one of them, Joseph Rock, is arrested, and ready to be delivered to such agent as the Governor may appoint for that purpose. I herewith inclose to you a commission appointing an agent. There is a blank in the commission, which the Governor requests you to fill with the name of any person you may think proper. You will please to inform me, when convenient, of the name you have inserted, in order to complete our record. I also inclose to you a copy of a letter from Judge Scott to the Governor of Maryland, also a copy of an affidavit made by one of the negroes. As the Abolition Society take an interest in the affairs of free negroes, it is probable that some of that society, being informed of the situation of those negroes, who, it appears, have been put in prison for their safe keeping, would take measures for relieving them from their present situation. It is unjust that they should be kept in confinement, having been charged with no crime. I have it also in charge from the Governor to inquire what progress you have made in consolidating the penal laws, in compliance with a request of the Legislature at their last session.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO ANDREW BRATTON.

OFFICE OF THE SECRATARY OF COMMONWEALTH,
HARRISBURG, January 2, 1813.

To ANDREW BRATTON, Esq., Captain of a Company of Volunteer Riflemen, associated in Wayne township, Mifflin county, Lewistown:

SIR: Your letter of the 19th of the last month has been received by the Governor, who applauds much the patriotism of the officers and men of your company, in tendering their services as volunteers, at this important crisis, in defence of their country's rights, so long violated by an implacable foe, and he has no doubt of their readiness to obey the call of the government, whenever their services shall be lawfully required; at present, however, there is no requisition uncomplied with on his part. Before the commissions can be obtained it should appear that the company has been organized, and the officers elected, in conformity with the fourth section of the militia law passed the 9th day of April, 1807, and the second section of the supplement act passed the 26th day of March, 1808; as soon, therefore, as the Brigade Inspector shall have made a return of the election of the officers as duly held, and it is duly certified to the Governor that the company is organized and equipped agreeably to law, the commissions will be issued without any delay.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JARED INGERSOLL.

HARRISBURG, February 12, 1813.

TO JARED INGERSOLL, Esq.:

SIR: Several depositions taken in a certain cause or causes now before the Supreme Court, wherein the Commonwealth is plaintiff, and James Harris and the representatives of the late Dr. Smith, and perhaps others, are defendants, were put into hands of the Governor by Benjamin R. Morgan, who is of counsel for the defendants, with a view to induce him to stop further proceedings against the defendants by entering an exoneration on their contracts with the former Governor Mifflin for making certain improvements. Mr. Morgan left this place without having called on the Governor, as he had said he would, to know his determination. On a perusal of these depositions, it occurred to the Governor that the contracts referred to and their non-performance had, at one time, formed the subject of complaint to the Legislature. Upon examination of the journal of the House of Representatives of the session of 1801-2, it is found that complaint was made—see page 141, again, page 187, same page, Mr. Harris' letter, then a member of the Senate, in exculpation. It appears that on the 5th February, 1802, Mr. Harris acknowledged the delinquency of himself and the other contractors. It is remarkable that the deponants above alluded to, studiously avoid mentioning dates. If, therefore, there is no proof that work was performed subsequently to Mr. Harris' acknowledgment of delinquency, the depositions ought not to avail anything. Mr. Burnside, your deputy in Centre county, to whom the depositions were delivered yesterday, at the instance of Mr. Morgan, to a question to this effect: Whether it had ever been attempted to prove that the finishing hand was put to those contracts, or that any work whatever had been done subsequently to Mr. Harris' acknowledged delinquency, answered there was no such proof offered nor alleged. The reports of the agents of information stand against the contractors uncontradicted. Indeed, when the great length of time has elapsed since the public exposition of the contractors before the Legislature is taken into view, and an attempt is now made to prove a discharge from the contracts in a manner not warranted by the law that binds the State as well as the contractor. The defense, grounded on depositions that may justly be called exparte, (for the Commonwealth counsel was uninstructed, and consequently unprepared to cross-question the witnesses,) is too much to be relied on.

Understanding from Mr. Burnside the trial is to come on, on Monday next, I have submitted to you the foregoing remarks by the direction of the Governor.

I am, with respect,

N. B. BOILEAU,
Deputy Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO OBED FAHNESTOCK.

HARRISBURG, February —, 1813.

TO OBED FAHNESTOCK:

SIR: You are hereby required with all possible dispatch to deliver to Gen. Crooks, or to the commanding officer of the brigade of the Pennsylvania militia, now in the service of the United States, under the command of Gen. William H. Harrison, the papers and documents committed to your charge, or adopt such measures as will ensure their safe and speedy delivery to the commander-in-chief of the north-western army.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. WILLIAM H. HARRISON.

HARRISBURG, February 27, 1813.

To Gen. WILLIAM H. HARRISON, Commander of the North-western army:

SIR: This day, as you will perceive by its date, was approved an act of the Legislature of this State, contemplating a reward to those of the brigade of Pennsylvania militia composing a part of the north-western army, who shall continue in the field, under your command, for two months longer than the period for which they were detached for the service of the United States.

That each individual will be emulous most to deserve the applause of their commander, I anticipate from the honorable testimonial of correct conduct which your letter to me of the 9th inst., furnishes, and I hesitate not to predict for them a perpetuation of honorable fame to posterity. Your letter to me of the 9th inst., furnished the subject matter of a communication to the Legislature. The embarrassment to which the Pennsylvania officers are subject, has, unfortunately, grown out of our very imperfect militia system. and I fear the Legislature under existing circumstances, is not competent to provide an appropriate remedy. I shall be happy to communicate a different result. Be pleased, sir, as soon as convenient, to promulgate amongst the interested, the contents and the object of the law. The earliest possible attention shall be paid to the other injunctions on the executive.

Accept, sir, assurances of my high respect,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. RICHARD CROOK.

HARRISBURG, February 27, 1813.

To Gen. RICHARD CROOK, of the Pennsylvania Militia of the North Western Army:

SIR: I herewith transmit a copy of an act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, the provisions of which I request you to communicate to the Pennsylvania militia under your command, as early as possible, and to use your best enbeavors to prevail on them to accede to the wishes of the Legislature, and to persevere in the honorable and patriotic course they have begun in defence of the rights of their country, and, also, to request you will comply with the requisition contained in the third section of the said act.

I am, sir, with respect,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GENERAL ORDERS.

March 6, 1813.

In order to the execution of the general orders of the Commander-in-Chief of yesterday, the Adjutant General directs the following organization and officering of the detachment destined for the service of the United States:

The detachment will be commanded by Lewis Rush, Colonel Commandant, appointed and commissioned by the Governor. Under him is to serve, in command, the marching Lieutenant Colonel and marching Major from the First brigade of the First division, also the marching Major from the Second brigade of said division. The Lieutenant Colonel to have attached to him his Regimental Surgeon.

Ten captains, ten lieutenants, ten ensigns, as designated by law. Ten second lieutenants and ten third lieutenants to be chosen agreeably to the act supplementary to the militia law passed March 29, 1813. The detachment to consist of ten companies of one hundred men in each, officers and privates. Nine of said companies shall be composed of the drafted infantry and one of artillery. Four hundred infantry and one hundred artillery to be furnished by the First brigade, and five hundred infantry from the Second brigade, of said First division.

The Brigade Inspectors of the proper brigades will immediately communicate these orders to the officers concerned, to use all legal means to have the detachment at the place of rendezvous at the time appointed; to collect all the public arms within their respective brigades, and therewith arm the detachment. If any should be unsupplied it is presumed they will be furnished out of the United States arsenal on loan.

Colonel Lewis Rush is hereby appointed my assistant to organize the detachment, agreeably to law and the general orders; and Colonel John Binns, aid to the Commander-in-Chief, is solicited to aid and assist him therein.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief.

WM. REED,
Adjutant General, P. M.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO MESSRS. BINNS AND ACHESON.

HARRISBURG, March 13, 1813.

To Messrs. JOHN BINNS and DAVID ACHESON:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith enclose copies of an act of the Legislature of this Commonwealth, passed 13th instant, requiring a subscription of one million of dollars to a loan opened by the Government of the United States, and I hereby authorize and request you to call upon such of the incorporated banks or other bodies politic, or individuals, in the city of Philadelphia, as you may judge most likely to aid the loan contemplated by the said act, and as early as possible communicate to me what amount can be obtained from the several institutions or individuals to which you may apply, and also the terms on which they will subscribe.

I am, gentlemen, with respect,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, March 20, 1813.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

A convention of military officers of the First division of Pennsylvania militia having represented to me, as necessary, that immediate measures be taken for the defence of the city of Philadelphia and adjacent country in this State, against any hostile attempt that may be made by the British foe, (now remaining in a threatening posture in the waters of the Delaware,) to invade our territory, I have deemed it necessary to adopt precautionary measures for defence, and do, therefore, order the Militia Legion, commanded by Lieut. Col. John Smith, and the regiment of artillery, commanded by Lieut. Col. Ebenezer Ferguson, to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's warning, under the command of Brig. Gen. Robert Wharton, against any enemy that shall have invaded the State of Pennsylvania.

Col. John Binns, aid to the Commander-in-Chief, is directed to communicate this order to Brig. Gen. Wharton, and the lieutenant Colonels above mentioned.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, 20*th March*, 1813.

To WILSON SMITH, Quarter-master General of the Militia of Pennsylvania:

SIR: The appearance of a British squadron having excited fears in the minds of the citizens of the city and county of Philadelphia for the safety of the said city and the public and private property in and near the same, and I having, under date of this day, issued orders to hold in readiness a portion of the militia of that section of the State, to defend, in case of actual invasion, the State; it has, therefore, become necessary to make provision for the supply of such militia, as may be ordered into service under my said orders, with ammunition and other munitions of war. I do, therefore, authorize and require you, the said Wilson Smith, in your capacity as Quarter-master General, to employ an agent at Philadelphia, and direct him, in case an invasion of the State by the British shall happen, to purchase ammunition and other munitions of war, for the supply of such troops as may go into service under my said orders, to any amount not exceeding five thousand dollars.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO MESSRS. BINNS AND ACHESON.

Messrs. BINNS and ACHESON:

The provisions of the law inclosed to you by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, it is hoped, will meet the wishes of the banks who have offered to loan to the State money, for the object specified in the law, under which you have acted as agents of the executive. Not having heard that the Farmers' and Mechanics' bank have agreed to take a part of the loan, the note attached to Mr. Binns' letter of the 26th instant, purporting to be a suggestion of the president of said bank, that certificates of stock for that institution might also be issued by the State, needs explanation. The earliest information is required to know how much of the one million is taken in Philadelphia.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. SAMUEL THOMAS.

To Capt. SAMUEL THOMAS:

SIR: In consequence of a requisition from the Secretary at War of the United States, the Governor is about issuing general orders for one thousand militia for the defence of Erie. He has instructed me to order the artillery under your command to hold themselves in readiness to march to Erie at the shortest notice. You will, therefore, with the least possible delay, make arrangements to march your company as soon as you shall receive marching orders. It will be unnecessary for you to take your piece of artillery, as there are already four pieces at Erie in complete order.

By special order by the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, March 31, 1813.

To N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

A requisition having been made by the executive authority of the General Government, that I would order on service, for the United States, for the protection of our naval armament at the town of Erie, in the county of Erie, within the limits of Pennsylvania, a detachment of militia. Therefore, in compliance with the said requisition, I order into the military service of the Union, to rendezvous at the said town of Erie, on or before the 20th day of April next, a detachment to consist of one thousand men, to be drafted from the Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth divisions, and of Captain Samuel Thomas' company of artillery, of the Ninth division, who have patriotically volunteered their service to the Governor, which detachment shall be organized and officered agreeably to the rules and regulations that obtain in the army of the United States, recognized by an act of the Legislature of this State, passed the 29th inst., and agreeably also to the several other laws of this State relative to the militia, so far forth as such laws will apply to and come in aid of the orders of the Secretary at War, and the special provisions of the said law of the 29th inst., of which detachment I have constituted Rees Hill, Esq., of Greene county, Colonel, by commission, under the Great Seal of the State, who is to obey and execute all orders that issue to him from his superior officer of the United States army. On the officers and privates under his command strict obedience is enjoined to all his orders and commands, so long as the detachment shall remain in the service of the United States. The Commander-in-Chief, with pleasure and with pride, quotes from a letter to him from General William H. Harrison, an encomium highly to the credit of the detachment of Pennsylvania militia under his command, as worthy the imitation of our citizen soldiers: "I can assure you there is no corps on whom I rely with more confidence, not only for the fidelity of undaunted valor in the field, but for those virtues which are more rarely found amongst the militia—patience and fortitude under great hardships and deprivations, and cheerful obedience to all commands of their officers."

SIMON SNYDER.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, March 31, 1813.

The following instructions are given relative to the detachment of Pennsylvania militia to rendezvous at Erie, on Lake Erie, to the Adjutant General, his deputy and to the Brigade Inspectors of the Eleventh, Twelfth, and Thirteenth divisions of Pennsylvania militia. The detachment shall be organized and officered by the Adjutant General, or by his deputy as follows, viz: One colonel commandant, (already appointed,) the marching lieutenant colonel, and marching major of the First brigade of the Thirteenth division, and the marching major of the First brigade of the Eleventh division, one surgeon from the Twelfth division, ten captains, ten first lieutenants, ten second lieutenants, ten third lieutenants, and ten ensigns. From the Eleventh division are to be drafted four hundred and nineteen, from the Twelfth division one hundred, and from the Thirteenth four hundred and ninety men, including officers. The Brigade Inspectors respectively will order captains designated by law to march, each of them with one hundred men including officers, as aforesaid. The marching lieutenant, and two supernumerary lieutenants to serve one as second, the other third lieutenant, who are to draw for rank at the place of rendezvous and the marching ensign. As it is of the utmost importance that some force be stationed at Erie as early as circumstances will permit, and at all events on the 20th day of April next. The companies as soon as formed will march, as directed by the Secretary at War, by the most direct route to Erie, the place of rendezvous. The respective Brigade Inspectors will supply what is needful for the comfort and convenience of the troops to the place of rendezvous, and having arrived there shall immediately be under the command of Col. Reese Hill, commandant of the detachment, and obey in all things his orders. That you will collect the public arms in your brigade, and furnish therewith those of the men ordered on service that have not arms, is so obviously your duty as not to need reiteration. Those who march without arms will be furnished at the place of rendezvous.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU.
Aid-de-Camp.

INSTRUCTIONS TO COL. REESE HILL.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO E. DENNY.

HARRISBURG, SECRETARY'S OFFICE, April 1, 1813.

To Mr. E. DENNY, Contractor for Western District:

SIR: I am directed by the Governor to inform you that he has ordered into service of the United States, by the request of the Secretary at War, one thousand militia to rendezvous at Erie, on or before the 20th instant. Companies are ordered to march as soon as organized. Probably a considerable portion of the detachment will arrive before the 20th. You will, therefore, please to make the necessary arrangements to furnish the troops with rations.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO THE DEPUTY QUARTER-MASTER GENERAL UNITED STATES.

HARRISBURG, April 1, 1813.

To Deputy Quarter-Master General of the United States:

SIR: By direction of the Governor I inclose to you a copy of a letter from the Secretary at War. In compliance with the requisition contained in the letter, the Governor issued orders yesterday for one thousand militia to rendezvous at Erie, on or before the 20th instant. Companies are ordered to march as soon as organized, and expeditiously as possible, to the place of destination. The detachment will consist of nine hundred and thirty-five privates, one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, two majors, ten captains, ten First, Second, and Third lieutenants, ten ensigns, and one surgeon. The object of this communication is to enable you to make arrangements to furnish the necessary supplies at the time the detachment shall arrive at Erie. A part, at least, will arrive before the 20th instant. Wilson Smith, Quarter-Master General of this Commonwealth, will be there to receive and receipt articles furnished.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, April 1, 1813.

To WILSON SMITH, Quarter-Master General:

SIR: In obedience to the requisition of the Secretary at War, the Governor has ordered out one thousand militia, to rendezvous at Erie on or before the 20th inst. A copy of the orders are enclosed. The Deputy Quarter-Master General is ordered by the Secretary at War to furnish the necessary supplies from Pittsburgh. You will receive and receipt for the articles when they arrive. You will render every aid in your power to Colonel Hill, in effecting the object of his appointment. If you apprehend there is not muskets and cartouch-boxes enough at or in the neighborhood of Erie to supply those of the troops that may arrive without them, you will endeavor to ascertain whether or not they can be had out of the United States stores at Pittsburgh. If not, you will give the earliest information to the Governor, so that the deficiency may be supplied from this place as soon as practicable. An artillery company is ordered from Luzerne, say about fifty men; they ought to have fusees. Could they be had from Pittsburgh? if not, they must have muskets, for which they ought to have leather slings and bayonet scabbards, which you will please to procure.

The Governor has written to the Secretary at War on the above subject.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. SAMUEL THOMAS.

HARRISBURG, April 1, 1813.

To Captain SAMUEL THOMAS, Luzerne county:

SIR: By direction of the Governor, I send to you a copy of the general orders issued yesterday, also a check for five hundred dollars, for the purpose of supplying the men under your command with necessaries on their march to the place of rendezvous, where you will be furnished with a piece of artillery, fusees, or muskets, and necessary camp equipage. You will have forwarded to me a receipt for the check enclosed.

I am also instructed by the Governor to direct you to march your men, with the least possible delay, to Erie, the place of general rendezvous, which is to be on or before the 20th inst., at Erie.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, April 1, 1813.

To JOHN ARMSTONG, Esq., Secretary at War:

SIR: Enclosed I transmit to you a copy of my general orders of the 31st March, predicated on your requisitory letter to me of the 20th of the same month, which I received on the 27th, for a detachment of one thousand militia, to rendezvous at Erie, on the 20th inst., for the protection of the United States naval armament at that place. Under our military system, it was not possible to have executed literally and in detail your orders. Full Colonels are not recognized in our law, nor have we Second or Third Lieutenants. The short delay that has happened in the execution of both your orders was occasioned by the necessity there was for legislative interference, to make legal the organization and officering the detachment, conformably with the United States requisitions. Such an act being passed on the 29th inst., I hastened to execute your orders for the Erie detachment on the 31st. Though not so directed, I thought it of importance that some artillery should be of the detachment. I did accordingly order a company, consisting of about fifty men, commanded by Capt. Thomas, of well disciplined artillerists, to march as a component part of the detachment. Agreeaby to your request, the companies, as soon as formed, are ordered to march to Erie. At Waterford, fifteen miles from Erie, remain four brass field pieces, the property of the State, in prime condition; these are as many as there may be occasion for. Quarter-master General Wilson Smith, of Erie county, will furnish the company, if you so direct. As it is probable a portion of the men may appear at Erie unarmed, I would suggest the propriety of orders from you to the Superintendent of Military Stores at Pittsburgh, to furnish, on loan, those that may be unsupplied amongst them. I wish there may be fifty fuses for arming therewith the company of artillery, whom I could not furnish, because we have not any of that species of arms the property of the State. Having, previous to your first orders, adopted measures preparatory to a defence of the city of Philadelphia and the shores of the Delaware, and having no fears for the safety of the city of Philadelphia, and the embarrassment above alluded to presenting itself, I delayed executing your orders relative to that place. The difficulty being now removed, I shall proceed to execute those orders also, unless otherwise directed by the Executive of the Union. That the species of force is not prescribed is, in some degree, embarrassing.

Accept of my high respect and consideration.

SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO COL. JOHN PHILLIPS.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, HARRISBURG, April 5, 1813.

To Col. JOHN PHILLIPS:

SIR: The Governor has directed me to inform you of his intention to appoint you Paymaster or agent under the several acts relative to the detachment of our militia now in the service of the United States under Gen. Harrison. In your fitness and integrity he has full confidence: and in confidence that you will accept thereof, he has directed me to forward to you a bond for your signature, and that of two other gentlemen, as your sureties, in whom he can have like confidence. This boud you will transmit signed, and attested by witnesses, to this department. Copies of the two laws under which you will have to act will be furnished you by the next mail. It will be necessary, also, that you forward to this place a letter of attorney, whereby in your capacity of agent or Paymaster you authorize some friend here, say Mr. John Cochran, to receive for you, and in your name, any sum of money that may be drawn for, in your favor by the warrant of the Governor on the State Treasurer, for the purpose mentioned and contained in act entitled "An act to grant compensation, for extra services, to the militia of the Commonwealth now in service under the command of Gen. William H. Harrison," and of another act entitled "An act making further provision for the militia and volunteers in this State in the service of the United States.

Let the authority you vest in your agent be general as to the receipt for you out of the Treasury of any sum that you may deem requisite, and the giving and signing of such acquittance as the State Treasurer may require. Arrangements are now making so that you can receive the requisite money at the Branch Bank at Pittsburgh. You will apprise Gen. Crooks of your appointment, and direct him to send the pay-rolls required to be furnished by him, to the agent or Paymaster, at Pittsburgh. For the duties incumbent on you, you are referred to the laws under which you are to act in which they are detailed.

I am, &c.,

JAMES TRIMBLE,

Deputy Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. RICHARD CROOK.

To Gen. RICHARD CROOK:

SIR: I have the honor to forward to you an authentic copy of an act of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, entitled "An act making further provision for the militia and volunteers in this State in the service of the United States," passed the 29th March, 1813, whereby is granted a bounty of twenty dollars to each of the non-commissioned officers and private composing the detachment of Pennsylvania militia, who shall have served under you the tour of duty for which they were designated. The service required of you is detailed in the law. I add my wishes that the requisite pay-rolls may be furnished as early as possible to Colonel John Phillips, whom I have appointed agent or paymaster, directed to the care of the postmaster at Pittsburgh, with a request to him to hand the roll or rolls to Colonel Phillips, or such other person as may produce a commission as agent or paymaster, under my signature and the seal of the State.

Be assured of my high appreciation and respect.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO MESSRS. BINNS AND ACHESON.

Messrs. JOHN BINNS and DAVID ACHESON:

You having given me to understand, in your capacity of agents for the State, in communication of the 1st instant, that what with the sums of money then subscribed by several incorporated banks, to a loan authorized by a law of the Legislature, and the prospects you had of procuring additional subscriptions, equal to one million dollars, the sum contemplated to be loaned by the State of Pennsylvania to the United States government, I do, therefore, authorize you to complete the negotiations already opened, and such as may have been opened, or that you shall open, subsequent to the date of your said communication, with bodies politic, or individuals, for the purpose aforesaid, and that you enter, or procure to have entered, for me, the Governor of Pennsylvania, on the books opened for the United States loan, in the common form, and on the terms prescribed by the Secretary of the United States Treasury, a subscription, on behalf of and for the State of Pennsylvania, of one million of dollars, and that you make, as well, all other arrangements, and do any and all such act and acts with the said Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, as with the subscribers to the State loan, as shall be lawful under the laws that authorize the said loan to the State and the subscription to the United States loan, and that shall be needful for the attainment of the object of said laws.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, April 5, 1813.

N. B. BOILEAU:

The general government having put in requisition a detachment of one thousand drafted militia of this State, for the protection of the city of Philadelphia and the shores of the Delaware against a naval or other attack from the enemy's squadron, now on our coast, I do, therefore, in compliance with the said requisition, order into the service of the Union a detachment of one thousand men, including officers, to be composed of one company of artillery and of infantry from the First division, heretofore drafted and designated for service, as directed by the Adjutant General, under general orders of the 12th May, 1812, to rendezvous at Philadelphia on the 18th day of April instant. Lewis Rush, of the city of Philadelphia, whom I have appointed and commissioned colonel of the said detachment, and the officers and privates composing the same, are to be under the command of Gen. Bloomfield, the commanding general of the district, whose orders the said colonel commandant and the detachment is to be otherwise officered, agreeably to the orders of the Secretary at War, recognized by an act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, passed the 29th day of March last past, and agreeably also to the other laws now in force relative to the militia, so far forth as such laws will apply to and come in aid as well as the requisitory orders aforesaid, as of the special provisions of the said act of Assembly of the 29th March last. The Adjutant General is directed for the complete organization and officering of the detachment, to issue his orders in detail.

Col. John Binns, aid to the Governor, will communicate these orders to Col. Rush, and furnish Gen. Bloomfield with a copy thereof.

SIMON SNYDER.

INSTRUCTIONS TO COL. LEWIS RUSH.

HARRISBURG, April 6, 1813.

In order to the execution of the general orders of the Commander-in-Chief of yesterday, the Adjutant directs the following organization and officering of the detachment destined for the service of the United States.

The detachment will be commanded by Lewis Rush, Colonel commandant, appointed and commissioned by the Governor. Under him are to serve in command the marching Lieutenant Colonel and marching Major from the First brigade of the First division, also the marching Major from the Second brigade of said division.

The Lieutenant Colonel to have attached to him his regimental surgeon, ten captains, ten lieutenants, ten ensigns, as designated by law, ten second lieutenants, and ten third lieutenants, to be chosen agreeably to the act supplementary to the militia law, passed 29th March, 1813.

The detachment to consist of ten companies of one hundred men in each, officers and privates. Nine of said companies shall be composed of the drafted infantry, and one of artillery. Four hundred infantry and one hundred artillery to be furnished by the First brigade, and five hundred infantry from the Second brigade of said First division.

The Brigade Inspectors of the proper brigades will immediately communicate these orders to the officers concerned, to use all legal means to have the detachment at the place of rendezvous at the time appointed to collect all the public arms within their respective brigades, and therewith arm the detachment. If any should be unsupplied, it is presumed they will be furnished out of the United States arsenal on loan. Col. Lewis Rush is hereby appointed my assistant to organize the detachment, agreeably to law and the general orders, and Col. John Binns, aid to the Commander-in-Chief, is solicited to aid and assist him therein.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief.

WILLIAM REED.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, April 6, 1813.

Supplementary to those issued on the 31st day of March, last past, for the rendezvousing at Erie, in the county of Erie, of one thousand militia, to be commanded by Colonel Commandant Rees Hill, subject to the order of the General commanding, within the proper district of the United States.

TO WILLIAM REED, Adjutant General of the Militia of Pennsylvania:

If, in the discharge of the duty incumbent on you by law before or at the time of the organization of the detachment at Erie, on the 20th instant, ordered into service in conformity with a requisition made by the constituted authority of the United States, you shall have discovered, or shall, at the time of the organization discover, that the number of one thousand men, including officers, will not, or have not, appeared at the said rendezvous, I do, in order to comply with the said United States requisition, authorize you, the said Adjutant General William Reed, to issue orders to the Brigade Inspector of the Second brigade of the Sixteenth division, and the Brigade Inspector of the First brigade of the Fifteenth division, and the Brigade Inspectors of the Fourteenth division, or any of them, for drafting a number of men sufficient for to fill the requisition to each of them, or to any of them, in the proportion their respective brigades shall bear to the number required. Or that you accept volunteers, if any shall, through you, tender their service to the Governor. But, in no instance, are you to depart, in the organization or officering any such troops, from the rule prescribed by the Secretary at War, recognized by an act of the Legislature of this State, passed the 29th March, last past. That agreeably to precedent established in the case of two detachments of militia that have been in the service of the United States, you demand from the proper United States officer or officers at Pittsburgh, or elsewhere, that the detachment be furnished with arms, ammunition, and all camp equipments necessary for field duty, such as were furnished you for the said detachments lately in the service of the United States. Quarter-Master General Wilson Smith will deliver, on your order, or the orders of Colonel Hill, the brass field-pieces, with the apparatus, now at Erie or Waterford, and any other military property there remaining, if occasion shall require.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, 6th April, 1813.

To N. B. BOILEAU:

The number of drafted militia requested by general orders of the 31st March last not being equal to the quota of the Eleventh division, John Young and William Moore, the Brigade Inspectors belonging to said division, are ordered to march from their respective brigades to Erie, the place of rendezvous, such a number of drafted militia as when added to those furnished for Gen. Tannehill's brigade, will be equal to the number required from said division, agreeably to the Adjutant General's apportionment made in pursuance of general orders, dated at Harrisburg, 12th May, 1812.

SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO FREDK. FOERING.

HARRISBURG, 6th April, 1813.

To FREDK. FOERING, D. Q. M. General residing at Philadelphia:

SIR: Your letter of the 2d inst., to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, (who is now absent,) on the subject of military equipments for the militia, or by the Governor, to be held in readiness to march at a moment's warning against any enemy that may invade the State, came to hand this morning. The Governor has just perused it, and has instructed me to say that general orders having issued for the rendezvousing at Philadelphia of one thousand drafted militia of the First division for the protection of the city and the shores of the Delaware, under requisition from the constituted authority of the United States, and this force being, as it ought to be, at the disposition of the General commanding for the United States, in the district, and the Governor deeming it adequate for all present, and any reasonably anticipated exigency, he will, so soon as the organization of the detachment shall be complete, countermand his orders of the 20th March last, unless circumstances should imperiously forbid it. And he directs that you will, in the interim, incur no expense under the Quarter-Master General deputation without special orders. About the arming and equipping of this detachment, the Governor supposes there will be no difficulty, as the United States have already established a precedent which it is presumed will not be departed from in the present instance unless the system should have been changed. The two detachments of Pennsylvania militia that have been in the service of the United States were furnished by the United States, at Pittsburgh, with arms, and generally with all necessary camp equipments, as you will perceive by reference to the enclosed copy of a list furnished by the Adjutant General now at this place. Account of the articles delivered out of the United States arsenal and magazine on Adjutant General Reed's orders. Will you have the goodness, after perusal, to hand the list to Col. Binn; he may have occasion to show it to Gen. Bloomfield.

Yours, &c.,

JAMES TRIMBLE.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO MESSRS. EDWARDS AND ANDERSON.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, April 7, 1813.

To Messrs. SAMUEL EDWARDS and THOMAS D. ANDERSON:

GENTLEMEN: Your letter to the Governor, under date of the 2d inst., did not come to hand before the 5th. It hence has happened that you could not have an answer in time to lay before those, who in conjunction with yourselves have patriotically associated for the purpose of defending against the British foe, the shores of the Delaware. An uncommon press of business has prevented till this morning a reply by me (the Secretary being absent) to your queries, I hasten to do it now, hoping it may yet be in time to carry the means, and thus give effect to the zeal which animates the corps of which you are members.

Querie 1st. Will the Governor order the Brigade Inspector to furnish the Chester volunteer company sixty muskets, with bayonets and cartouch-boxes, upon their giving bond for the safe keeping, and returning of the same within a specified time?

Answer. The Governor will direct the late Brigade Inspector to furnish you and such other two gentlemen, as will agree to enter into bond for the safe re-delivery, and shall be approved by the Brigadier General, in your personal capacities, at a period to be fixed in the condition of such bonds, sixty muskets and bayonets, and if they can be procured, as many cartouch-boxes for the purpose of arming therewith the company of volunteers of which you are members.

Querie 2d. Will the Governor commission a volunteer company who tender their services merely for the local defence, and not for a general purpose?

Answer. There being no law warranting the officering any corps for local defence, the Governor cannot grant commissions other than is prescribed by law. Companies of volunteers have dissolved themselves, and I know of no law, however irregular such practice may have been, that provides a penalty consequent to such act.

A blank bond shall be forwarded to the Brig. Gen. William Brook, with instructions to deliver the arms as soon as the same is duly executed and delivered to him.

I am, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO GEN. WILLIAM BROOKE.

To WILLIAM BROOKE, Esq., Brigadier General of the Third Division of Militia:

SIR: An application of Samuel Edwards and Thomas D. Anderson of Chester, in Delaware county, the Governor has agreed to loan sixty muskets with bayonets, and, if they can be procured, as many cartouch-boxes for the purpose of arming therewith the Chester volunteer company of infantry, of which the said gentlemen are members, provided Mr. Edwards and Mr. Anderson, with such other two gentlemen (to be approved of by you) as will agree so to do, enter into bond for the safe keeping and re-delivery of the said arms, &c., in good order in six months from the time of receiving them. The Governor accordingly directs you to deliver, out of the number you have in store, to Samuel Edwards and Thomas D. Anderson, or to either of them, or to their order, sixty muskets with bayonets, and as many cartridge-boxes, if you have them, upon the inclosed bond being previously executed in due form by the above named gentlemen and sureties, and delivered to you; to be afterwards transmitted to this office and filed therein. A copy of the letter written to Messrs. Edwards and Anderson is inclosed.

I am, respectfully,
Your friend,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, April 12, 1813.

TO WILSON SMITH, Quarter-Master General of the Militia of Pennsylvania, at Erie; in his absence, to REES HILL, ESQ., Colonel commandant at that place.

SIR: Apprehending that few of the militia ordered to rendezvous at Erie, in this month, will come supplied with cartridge-boxes, I hasten to forward, by Archibald Kerr, of Green county, one thousand. The price of cartage agreed upon is $300, $100 thereof was paid him here. If he delivers them in good condition at Erie, you will pay him the balance of $200. Your order for that sum on me, written under his receipt, will be paid at sight.

Very respectfully,
Your friend,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. JOHN BINNS.

HARRISBURG, 13*th April*, 1813.

COL. JOHN BINNS, Philadelphia:

DEAR SIR: To save expense, and to allay an alarm unnecessarily excited, I shall adopt the Baltimore system for defence. You may expect orders to that effect in time to promulgate them on the 19th, immediately after the organization shall have been completed under Col. Rush. Whether I shall order those that may remain under the command of Gen. Wharton, after that organization shall have been effected, to be of the requisition as suggested by the President, under date of the 7th inst., through the Secretary at War, and thus make up a detachment of two thousand men, I have yet under advisement. The suggestions of the President have, I presume, grown out of an opinion that I gave, that the city of Philadelphia was not in any danger from any hostile attack meditated by the British squadron then in the Delaware.

On the subject of the loan, I rely on your and Mr. Acheson's judgment and sound discretion that, under the circumstances connected with that delicate subject, no unnecessary expense will be incurred.

Faithfully yours, &c.,

SIMON SNYDER.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, 14*th April*, 1813.

To N. B. BOILEAU :

The President of the United States, under date of the 7th inst., having, through the Secretary at War, expressed the opinion that the city of Philadelphia is not menaced by any imminent danger, but that the shores of the Delaware, being liable to outrage, it might be well to have a corps ready to repel attacks should they be made; that to fulfill both these purposes, it might be sufficient to organize, arm, and equip a corps of militia, and hold it ready to be called into actual service, either wholly or partially, by the general officers commanding the district.

According, in opinion with the President, and in order to prevent a divison from other pursuits of a large portion of our citizens, by ordering them into the field when there is no enemy to oppose, I do revoke so much of the general orders of the 5th inst., as directs the detachment ordered on service to rendezvous, on the 19th inst., at Philadelphia, and I do order and direct that the organization of the detachment and officering the companies, respectively, agreeably to the Adjutant General's detail, attached to said orders of the 5th inst., be done and performed by Colonel Commandant Lewis Rush within each battalion bounds, of which the First division is composed, on the said 19th day of April, and on any day or days before the 27th inst.

The proper Brigade Inspectors are ordered to give notice to the drafts of the battalions, respectively, of the day and hour on which the said Col. Rush will attend, for the organization and officering of a company or companies out of such battalion. In the performance of which, it is presumed he will have the assistance of Col. John Binns.

The duties incumbent on said Brigade Inspectors, and on the officers and men to compose the detachment, it is fondly anticipated will be performed with their accustomed zeal and alacrity. The detachment being organized and equipped as directed, will hold itself in readiness for actual service in the field, and rendezvous for that purpose at such time and place as Brig. Gen. Bloomfield, the commanding general of the district, shall order and direct.

Col. John Binns, aid to the Governor, is directed to furnish a copy of this order to Gen. Bloomfield, and to present duplicates thereof to Col. Lewis Rush, and the Brigade Inspectors of First division of Pennsylvania militia.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, April 15, 1813.

To JOHN ARMSTRONG, Esq., Secretary of War :

SIR : Immediately after the receipt of your letter of the 7th inst., which I have the honor to acknowledge, I issued, under date of yesterday, general orders (a copy of whereof is herewith transmitted) conformably to the President's opinion and wishes communicated in your said letter. I had the less hesitation to revoke partially my order of the 5th inst., which are predicated on your letter of the 20th March last, because the revocation will have been promulgated in time to prevent the expense and loss of time that would have ensued uselessly by a rendezvousing of the detachment on the 19th inst., as I had previously directed in general orders, of which a copy is also herewith transmitted. To make up the number suggested by the President as necesary to be held in readiness for service, I should, in general orders of the 14th inst., have embraced the Philadelphia militia legion, who have heretofore patriotically tendered their services to the Governor. This corps consists of horse artillery and infantry, and is about one thousand strong, and consists of residents within the city and liberties. But your letter of the 20th March expressly requiring drafted militia, and the laws of Pennsylvania providing that volunteer corps shall be called into service by companies or half companies, and not by drafts, added to the difficulties likely to arise if it were attempted to organize and officer those volunteers agreeably to your requisitory letters of the 20th of March last, were considerations of weight sufficient to dictate a delay until I shall have learned whether the President will recognize the legion as of the detachment of two thousand men organized and officered as it now is under the law or laws of Pennsylvania.

Respectfully and with great sincerity,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO GEN. ALEXANDER OGLE.

HARRISBURG, April 16, 1813.

TO ALEXANDER OGLE, Esq., Major General of the Twelfth Division of Militia:

SIR: I acknowledged, for the Governor, the receipt of your orders, dated the 7th day of April, 1813, issued in your capacity of Major General of the Twelfth division of Pennsylvania militia; and am directed to say, that the Governor has yet to learn that it was competent for a Major General to issue orders revoking those of the Commander-in-Chief. He has hitherto thought that all military officers in subordinate situations were bound to execute, implicitly, the lawful orders of their superior.

You need scarcely be told that four classes of any division may be ordered into service, before it becomes the duty of the Commander-in-Chief to order out the classes of another or other divisions.

I am, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOSEPH WORRELL.

HARRISBURG, May 7, 1813.

TO JOSEPH WORRELL, Esq.:

SIR: The Governor has adopted a plan of a State Arsenal, and described the manner in which the work is to be executed, both of which are put into the hands of Mr. Binns, where you can have an opportunity of inspecting them.

You will perceive that it is necessary that the price for which you would engage to execute the work, agreeably to the plan adopted, should be stated.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO FREDERICK FOERING.

HARRISBURG, May 7, 1813.

FRED'K FOERING, Deputy Quarter-Master General:

SIR: Yours of May 4th I have received. The Governor directs that you should get the public arms mentioned in your letter completely repaired, selecting those in the first instance that require the least. You will endeavor to ascertain the expense that will occur in having the remainder made fit for service, and give information to this office. It will be necessary for you to inspect the arms after they are repaired, and forward to the accountant department a certificate, with the account for repairs, that they are well done and the charge of the workmen reasonable. With regard to supplying the One Hundred and Fifty-fifth regiment with arms, there is no law authorizing a further distribution of arms. If, however, that regiment, or any part thereof, should be called into actual service, furnish them with such arms as you shall have repaired and fit for service. Under a former law, the expense of repairing arms distributed was to be defrayed out of the regimental funds; those funds were generally inadequate. But this deficiency is supplied by the proviso to the eleventh section of the supplementary act to the militia law, passed 29th March last, a copy of which, I expect, each Brigade Inspector has received.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. ROBERT WHARTON.

HARRISBURG, May 7, 1813.

To Gen. ROBERT WHARTON:

SIR: Yours of the 27th ult., to the Governor has been duly received. In answer to which I have to state that the present, as well as former, complaint against the conduct of Andrew Nelson, appears to have originated with the same individual.

While Mr. Israel, and many other respectable citizens who reside in the neighborhood, have declared that they felt no apprehension on account of Nelson's behavior. Nor have the dealers in powder expressed any fears from his conduct, but, on the contrary, a long list of them have certified their entire confidence in Nelson. These circumstances seem to corroborate a statement made to the Governor, that the individual above alluded to has a personal hostility to Nelson, and a desire to supplant him. I have also a letter now before me, from Mr. Keimle, of the 31st ult., in which there is no charge whatever alleged against Nelson. Under such circumstances the Governor does not think it expedient or just to remove Nelson from office.

If you shall have ascertained, through a respectable source, say Mr. Israel and others living near the Magazine, that danger is really to be apprehended from the conduct of the Inspector and Deputy Superintendent, and will certify to that effect, the Governor will take prompt measures to prevent the apprehended danger. I must also state that Dr. Keimle exculpates his deputy from all blame. Neither does he apprehend the possibility of its being injured by an incendiary from without. If there be danger, by a representation thereof to General Bloomfield, he would, no doubt, direct a portion of the militia under his direction to guard it.

The Major General, also, of the division has power, under the act of 29th March last, to call out a sufficient number of militia, for a limited time, to guard any place where danger is apprehended.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, May 8, 1813.

Preparatory measures having been adopted by the general government to which it of right belongs, for defending the city of Philadelphia, and the shores of the Delaware against any hostile attempts that may be made by the enemy. And it being ascertained that a portion of the militia under the command of Col. Lewis Rush, ordered to be held in readiness for service, under a requisition of the President of the United States, and subject to the orders of Gen. Bloomfield, there commanding for the United States, is also subject to the orders of Gen. Robert Wharton, under general orders of 20th March last, from which circumstances, serious difficulties might arise, if orders conflicting with each other should issue. And it being, moreover, now in the power of the proper Major General of the division to order out for a peried of time such portion of the volunteers or militia within his division, as he may deem necessary in any case of emergency. I have therefore deemed it necessary that my said orders of 20th March last, be revoked, and I do accordingly revoke the same. Col. Binns, my aid-de-camp will communicate this order to Gen. Wharton.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-camp.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JAMES MADISON.

HARRISBURG, May 10, 1813.

TO JAMES MADISON, Esq., President of the United States:

SIR: I hasten to forward to you a copy of a resolution of the select and common councils of the city of Philadelphia, and a copy, also, of a letter to me by a committee for that purpose, appointed by these bodies, from which, as also from a resolve by the latter, (published in the Democratic press of Friday last,) contemplating the appropriation of $30,000 out of the city fund for defence, it would appear that an alarm of a very serious nature prevails at this time at that place, founded, as it is stated, on the defenceless state of the Delaware.

Permit me, sir, to their request, to add mine also. That such immediate measures may be taken on the waters of the Delaware, and preparatory measures for defence by land, as will, by their efficiency, inspire the inhabitants of that important place with the confidence of being fully prepared to repel any foe that shall have the temerity to invade our property.

To any orders you may deem necessary to give, requiring my aid in their execution, I promise the most prompt attention.

Sincerely and very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN SMITH.

HARRISBURG, May 11, 1813.

TO JOHN SMITH, Esq., Marshal, Pennsylvania district:

SIR: The Governor has a copy of a letter from you to the Adjutant General of the militia of Pennsylvania, in which you inform him of the duties that devolve on you, as Marshal of the district, in the collection of fines that may have been imposed by courts-martial on delinquent Pennsylvania militia men. That you "have to request that he will direct, in all cases where the reports of courts-martial are made to a deputy, that a transcript or duplicate may be forwarded to you, in order to the better execution of the law." The Adjutant General being absent at Erie, organizing a detachment of Pennsylvania militia for the service of the United States, you cannot have so early an answer from that officer as the service may require; I have, therefore, been directed by the Governor to say that the proceedings had against delinquents were had, at every instance, under the law of Pennsylvania constituting the proper Brigade Inspector and two assistants a court, to hear and determine on the case of every delinquent. That the proceedings are not in accordance with the act of Congress of 28th February, 1795, to which you allude in your letter, is obvious. This conflict between the laws of Pennsylvania and the United States occurred to him early last fall, and was the subject of a correspondence between him and a member of Congress. Nothing efficient, it is much to be regretted, was done by Congress, nor could he obtain from the Executive Department, through the same member, any satisfactory explanation or construction of that part of the act of Congress which so evidently conflicts with the State laws.

We do not know, nor can the Adjutant General know, the deputies you allude to. The several Brigade Inspectors have reported their proceedings to the Auditor General, from him, on application, you can procure a list of delinquents—fined and exonerated—if you believe it is competent for you to proceed for the recovery of such fines, imposed under a law of the State not recognized by the act of Congress of 1795. The Governor, feeling a strong desire that the penalties of some one law should fall on the refractory and delinquent militia, and more especially as he has been repeatedly petitioned for remission of fines imposed as aforesaid, and some cases requiring the interposition of the proper authority, wishes that a determination may be had, has, although the subject is not perhaps officially before him, directed this communication.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO SAMUEL CARSWELL.

HARRISBURG, May 11, 1813.

TO SAMUEL CARSWELL:

SIR: Yours of the 7th ult., has been duly received by the last evening mail. The Governor has written to the President of the United States, agreeably to request contained in a letter received by the same mail, addressed to him by a committee appointed for that purpose, by the select and common councils, representing to him the exposed situation of the city and its vicinity, in consequence of the enemy's squadron in the Chesapeake, urging the particular attention of the President to the subject.

He having just received important and unpleasant information from Erie repecting the defence of that place and the United States property there. Information being also communicated that a portion of the militia have marched from Chester county to oppose the enemy in Maryland, and a serious alarm prevailing in Delaware county, which he is preparing to dissipate by forwarding arms and munitions of war, to enable the patriotic militia there to defend the shores of the Delaware below, and thus form a barrier for the city. All the concerns important in their nature, and daily multiplying, can be attended to by him at the seat of government only; and until he is fully ascertained that his presence is absolutely necessary at any particular place, it is his duty to remain at the seat of government, where, with the necessary promptitude, he can attend to the various calls made on him from different and very distant quarters of the Commonwealth.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO MR. T. D. ANDERSON.

HARRISBURG, May 12, 1813.

To MR. T. D. ANDERSON, Delaware county:

SIR: Yours of the 7th ult., the Governor has received, and is preparing to forward as early as practicable five or six hundred stand of arms and cartouch-boxes from this place. He will also give immediate instruction to Fredk. Foering, Deputy Quarter-Master General, to supply you, whenever called on, with ammunition, if not to be procured from the United States. With regard to tents and other camp equipage, there is none belonging to the State probably fit for use. He, however, has it in contemplation to have them procured as soon as possible. At this season of the year, and in a country so thickly settled, the men on service might, perhaps, find shelter from any inclemency of the weather, in houses, barns, or temporary huts. There were about one hundred and sixty old tents, by order of Gov. Mifflin, delivered to the Board of Health, in the year 1793. Mr. Foering will be instructed to ascertain their situation, and such as are, if any, fit for use, to deliver them to your Brigade Inspector or Quarter-Master. I herewith enclose to you a copy of a supplement to the militia law, by which you will perceive (Sec. 2) that the Major General is authorized to call "into actual service, and to organize such portion of the volunteers or militia within his division, as in his opinion the public safety may require." He residing in the vicinity when danger is apprehended, will be more competent to decide what number of men would be necessary to order into the field than the Governor could be at so remote a place, and could act more promptly, so as to meet the emergency. To him, therefore, would it be most expedient to apply. You will please to communicate the contents of this letter to Major Casper Snyder, and also furnish the Major General with a copy.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO FREDERICK FOERING.

HARRISBURG, May 12, 1813.

FREDERICK FOERING, Deputy Quarter-Master:

SIR: The Governor directs that you procure a sufficient number of tents and camp kettles to accommodate a thousand men, including officers, as early as practicable. That you will, also, ascertain as soon as you can the number and situation of those tents which were delivered by Governor Mifflin's order to the Board of Health, when the yellow fever was in the city, say 1793. Such as are fit for use, and such as are worth repairing, have ready as expeditiously as practicable, to be delivered when called on by Maj. Gen. Steel, Third division Pennsylvania militia, Brigade Inspectors, or Quarter-Masters belonging thereto. You were, if I mistake not, instructed by the Quarter-Master General to procure such munitions of war as might be requisite in case of a call of militia into the service of the State, the expense not to exceed $5,000. If, under those instructions, you have not procured ammunition, you will please to attend to it immediately. Maj. Gen. Steel or some proper officer will inform you what quantity will be necessary, which you will deliver when called on for that purpose.

The Governor also directs you to contract with Mr. Henry Fraley, of Germantown, for five hundred cartridge-boxes, bayonetbelts, and scabbards, conformably to the sample he sent to this office, which he offered to make at the rate of $2 20 for box, belt, and scabbard. Inform me if you think a greater number will be necessary.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO MAJ. GEN. JAMES STEEL.

HARRISBURG, May 12, 1813.

Major General JAMES STEEL:

SIR: I have much pleasure in the perusal of the communication you made me, under date of the 9th inst., that a portion of the militia of your division have volunteered on an expedition to Maryland, there to assist their fellow-citizens of the Union in repelling the wanton aggression of a cruel and vindictive foe.

Acting as they do, under the impulse of a patriotic feeling, they merit, and most assuredly will have, the applause of their country. But it is to be regretted that, under our existing laws, the meed of virtue will alone be their reward, there being no law of this State nor of the United States under which pay can be claimed.

The act you did was not, I presume, by you considered as coming within the provisions of the second section of a supplement to our militia law passed the last session of the Legislature.

Accept assurances of sincere regard.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GENERAL N. WATSON.

HARRISBURG, May 13, 1813.

Gen. WATSON:

SIR: Yours of the 10th ult., I received by this morning's mail. I communicated to the Governor the contents of your letter. So far as it relates to the ordering out of the militia from your division, am instructed to say that you are to determine whether the present case comes within the meaning of the second section of the supplementary act passed at the last session. Under a requisition of the President of the United States, the Governor ordered one thousand militia to be detached, organized, and reported to General Bloomfield. This has been done. With a full knowledge of the movements of the enemy, General Bloomfield has not thought it necessary to order into actual service more than about three hundred and forty-eight men of that detachment. Representations have also been made to the Executive of the United States of the situation of the shores of the Delaware, but no further orders have been received by the Governor relative to their defence. Under these circumstances the Governor thinks it inexpedient, at present, to direct you in the premises, he having no authority to order militia to march out of the limits of the State. If the State of Maryland wishes aid, General Bloomfield is the proper person to whom to apply. He can order the men under his command to any point within the limits of the United States at least.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. JAMES HUMES.

HARRISBURG, May 13, 1813.

To Capt. JAMES HUMES:

SIR: Yours to the Governor of yesterday was received by this day's mail. The Governor highly applauds the patriotism of the volunteer companies of Lancaster, in marching to assist their fellow citizens of Maryland, in repelling the wanton aggression of a cruel and vindictive enemy. Acting, as you have done, under the impulse of patriotic feeling you merit, and must assuredly have the applause of your country. But it is to be regretted that under existing laws the meed of virtue can be your only reward, except it be received from the State of Maryland or the United States. The Governor not being competent upon his own authority to order militia out of the limits of the State. It is presumed you did not conceive yourselves as acting under the provisions of the second section of the supplement to the militia law passed 29th March last.

Accept assurances of my most ardent desire for your success, honor, and personal safety.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JAMES DUNLAP.

HARRISBURG, May 13, 1813.

TO JAMES DUNLAP, Esq., Inspector of First Brigade, Fourteenth Division:

SIR: The letter signed by you and Mr. Huston of 21st ult., was received by the Governor a few days since, relative to the collection of fines imposed for non-performance of military duty. In answer to which I have to state that it appears from a letter, a copy of which is now before me, from John Smith, the Marshal of the Pennsylvania district, that he conceives it a duty devolved on him to collect militia fines, which have or may be assessed by courts-martial when called into the service of the United States, and directs the Adjutant General in all cases to report to him the names of the delinquents. The law of the United States, and of the State differ as to the mode of assessing those fines. The Governor directs me to write to the Marshal on the subject, which I have done; until an answer is received from him, the Governor thinks it inexpedient to give any specific instructions to you in the premises. You will please to communicate the purport of this letter to Mr. S. Huston.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. ADAMSON TANNEHILL.

HARRISBURG, March 13, 1813.

To Gen. ADAMSON TANNEHILL:

SIR: I should long since have acknowledged the receipt of the letter you did me the honor to write, under date of the —, but reserved my answer until I should have from you, or from the proper officer under your command, information more intimately connected with the service than your letter imports, and involving much the pecuniary interest of the State of Pennsylvania. Disappointed in that expectation and conceiving it my duty so to do, I do now ask for information relative to the arms in possession of the troops under your command, the property of the State. How many of those arms remained at Buffalo, in the State of New York, whether they were deposited in any United States arsenal, and by an officer of that government receipted for? So that in the event of a settlement of accounts between this State and the United States, and, in a general point of view, I should be glad to learn whether there have come to your knowledge any expenses incurred by this State that ought, of right, be borne by the Union.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CASPER SNYDER.

HARRISBURG, May 15, 1813.

To CASPER SNYDER, Esq., of Delaware:

SIR: This day, by order of the Governor, three hundred and fifty stand of arms and three hundred cartouch-boxes have been forwarded to Chester, for the use of your brigade, or those generally belonging to the Third division of Pennsylvania militia, when called into actual service. Should the muskets be delivered to the men going into service, you will be careful to take accountable receipts from the proper officer who commands them. Presuming that you would not be at Chester when the wagoner would arrive there, he has been directed to deliver them to Mr. Engle, the Prothonotary of your county, who is requested to take charge of them until you arrive there. If you and the general officers of the division think more arms are necessary, they can be had at this place, by sending a team for them. It is with great difficulty, and after three or four days' search, we have been able to procure a single wagon. We pay $1 25 per cwt. Should you send for more muskets and boxes, a reasonable expense will be paid by the government at this place. It is to be understood that the muskets and cartouch-boxes are not the subject of distribution under any law of the State. The crisis appearing to demand it, the Governor has taken upon himself the responsibility of furnishing you with those means of defence. To your sound discretion he commits that public property.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOSEPH ENGLE.

HARRISBURG, May 15, 1813.

TO JOSEPH ENGLE, Esq.:

SIR: This day, by direction of the Governor, three hundred and fifty stand of arms and three hundred cartouch-boxes were sent, by a wagon, to be delivered at Chester county, of Delaware. As the Brigade Inspector lives some distance from Chester, it was thought advisable to send the muskets, &c., to your care. You will please to take charge of them until the Brigade Inspector arrives at Chester. The wagoner will want a receipt from you for the safe delivery of the articles, as a voucher for him to get compensation for his services. I have written to the Brigade Inspector, informing him that the muskets and cartouch-boxes are forwarded to your care.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S.—After loading the three hundred and fifty muskets, it was found the wagon would not contain more than three hundred boxes. It was thought the deficit of boxes would not be so material as that of muskets.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN BINNS.

HARRISBURG, May 19, 1813.

To Mr. JOHN BINNS:

DEAR SIR: I herewith enclose bond to be executed by Messrs. Worrell and Forsyth, with their sureties. There is a blank for their names, also some blanks for dates, which you will have filled. You will also, before the bond is executed, attach it to the plan description in your possession, so that the subscribing witnesses can attest that it was so attached at the time of signing. After the bond is executed, you will please to forward it, with the papers attached, to this office, giving the undertakers an opportunity of first taking a copy thereof. The following you will have endorsed on the paper containing a particular description of the arsenal, and have the undertakers' signatures thereto, viz: "We, the subscribers, do agree to erect a State arsenal on the lot on which the old one now stands, in conformity to the foregoing description and plan, for the sum of fourteen thousand two hundred and four dollars, and to take the materials contained in the old arsenal, at the rate of three hundred dollars, in part of the aforesaid sum of fourteen thousand two hundred and four, and to complete the said arsenal, with all things thereunto pertaining, within six months from the date thereof."

Witness our hands this . . day of . . . . . , A. D. 1813.

Witness present at signing.

The law requires the Governor to take security for the faithfull performance of the contract. None have been named by Messrs. Worrell & Forsyth. It is presumed, however, that they will offer such only as the Governor would approve.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SAMUEL SNYDER TO GEN. DAVID MEAD.

HARRISBURG, May 18, 1813.

To Gen. DAVID MEAD:

SIR: That you have, under the act of Assembly authorizing you so to do, ordered on service two companies of the militia of your division, for the protection of the lake shore, the town of Erie, and the public property there, until the arrival of the troops under the command of Col. Reese Hill, shall have rendered unnecessary the longer service of those companies, has my full and entire approbation. Not so the men designated for the service, who, at a time of imminent danger refused obedience to your orders. I cannot in idea perceive the circumstances that would warrant such palpable insubordination. If connived at, it will prove destructive to the service, and as shamefully disreputable to the militia of Pennsylvania, as did the conduct of some volunteers at Buffalo, in the State of New York. I have no directions to give. The law directs the course to be pursued in this case. I trust its provisions applied to those outrageously refractory men will be an example such as shall deter from similar acts of open hostility to the lawful and regular orders of the Government.

I am, with much respect,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. R. WHARTON.

HARRISBURG, May 21, 1813.

To Gen. R. WHARTON, Philadelphia:

SIR: I received yours of the 17th instant yesterday. Some expressions in it prompted me to review what I have written to you under date of the 8th, in which I can discover no insinuations impeaching your respectability, and I am conscious none were intended. But the respectability of your informant, and the purity and disinterestedness of his motives has been strongly impeached, not only by letters before me at the time I wrote, but by a considerable number received since from men whose character and respectability would not suffer by a comparison with Col. Hargesheimer's, or perhaps any man's in the city, and by men, too, who live in the immediate neighborhood of the magazine, who, no doubt, feel as much solicitude for their own personal safety as he does. You stated in your former letter that you had "requested him to get their (those who he said were much alarmed) declarations in writing, which he promised to do, but has not yet performed." Hence may it not be inferred that his alarms are feigned, or the effects of a disordered imagination.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO FREDERICK FOERING.

HARRISBURG, May 22, 1813.

To FREDERICK FOERING, Deputy Quarter-master General:

SIR: Yours of the 19th I received yesterday, not being instructed to answer you in every particular, I have forwarded your letter to the Governor, now at Selinsgrove. Immediately on receiving his directions, I shall write you again. In the meantime I can answer you in part. When the articles you contracted for are furnished, and the repairs of arms, tents, &c., are done, you will forward to me the several accounts certifying that you had received the articles specified, that you had employed such persons to do such repairs, and the charges reasonable, on each of their accounts an order for me to receive for them the amount from the State Treasurer. I will then inclose to you a check sufficient to cover the whole expense, to enable you to discharge them. The tents which you were instructed to get repaired and to purchase, and the other munitions of war were designed to supply such of the militia as were called into the State service, and not those called in the service of the United States. unless in such cases where they could not get a supply from the United States stores.

With regard to those who have furnished themselves with equipments, I have to remark, that it was manifestly the intention of the law, that the arms and accouterments purchased by individuals was not merely for parade, but to be used when called in actual service. If, however, lost in such service, without the fault of the owners, it would be a just and equitable item of account against this State or the United States, and no doubt allowed. The law provides expressly for the payment of horses belonging to cavalry, if lost in the service, and I do not perceive any reason to discriminate between the loss of a horse and a cartouch-box. The worth of the two articles certainly differ, but perhaps not more than the loosers, as it might regard their abilities to bear it.

Very respectfully, sir,

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. WILLIAM DUANE.

HARRISBURG, May 28, 1813.

To Col. WILLIAM DUANE:

SIR: The boxes containing the hand-books for Infantry and Riflemen have been received. I informed the gentleman who spoke to me on the subject of inserting the plates that were left out that the person whom he might employ to insert them could have access to the books at any time, for that purpose. He has not yet done it, nor do I know the person employed.

The same act directing the purchase of two thousand copies for the use of the Infantry, also designates what officers shall be supplied with them. On examination, we find there will be a deficit of about sixty. I have, therefore, to request that you would send the number by the first conveyance. Your account for which, together with that for those already furnished, will be paid whenever exhibited to the accountant department by any person you authorize to receive the same.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. WILLIAM DUANE.

HARRISBURG, May 29, 1813.

To Col. WILLIAM DUANE:

SIR: I send you enclosed a check for $2,362 50, for which I have given the State Treasurer my receipt; for that amount the entry is made in the Treasury books. On the receipt of the enclosed check, you will please to send me another receipt, corresponding in date and amount with the check. I will then return to you the former receipt; in the meantime it must remain in the hands of the Treasurer. The foregoing circumstances arise out of a mistake on my part or yours. The law authorizes the purchase of not more than one hundred hand-books for riflemen, the surplus I must return to you. Please to turn to my letter and see if the mistake was mine. If so, the books will be returned at my expense. On counting the books carefully, it appears that we have received one hundred and ninety-nine copies of the hand-book for riflemen. Perhaps one copy may have been put among those for infantry. We will examine and count them as we have leisure.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO ROBERT WILLIAMS.

HARRISBURG, July 14, 1813.

TO ROBERT WILLIAMS, Esq., Adjutant General of the Militia of the State of North Carolina, at Raleigh:

SIR: Your letter of the 30th ult., addressed to the Adjutant General of the Militia of Pennsylvania, came to hand yesterday. That office has recently become vacant by the death of General Reed, who held it about three years. The vacancy not being filled, I undertake to answer your letter by sending you, herewith enclosed, an extract from our militia law of 1807, now in operation, and a copy of a supplement thereto, passed in the last session of our General Assembly, fixing the salary and emoluments of the Adjutant General, and prescribing his duties. This information, I hope, will answer fully the object you have in view.

I am, respectfully, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. JOHN PHILLIPS.

SELINS GROVE, July 8, 1813.

To Col. JOHN PHILLIPS:

SIR: The letter you did me the honor to write, under date of the 15th June last, I received on the 6th instant at this place, via Harrisburg. That no provision has been made for paying the Pennsylvania militia, now in service of the Union at Erie, is matter of much surprise to me, and I have to regret that the remissness of those whose duty it certainly was to make an arrangement so essential to the service, cannot be remedied by any constituted State authority. It is not competent under any existing law for the executive to advance money out of the Commonwealth's treasury to pay troops in the United States service. The several laws of last session relative to military subjects, have no prospective provision. Legislative bounty is extended to those of our militia then in service under Gen. Harrison, consisting of drafts and volunteer companies who had made a tender of their services to the President.

On another point made in your letter, I must remark that it cannot have been the intention of the Legislature that the executive should notify of the State donation the individual commandants of the latter description of troops, because they are not officially known to the executive department of the State. Gen. Harrison was furnished with official copies of the laws passed for the relief and benefit of the Pennsylvania troops of both descriptions under his command, for the purpose of promulgation—so was Gen. Crooks. On the latter it was specially enjoined to procure pay-rolls, as well of those men that served six months as of those that served for an additional period of time. Notwithstanding this injunction and the solicitude of the government to have those documents which he must have inferred from the circumstances of duplicates being forwarded to him, yet, from Gen. Crooks, there was not received any acknowledgement of the receipt by him of these communications at the time I left Harrisburg.

Please to communicate to Col. Rees Hill and Quarter-master General Wilson Smith, (who have both written to me on the same subject with yourself,) the contents of this letter, and assure them both of my sincere regard, confidence, and esteem, and for yourself accept similar assurances.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. C. J. HUTTER.

HARRISBURG, July 23, 1813.

To Col. C. J. HUTTER, Easton :

SIR : To your letter to the Governor, of the 10th inst., I am instructed to give you the following answer : The arms manufactured by Mr. Henry have been, by direction of the Governor, removed to this place ; and a number sufficient to supply the infantry company you mention will be delivered here, to any agent that the officers of the company may authorize to receive them, upon condition that the said officers give bond for their re-delivery, whenever called for by the proper authority, in as good repair as when they received them.

The agent may make his own selection out of the muskets that are here, of which there are more than sufficient that are in good repair, except that they may need a little cleaning and oiling. With respect to repairing those fifty stand you mention, if there are not regimental funds adequate to the expense of repairing them, they must remain as they are until further orders from the Governor. Should the officers think proper to apply for arms under the above conditions, it is proper to state that a musket is estimated at eleven dollars. The penalty in the bond double the amount. The bond, therefore, if sent, will be drawn agreeably to the above estimate.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN SMITH.

HARRISBURG, July 24, 1813.

To JOHN SMITH, Esq., Marshal, Pennsylvania district:

SIR: By direction of the Governor, I wrote to you on the 11th of May last, respecting the collection of fines imposed on delinquents, for non-performance of their tour of militia duty.

I presume your great press of business has prevented you from answering my letter. As I have frequently been applied to by Brigade Inspectors for instructions with regard to collecting those fines, and declined answering their enquiries until I heard from you, will you permit me to request your attention to the subject, and write as early as time and opportunity will permit.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO FREDERICK FOERING.

HARRISBURG, July 26, 1813.

TO FREDERICK FOERING, Esq., Deputy Quarter-master General:

SIR: Having been absent from the seat of government, I did not get yours of the 2d inst., until Friday last. You will accept this as an apology for my not acknowledging the receipt of your letter earlier. I now enclose you a check in favor of Mr. Calderwood for $49 12, and one in favor of Lewis Ghriskey, or bearer, for $95 09. As you have advanced him the money, you can draw the money on his check. For this last check I was obliged to give my own responsible receipt, as I had no order from Ghriskey to draw the money. You will, therefore, please to get his receipt, a form of which I will subjoin.

The account of Calderwood for storing arms, is suspended until he forwards a certificate from Clement Biddle, stating the times when the arms were delivered to him. He will also send me an order to receive the amount. In answer to your last inquiry, I state that those persons whom you may have employed to repair arms will please to forward their accounts, with an order for me to receive from the State Treasurer the amount of their bills. Those from whom you may purchase articles for the use of the State, or who have been employed to make or repair tents, will forward their accounts to me, and if they have sufficient confidence in me, may at the same time send me a receipt for the amount of their bill, a copy of which receipts, I will also subjoin, or they may furnish me with their bills in the first instance, and I will send the amount to you, you taking their receipts at the time of payment.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, August 2, 1813.

To WILSON SMITH, Quarter-master General:

SIR: Yours of the 13th ult. I recently received. I regret that I cannot send you the money you wanted immediately, to enable you to defray certain expenses that have been incurred. Gen. Mead informed the Governor that he had made a call on the militia to march for the defence of Erie, until Col. Hill's detachment should arrive, and that they had refused to obey his orders. It would, however, appear, from your letter, that, subsequently, a number did march to Erie for its defence. It will be necessary for Gen. Mead to inform the Governor what number of men did march by his order, and how long they served. It will also be necessary to forward muster and pay-rolls. These you can obtain from the officer who commanded the detachment, if you have them not already in your possession. When these documents are furnished, arrangements will be made, with the least possible delay, to discharge the expenses incurred.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO P. FARRELLY.

HARRISBURG, August 7, 1813.

To P. FARRELLY:

SIR: Your letter to the Governor, containing a statement of your proceedings, relative to the public property at Erie, I forwarded to the Governor. In answer to your letter, I give you the following extract from his letter to me: "Mr. Farrelly I think has pursued a correct course. As he has given notice to the Attorney General of what is done, and asked his opinion, it will be useless to say more to him in answer than to commend his vigilance, &c. Please to do this for me."

I received a communication from Gen. Mead to the Governor, a few days since, with regard to the call of the militia for the defence of Erie. I immediately forwarded the papers to the Governor, and expect daily to see him here, and to receive instructions from him relative to the subject, which will be promptly attended to.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM CLARK.

HARRISBURG, August 10, 1813.

To WILLIAM CLARK, Esq., Brigade Inspector:

SIR: I herewith enclose you a check on the Branch Bank of Pennsylvania at Pittsburgh, for $700, which sum you are instructed to appropriate in defraying of the expenses incurred by the marching of the militia to Erie for the defence of that place, under orders of Gen. Mead. The expenses that have and may occur, after their arrival at that place, will be paid by Wilson Smith, Quarter-master General, who will be furnished with the means for that purpose. I have sub-joined a copy of a receipt, which you will please forward to me immediately after you shall have received the check.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

Received August —, 1813, of N. B. Boileau, Secretary of the Commonwealth, a check on the Branch Bank of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburgh, for the sum of $700, for the purpose of supporting the militia, when called by Maj. Gen. Mead, on their march to Erie, for the defence of that place, which sum was drawn from the State Treasury for that purpose, by warrant from the Governor, under the authority of the supplement to the militia law, passed 29th March, 1813.

WILLIAM CLARK TO N. B. BOILEAU.

MEADVILLE, August 27, 1813.

N. B. BOILEAU, Secretary:

SIR: Yours of the 10th inst., inclosing a check on the Branch Bank of Pennsylvania, in Pittsburgh, for $700, came to my hand yesterday, a receipt for which is herewith inclosed. The number of troops which rendezvoused at Erie, in pursuance of the orders of Maj. Gen. Mead, as appears from proper muster-rolls, amounts to upwards of sixteen hundred, which will average six rations per man on their march to Erie, provided they are allowed for two days' rations before marching, and for which they demand payment of me. The law says pay two days before marching; but is silent as to rations. Sixteen hundred men under rations for six days will amount to nine thousand six hundred rations, which, at seventeen cents per ration, the lowest a ration could be procured for, beside the trouble of issuing, amounts to $1,360, to this must be added bills for ferriage, fuel for troops, &c., on their march to Erie. From this statement you will see the additional sum necessary. The United States Contractor furnished many of the troops with back rations due them on their march, which, from the manner of their march, was impracticable for me to furnish. For these rations I have to pay seventeen cents per ration. All money furnished me for these expenses shall be duly accounted for as soon as I am enabled to lift the proper vouchers.

I am, most respectfully, your obedient,

WILLIAM CLARK,

Brigade Inspector, First brigade, Sixteenth division, Penn. militia.

(Copy.)

DAVID MEAD TO WILLIAM FOSTER.

ERIE, 27 July, 1813.

WILLIAM FOSTER, Contractors' Agent:

You will continue, until otherwise directed, to issue rations to the First brigade, Sixteenth division, Pennsylvania militia, called out to protect the frontier of the State from a threatened invasion of the enemy, for which you shall be allowed seventeen cents per ration for what you have heretofore and may hereafter issue.

DAVID MEAD,
Major General.

In pursuance of the above authority, I have issued to the First brigade, Sixteenth division, Pennsylvania, twenty-six thousand four hundred and seventy-eight complete rations, and thirteen hundred and sixty-three rations of whiskey, and twenty rations of beef extra, which have been sanctioned by the Major General, by his signing the abstracts.

WILLIAM FOSTER,
Contractors' Agent.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JARED INGERSOLL.

HARRISBURG, September 17, 1813.

TO JARED INGERSOLL, Esq., Attorney General:

SIR: In consequence of the seeming collision, at least between the laws of this Commonwealth and those of the United States, on the subject of collecting fines incurred for non-performance of tours of militia duty, considerable difficulties have occurred whether the Marshal or the Brigade Inspectors ought to collect them, and, of course, whether this money shall go into the Treasury of this State or that of the United States. Shall I ask the favor of you to examine the subject and give me your opinion in order to enable me to give specific instructions to the several Brigade Inspectors who have applied to me for that purpose. I will be much obliged to your early attention to the subject.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. WILLIAM McCORMICK.

HARRISBURG, September 18, 1813.

To Col. WILLIAM McCORMICK, Fayette county:

SIR: The petition to the Governor signed by you and a number of the officers of the One Hundred and Eighth regiment, has been received.

In consequence of a collision between the laws of this State and those of the United States, relative to the collection of fines for non-performance of tours of militia duty, considerable embarrassments have arisen. The Marshal of the United States, for the Pennsylvania district, conceived it to be his duty to collect those fines. He has, however, submitted the question to Mr. Dallas, the district Attorney General of the United States, for his opinion, and promised to furnish a copy of it when obtained. I have also asked the Attorney General, Mr. Ingersoll, for his opinion on the same subject. When those opinions are received, I shall lay them before the Governor, and then, without delay, give such instructions to the proper Brigade Inspectors as the Governor may direct. The Governor is equally aware, with yourselves, of the evils that would result if delinquents were permitted to escape with impunity. You will please to communicate the contents of this letter to the gentlemen who signed the petition.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. JOHN BINNS.

HARRISBURG, September 20, 1813.

To Col. JOHN BINNS:

SIR: By a resolution of the Legislature at their last session, the Governor was directed to present to Commodore Decatur and Lieutenant Biddle, each, a sword, for the distinguished gallantry and skill in their engagements with the enemy. The Governor informs me that he entrusted to you the business of procuring their swords, and now instructs me to write to you, requesting you to have them completed as early as practicable, and to give him information thereof.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM CLARK.

HARRISBURG, September 20, 1813.

To WILLIAM CLARK, Esq., Inspector of the First brigade, Sixteenth division, Pennsylvania militia:

SIR: Yours of the 27th ult., has been received. I now enclose to you a check, payable at the Branch Bank of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburgh, for eight hundred dollars, which sum you are to appropriate exclusively to defray the expenses incurred in furnishing the militia, on their march to Erie, with sustenance, under the call of General Meade. Their expenses while there and returning home are to be paid through another channel. Although they are allowed pay for two days previously to their marching, no rations are allowed. You will understand, also, that the call made by Colonel Wallace, not being authorized by law, any expenses incurred under that call cannot be paid without a special act for that purpose.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, September 20, 1813.

To WILSON SMITH, Esq., Quarter-Master General:

SIR: Yours of the 31st ult., has been received. You will proceed to pay, as far as you have money in your hands, for the rations furnished by the contractor to the militia called out by General Meade, while they were at Erie, at the rate agreed on, say seventeen cents per ration. You will ascertain whether or not the rations furnished were complete. Those men who were called out by Colonel Wallace, and who were included in the call of General Meade, and who were supplied with rations after the call of General Meade, their rations, for that time, you are authorized to allow; but as Colonel Wallace's call was not authorized by law, any expenses incurred under Colonel Wallace's call only cannot be paid without a special act of the Legislature for that purpose.

It has been intimated by Major Clark that the men claim two days' rations prior to the day of marching, this cannot be allowed. This, however, is a matter between Mr. Clark, themselves, and the accounting officers, in which you have no direct concern.

With regard to the rations for the men on their return home, for which Mr. Forster commuted, and gave them fourteen cents, I have to observe that you are authorized to refund him the money which he paid, with interest, if he demands it. It must be presumed it was patriotism that induced Mr. Forster to advance the money, and not any desire to speculation. It cannot be supposed that he intended to charge the Commonwealth seventeen cents for rations which actually cost him but fourteen cents. If he does insist on such charge, I doubt the allowance of the accounting officers. As soon as you have ascertained, as near as may be, the additional sum necessary for you to settle the accounts, and give me information, the necessary arrangements will be made for that purpose.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO WILLIAM DUNCAN.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, October 5, 1813.

To WILLIAM DUNCAN, Esq., Adjutant General, Pennsylvania Militia:

DEAR SIR: Your letter of the 25th ult., covering a bond in five thousand dollars, with John Shinn, Jr., and Amos Addis, as sureties, for your faithful discharge of the duties of the office of Adjutant General of the Militia of this State, has been received, but has not yet been submitted for the Governor's approbation, he being at present at Selinsgrove. Immediately on his return I will hand it to him, and have no doubt of his approving of it, as it appears to me to be sufficiently formal.

I have to intimate to you the Governor's wish, that you would, as soon as you conveniently can, repair to General Reed's late residence, at Millerstown, in Adams county, or at Greensburg, in Westmoreland county, and procure any papers that may be found belonging to the Adjutant General's Department. John Reed, Esq., attorney-at-law, residing at the latter place, can give information respecting the papers of the said department, as the settlement of his late father's affairs devolves on him. Upon your arrival here the reports and papers recently from Brigade Inspectors into this office, but appertaining to your office, will be delivered over to you, some of which may require immediate attention.

I am, respectfully,

Your friend and obedient servant,

JAMES TRIMBLE,

Deputy Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO JACOB SAYLOR.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, October 5, 1813.

TO JACOB SAYLOR, Brigadier General, First Brigade, Fourteenth Division:

SIR: Your letter of the 23d ult., has been received, and in the absence of Mr. Boileau, I am directed to inform you that the Governor would, with much pleasure, order commissions to be issued to the officers of so patriotic a company of volunteers as the one mentioned in your letter; but that it does not appear to what battalion and regiment of the brigade the company is attached, nor whether the officers and men are in complete uniform, &c., either according to the provisions of the third section of the original Militia law passed 9th April, 1807, or the second section of the supplemental law passed 26th March, 1808, all which should be certified by the Brigade Inspector, who is also required by law to make a return of the election of officers. The number of men associated, being fifty-six, appears to be sufficient, and whenever it is certified that the other requisites of the law are complied with, the commissions will will be issued without delay.

I am, sir, very respectfully,

Your friend and obedient servant,

JAMES TRIMBLE,

Deputy Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN REED.

HARRISBURG, October 19, 1813.

To JOHN REED, Esq., Greensburg:

SIR: At the instance of Mr. William Duncan, the present Adjutant General, I have to request you to forward to this office, all the books and papers belonging to the office of Adjutant General, left in your possession at the decease of your father, (whose death I most sincerely regret, both as a personal friend, and valuable citizen.) If you think proper to furnish me with a memorandum of the books and papers forwarded, I will, on comparing it with those received, and finding it correspond with those received, forward to you a receipt for the same from Mr. Duncan. You will enclose them in a box if they are voluminous, and direct it to me at this place. Send it by the stage, or such other conveyance as you may think proper, and I will defray the expense. Permit me to ask your early attention to the subject.

Very respectfully, &c.,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, October 29, 1813.

WILLIAM DUNCAN, Adjutant General of the Militia of Pennsylvania:

Whilst it affords the Commander-in-Chief high gratification to say to those of the militia of Pennsylvania who performed the service required in the field, against a malignant foe, deserve well of their country a respect for the military reputation of the militia commands, on the other hand a strict enforcement of the laws making penal a refusal to march, or punishing desertion. Under these impressions I do order that you immediately direct the several Brigade Inspectors from whose brigades as well volunteers as drafted militia were ordered for the service of the United States, agreeably to the several requisitions from those who administer that government under the several general orders by the Commander-in-Chief, dated respectively of May 12, 1812, August 25, 1812, September 5, 1812, and March 20, 1813, and of April 5, 1813, that they severally and respectively institute prosecutions against, as well those of the militia who were delinquent in not marching as against those who, after having marched, deserted the service. And that the respective presiding officers of courts-martial certify and report without delay the fines assessed and on whom, to the martial of the district of Pennsylvania. A reference by you to the laws of the United States prescribing the duty to be performed by those officers and by courts-martial, may very much facilitate inquiry, and result in an early termination of this important service.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. WILLIAM DUNCAN.

HARRISBURG, October 30, 1813.

To Gen. WILLIAM DUNCAN:

SIR: I send you enclosed a general order from the Governor, which you will have executed as promptly as practicable. They have been delayed in consequence of a difficulty arising as to the mode of procedure, whether the penalties incurred by delinquents should be collected under the State or United States. The Attorney General is of opinion they must be collected under those of the latter, in which the Governor concurs. I send you a list of the names of the Brigade Inspectors from whose brigade volunteers and drafts were ordered into service. It will perhaps be well for you to direct their attention to the fifth and sixth sections of the act of Congress passed 28th February, 1795, as the rule of proceedings. In adverting to subsequent acts of Congress, on the subject of militia, you find that no alternation has been made in the provisions contained in the said sections. The term of service, however, has been changed from three to six months, a circumstance, also, which the officers holding the court-martial should be apprised of. I have written to the son of the late General Reed, to forward to this office all the papers in his possession belonging to the Adjutant General's office. I have not yet received them. The Governor has returned to the seat of government, and will remain here for some months. I will inform you when I receive the papers from Mr. Reed.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S.—By examining the several general orders issued by the Governor, which I presume you have, you will perceive from what brigades the draft or volunteers were ordered into service. It will perhaps be advisable for you to remind the Brigade Inspectors, that those who were delinquent among those called into the service of the United States, are to be tried by court-martial, agreeably to the laws of the United States, and that those called into the service of this State only, are to be proceeded against under the State laws. I conceive that those volunteers who so shamefully deserted and threw down their arms at Black Rock ought in a particular manner to be brought before court-martial.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM FOSTER.

To MR. WILLIAM FOSTER:

SIR: Yours of the 7th inst., has been received, in answer to which I have to state that previously to my writing to the Quarter-master General the letter to which you allude, I consulted the accounting officers, whose province it is to settle all public accounts. From the result of that consultation arose the doubts I expressed of their willingness to allow certain items of charge mentioned in my letter. Your letter of the 7th I also submitted to them. On consideration, they appear to wave objections to that part of the account relative to commutation with the men for rations on their march home. I would here remark that the conduct of Maj. Clark on a similar occasion, was unknown to this or the accountant department, until communicated by you, and the accountant officers may still think proper to revive the settlement, with regard to furnishing rations to the militia called by Col. Wallace, prior to the order of Gen. Mead. They are unanimously of the opinion those accounts are inadmissible, although sanctioned by Gen. Mead, inasmuch as he had no legal authority to sanction an illegal assumption of power, by an inferior officer. I presume, therefore, those accounts must be submitted to the Legislature, which, on consideration of the circumstance of the case, will probably direct their adjustment. You can lay the whole case before them without the necessity of your personal attendance. The mode, however, of your application must rest in your own discretion.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO JAMES WILSON.

HARRISBURG, November 2, 1813.

To JAMES WILSON, Esq., of Millerstown, Adams county:

SIR: John Reed, Esq., of Greensburgh, son of the late Adjutant General Reed, by a letter dated the 26th ult., informs Mr. Boileau, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, that the books and papers belonging to the office of the Adjutant General, remain in your custody, and that you have been desired to deliver them over to the order of whoever might be appointed to that office. Gen. William Duncan, of Philadelphia, has been lately appointed and commissioned Adjutant General, and is expected to be here in a short time. Mr. Boileau having gone this morning to Lancaster, I am directed by the Governor to request that you will be pleased, with as little delay as possible, to forward them in a box or trunk directed to me at this place, and I will defray the expense. Send them by stage or such other safe conveyance as you may think proper. As soon as they arrive, the receipt of them shall be acknowledged.

I am, respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO GEN. WILLIAM DUNCAN.

HARRISBURG, November 8, 1813.

To Gen. WILLIAM DUNCAN, Philadelphia:

DEAR SIR: I acknowledge the receipt of your letter to Mr. Boileau, of the 4th instant, and now subjoin an abstract from our books, showing you the dates of the Governor's general orders for calling out the militia of this State, under the requisition of the President of the United States, and the brigades and divisions from which the militia was drawn, with the period of service. I am directed by the Governor to inform you that two requisitions were made to him, one by the Secretary at War, the other by General Dearborn, both dated the same day, to wit: the 13th day of August, 1812, and both requiring the detaching, for the service of the United States, of two thousand men, to rendezvous somewhere in the western part of the State, and to march to Buffalo, in the State of New York. The former making the requisition under the act of 1812, and the latter under the act of 1795. In neither of the requisitions was there a reference to the other, it was hence conjectured that one detachment only was desired; under this impression the Governor ordered the volunteers into service, who elected, at Meadville, General Tannehill. The Governor wrote to both the Secretary at War and General Dearborn for an explanation of the apparent enigma, particularly requesting to be informed as respected the term of service, the law of 1795 requiring a tour of three months, and that of 1812 a tour of six months. From General Dearborn no answer was obtained: the Secretary at War did write, on the 1st of September, but not one word in explanation, he merely said that he found it necessary so far to vary the orders issued by him on the 13th of August, as that the brigade ordered by him into service, should join General Harrison's army, then assembling in the State of Ohio. The fact that General Tannehill procured, for himself and his staff, a furlough, for a term extending to the day on which a six months' tour ended, it would seem as proof that the requisition in both cases was for a term of six months.

JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. JOHN PHILLIPS.

HARRISBURG, November 12, 1813.

To Col. JOHN PHILLIPS:

SIR: Upon being certified that the detachment of the militia ordered into service by Maj. Gen. Mead, for the protection of the United States flotilla, then in the harbor of Erie, was discharged, I should immediately have appointed a paymaster for that detachment, but wanting data where from an estimate of the sum requisite could be made, and having a wish, also, to know how much of the money already placed to your credit at the Branch Bank at Pittsburgh, for the payment of other troops after payment, might remain in your hands. I delayed the appointment for the obvious reason of not founding a draft or public moneys on a contingency. Your letter of the 12th October, informing that ten or eleven thousand dollars would probably remain in your hands. If it had been accompanied by muster and pay-rolls of Gen. Mead's detachment, would have removed all difficulty. These documents I anxiously looked for from day to day, presuming the obvious necessity of them would induce Gen. Mead to have them forwarded. I relied with the more certainty on their receipt, under a belief that the purport as well of your letter of the 12th October, as that the letter itself grew out of an intimation from the Executive. To prevent a longer delay and consequent dissatisfaction on the part of the troops who particularly yielded obedience to the orders of Gen. Mead, under circumstances of extreme hardship, I am induced to inclose a commission constituting you paymaster of that detachment. For this service you will proceed to expend the money that may remain in your hands, having first procured the necessary muster and pay-rolls. But it is to be distinctly understood that you discriminate between those troops who were ordered into service by Col. Wallace, and those subsequently ordered by Gen. Mead, confining your official duty to the latter only. Such further sum of money as shall be equal to a payment in full of the detachment shall be forwarded so soon as the requisite data to form an estimate shall have been forwarded.

Very respectfully your friend,

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM McCLELLAND.

HARRISBURG, December 2, 1813.

To WILLIAM MCCLELLAND, Esq.:

SIR: Your letter to Mr. Findlay, under date of 27th November, is now before me. The difficulties which occurred respecting the collection of militia fines early occurred to the Governor. He wrote to a member of Congress on the subject, at Washington, during the last winter session, who had a conversation on the business with the President; the result of which, however, was by no means satisfactory. Some time in the month of April last, the Governor was furnished with a copy of a letter from the Marshal of the district, written to the Adjutant General, in which he states that he conceived it to be his duty to collect the fines imposed on delinquents, and directs that the result of Courts-Martial, held for the punishment of delinquents, should be reported to him or his deputies. On the 11th of May, I wrote, by the Governor's direction, to the Marshal for the purpose of having an understanding on the subject. In answer to which the Marshal stated that he had submitted the case to the District Attorney, Mr. Dallas, and that he would furnish a copy of his opinion when received. In the meantime, I, by direction of the Governor, wrote to Mr. Ingersoll, the Attorney General, on the same subject. A copy of the opinion of Mr. Dallas, and the opinion of Mr. Ingersoll, were not received until October, although I had a second time written to the Marshal, pressing him on the subject. The Governor, having examined those opinions, and examined the laws of Congress, thought proper to issue general orders to the Adjutant General, a copy of which you have seen. It appears to the Governor that, inasmuch as the officer of the United States is to collect the fines, under the laws of the United States, if any difficulty arises under those laws, the officer of the United States should explain them. I have written to the Marshal on the subject, submitted your queries to him, and requested him to write to you on the business. I subjoin an extract from the opinion of Mr. Dallas: "As there seems, however, to have been some misunderstanding of the law, and certain militia fines, certified to the State officers, have been collected under the State laws, I advise the Marshal to to consider those officers as acting in the capacity of his deputies in past cases; and to enter into such arrangement with, as shall enable him to receive and pay the money collected into the treasury, as the law directs." I also gave the Marshal a similar extract of Mr. Dallas' opinion.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN SMITH.

HARRISBURG, December 2, 1813.

TO JOHN SMITH, Esq., Marshal Philadelphia District:

SIR: The apparent collision between the United States and the State laws, their ambiguity or want of precision, occasion great embarrassment in the collecting of the fines imposed on delinquent militia men. It would appear to me that inasmuch as these fines are to be collected by an officer of the United States, it has province to direct the mode of procedure in levying them. I subjoined some queries sent to me by Mr. William McClelland, Brigade Inspector in Franklin county, for your solution, with a request that you would give him information as early as possible. As other Brigade Inspectors, no doubt feel equal difficulties, would it not be well to point out to each of them the proper mode of procedure. A list of those from whose brigades, militia have been called into service, I also send you. It appears from Mr. McClelland's letter that a part of the fines have been collected in his brigade, and one man imprisoned. It is likely that in other brigades, similar events have occurred. As a part of Mr. Dallas's opinion seems to apply to the above cases, I send you a copy of that part, lest you might perhaps not have preserved a copy of it. As there seems, however, to have been some misunderstanding of the law, and certain militia fines, certified to the State officers, have been collected under the State laws, I advise the Marshal to consider those officers as acting in the capacity of his deputies, in past cases, and to enter into such arrangement with, as shall enable him to receive and to pay the money collected into the treasury, as the law directs. I have only to add a request that you would pay an early attention to the subject, to prevent further difficulties in addition to those which arose from the long delay of Mr. Dallas's opinion.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, January 10, 1814.

To Hon. JOHN ARMSTRONG, Secretary of War:

SIR: I received, by express, from Major General Meade, commanding a division of Pennsylvania militia in the western part of this State, a communication containing intelligence of a nature warranting that officer, under a special provision of an act of the Legislature, to order into service a portion of the militia of his command, for the protection of the lake frontier, and the vessels of war and other public property at Erie, against a threatened invasion by the enemy. I hasten to lay before the Executive of the Union copies of the papers upon which that officer has predicated the act he has done, together with an extract of his letter. As these documents fully express the feeling and impressions of the people in that exposed country, I deem it but necessary to express my wish that such measures may be adopted by the United States government as, added to efforts then making under the State authority, will attain the all-important service which the exigency of the country demand. I beg leave to suggest the necessity of a requisition for another portion of this State's quota of militia, as the most efficient, because, under the special provision above alluded to, the troops can be held in service only thirty days. That period may be extended by the Executive another month, but it is extremely desirable that this extension of service should be avoided, as the troops now ordered on service by General Mead have been subject to many privations, hardships, and distresses, because of the almost unremitted service which very many of them have rendered during the last eighteen months. Most of the counties west of the Susquehanna, with the exception of Cumberland, York, and Adams, have furnished the allotment of the quota required of this State. To apportion as equally as possible among the people the burden of the war, and to prevent murmurings, it will be necessary that these harassed troops be relieved as soon as possible by militia who have hitherto been excused by reason of their great distance from the seat of war. The time required to march troops from the eastern counties precludes the hope of efficient service by a two months' tour, hence the expediency of a requisition for a six months' tour. If our hopes on this subject be realized, it will be desirable to know, whether at Pittsburgh, Carlisle, or elsewhere, the United States have a deposit of arms, camp equipage, blankets, and munitions of war, with which such a detachment of militia could be furnished. In anticipation of the suggested requisition, I may probably order the volunteers and drafted militia of some counties near this place to be held in readiness to march at a short warning. Permit me to ask an early answer to this communication, and to add assurances of consideration and esteem.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. DAVID MEAD.

HARRISBURG, January 10, 1814.

To Maj. Gen. DAVID MEAD:

SIR: The act you have done in calling forth, for the defence of Erie, a portion of your division, growing as it appears, out of the exigencies of the lake frontier, is, it is presumed, the result of a discretion, the exercise of which is vested in you by a special act of the Legislature. The privations, hardships, and distresses consequent upon an almost unremitted service in the field, by a large portion of the militia composing the First brigade of your division, would seem to dictate a dismissal of them as early as the safety of the country will permit. The arrival at Erie of the detachment ordered into service from the Second brigade of your division, ought (circumstances permitting,) to be the limit for the service of the first brigade. Measures will be taken for the pay and subsistence of the troops, and so soon as an answer is obtained from the Secretary at War, of whom I have requested the interposition of the United States government for the relief of the lake frontier, troops will be ordered to relieve those you may retain in service, either under a requisition of the United states, which I have suggested to the Secretary at War, or, if that government should decline complying with my request, under State authority. If the danger should not have ceased on this point, I solicit information as frequently as private opportunities and the mail offer, or by express, if circumstances require dispatch. On the subject of retaining in service beyond thirty days, the detachment or any portion of it which you ordered from the Second brigade, you will be advised as soon as I shall have learned the determination of the President upon my communication.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. D. MEAD.

HARRISBURG, January 18, 1814.

To Gen. D. MEAD:

SIR: Yours of the 8th instant was received last evening. In order that we may understand each other, it may be proper to quote a part of yours of 25th November last, as perhaps you may not have a copy. "At the time our fleet was ready to sail, the commodore informed me he was very deficient in men, but wished to make a cruise to Long Point, and requested me to use my influence to get him some men to assist in working the guns, and to be used as shooters or marines. In order to do this, I promised that every man who would volunteer for a cruise should be paid for his services as a militia man on his return. The necessary number, about one hundred men volunteered, and I borrowed $500 to pay them on their return, which was accordingly done." My understanding of this part of your letter, which was that also of Mr. Bryan, was that the $500 was a bounty of five dollars to each for volunteering his services for the cruise. If not, I could perceive no inducement held out to the men, because had they staid on shore they would have been entitled to their common pay as militia men. And it appears by your last letter that those men were discharged at the same time that the other men were who were on service by your orders. Nor did I imagine that the $500 paid then included the whole of the time they were in the service of State. If this be the fact, the paymaster, Mr. Phillips, will not hesitate a moment in refunding the money to you on your exhibiting to him their receipt for their pay. The law required a paymaster to be appointed, which was done. He is the proper to whom application is to be made to refund the pay you have advanced. If he does not, please to inform me, and the matter will be presented to the consideration of the Legislature without delay.

Or the Governor will direct Mr. Phillips to do it; I conceive he has the power. Before I close this letter, permit me to notice some parts of a letter from you to the Governor, under date of the 2d instant, in which you state that I have written a letter not very respectfully to you. That you are hampered and calumniated by a private irresponsible influence. "If it be disrespectful or calumnious to state to Mr. Wallace, which I did in my letter to him, that his call of the militia, although sanctioned by you, was, in the opinion of the accountant officers, unauthorized by any existing law, then indeed, am I guilty of the charge. And the only apology I have to make is my total ignorance of the meaning of the terms 'disrespectful and calumny' with regard to private irresponsibility." Be assured I have no desire to shrink from responsibility either in my private or public capacity. And if you have been "hampered," it is in consequence of your having exercised a power which the accountant officers do not think was authorized by law, and, therefore, would not pay expenses that resulted from it.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN YOUNG.

HARRISBURG, January 24, 1814.

TO JOHN YOUNG, Esq., Inspector of the First Brigade, Eleventh Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: As the general order issued by the Governor, under date of 29th October last, appears not to be distinctly understood, by at least some of the Brigade Inspectors, to embrace those who were ordered to the defence of Erie, under the command of Colonel Rees Hill, I am instructed to state explicitly to you, that those who refuse to march, under the general orders of the Governor, dated 31st March, 1813, issued in pursuance of a requisition of the general government, dated the 20th of March, 1813, as well as those who deserted after marching, were, and are, intended to be embraced under the Governor's general orders, dated the 29th October, 1813, which direct delinquents to be proceeded against, agreeably to the laws of the United States.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

NOTE.—Similar letters were sent to the Inspectors of Second Brigade, Eleventh division, First and Second brigades, Twelfth division, and First and Second brigades, Thirteenth division.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN WILSON.

HARRISBURG, January 31, 1814.

To JOHN WILSON, Brigadier General:

SIR: Your letter to the Governor, of the 26th inst., representing to him the necessity of a guard over British prisoners, and some public property in Fort Fayette, has been made the subject of a communication to the Secretary at War. On the United States government the object of your letter properly devolves. The act you have done may be warranted by circumstances, and, I doubt not, will be recognized by that government, but it is equally unauthorized emanating from the Governor, as from yourself or General Tannehill. It is to be regretted that a communication was not, in the first instance, made to the Secretary at War, rather than to General Tannehill.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, January 31, 1814.

To JOHN ARMSTRONG, Esq., Secretary of War:

SIR: On Saturday last I received, by mail, the original letter of which the enclosed is a copy. From it you will perceive that Brigadier General John Wilson, of the First brigade, Fifteenth division of Pennsylvania militia, has on duty at Fort Fayette a small party of men from his brigade, to protect against injury the public property in the fort, as also to guard some British prisoners there. The act the General has done is not authorized by any law of the Legislature, but dictated, as it was, by the exposed condition of the property and prisoners. I trust his orders may be recognized, and arrangements made for a permanent guard. I am anxious to hear the determination of the President on my communication to you of the 10th instant.

With consideration of respect,
Your humble servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

P. S. Since writing the foregoing your answer to mine of the 10th has been received. Though under date of the 15th, it did not reach this place before this evening. Measures will immediately be taken to comply with the President's requisition.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO WILLIAM DUNCAN.

HARRISBURG, 31*st January*, 1814, 7 o'clock, P. M.

TO WILLIAM DUNCAN, Esq., Adjutant General Pennsylvania militia:

SIR: Agreeably to a requisition by the President, under date of the 15th inst., which did not arrive until this evening, it becomes my duty to order into the service of the Union one thousand militia, to rendezvous and station at Erie, and there to be stationed for the defence of that place, if not otherwise ordered. I have it in contemplation to order these troops from the interior of the State. You will have perceived that, by a supplement to the militia law, passed during the last session of the Legislature, it is made the duty of the Adjutant General to organize detachments of militia, designated for the United States service. Through him must also be executed any orders issued by the Commander-in-Chief. Hence your presence at this place becomes indispensable to discharge that duty. It will be necessary, before your departure for this place, (which you will hasten with all possible expedition,) that you learn from the Commissary General of Purchases at Philadelphia whether arms and other necessary equipments can be furnished at Carlisle or Pittsburgh. This arrangement is indispensable to guard against any deficit amongst the men. Tents and camp kettles (particularly the latter) will be essentially necessary, and a supply ought to be obtained at Carlisle, or, if not there, to be forwarded from Philadelphia by the Commissary General of Purchases.

Very respectfully,

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM McCLELLAND.

HARRISBURG, February 1, 1814.

To WILLIAM McCLELLAND, Esq., Inspector Second Brigade, Seventh Division:

SIR: By last evening's mail the Governor received a letter from the Secretary at War requiring a detachment of one thousand militia to march to the defence of Erie. He has it in contemplation to order them from the counties of Cumberland, York, Adams, and Franklin. The Governor directs me to give you this intimation in order that you may make arrangements to execute as promptly as possible the orders which will be sent to you in a few days.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

NOTE.—Similar letters were written to George Welsh, James Lamberton, and Arch^{d} S. Jordan.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. DAVID MEAD.

HARRISBURG, February 1, 1814.

To Gen. DAVID MEAD:

SIR: From my communication to the Secretary at War of the 10th of January last, has resulted a requisition from the President to me under date of the 15th ult., which, from some fatality, did not reach this place until yesterday evening, for one hundred militia to rendezvous at Erie, and to remain in service six months. This detachment will be marched with all possible dispatch from Cumberland and other adjoining counties; but as it cannot be ascertained that those troops will arrive at Erie before or at the time the term of service of the draft you ordered from the Second brigade of your division shall have expired, and as it may be necessary that a force adequate to the defence of the place be kept up. You will, therefore, retain in service, until the above mentioned detachment shall have arrived, the draft from the Second brigade; or, perhaps, a portion of it, with the troops there of the United States, will be adequate.

On this subject it will be proper to advise with Maj. Marlin, commanding those troops at Erie, who is instructed by the Secretary at War, in case of emergency, to call out such number of militia as may be necessary or expedient. For your satisfaction, I subjoin an extract from the Secretary's letter to me. Orders have been given to Maj. Marlin, of the Twenty-second regiment, United States Infantry, to march with such regular troops as were at Pittsburgh, and to take post at Erie. He was instructed, in case of emergency, to call out such number of the neighboring militia as might be necessary or expedient.

Very respectfully,

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM CLARK.

HARRISBURG, February 4, 1814.

To WILLIAM CLARK, Esq., Brigade Inspector:

SIR: I enclose to you a check on the Bank of Pennsylvania for $12,000, (which will be paid at Pittsburgh,) for the purpose of defraying the expense which may have accrued in marching the militia to Erie, under the orders of Gen. Mead, and for paying the men for their services.

You will take the earliest opportunity of executing and forwarding to this office a bond, with sureties, similar to the one already sent to you by Mr. Atkinson. The receipt of which, together with the check I sent you at the same time for $7,000, you have not yet acknowledged. Please to do it with as little delay as possible, as my receipt for the check has been given to the State Treasurer.

Very respectfully, sir,

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. DAVID MEAD.

HARRISBURG, February 4, 1814.

To Maj. Gen. DAVID MEAD:

SIR: It is a matter of regret that no mode for guarding against a sudden invasion of our lake frontier has yet been adopted less expensive to the State than the one pursued. Permit me to suggest a system to which, whilst danger is at so great a distance as is the enemy's force in the straits from Erie, would, in my apprehension of others, be equally efficacious, and save to the State an expense, to which, if calls en masse are continued, our ordinary resources will be altogether unequal.

Let us say one hundred and fifty or two hundred men be stationed at thirty or more miles in advance towards the straits, at a place calculated for creating the greatest possible quantity of obstruction to an invading army. Let a few active and enterprising individuals, mounted on good horses, be stationed in advance of the main body, at places where probably the enemy might attempt an eruption, with directions on the appearance of an enemy, or any movements by him indicating an attack, to convey intelligence thereof to the commanding officer. Let it be his duty in such case immediately to cause every obstruction that the face of the country affords, to be created by the tearing up of bridges, and the felling of timber trees across the roads, &c. This would retard an invading force, so that sufficient time would be had to bring out the neighboring militia, in numbers sufficient to repel any disposable force the enemy may have on the straits. Other avenues for the approach of an enemy (if there are any) might be guarded in a similar manner. Standing orders to the militia of your division, might be issued to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's warning.

This suggestion grows out of a wish, which I trust you feel equally strong with myself, to prevent a dissipation of public treasure in the pursuit of measures which appear to me of doubtful utility.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, February 7, 1814.

To N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

In compliance with a requisition by the President of the United States, I do order into the service of the Union, one thousand men, rank and file, of the Pennsylvania militia, and a competent number of officers, to be composed of the quotas of the First and Second brigades of the Seventh division, and of the Second brigade of the Fifth division, designated for the service of the United States, under general orders of the 12th of May, 1812, to rendezvous at Erie, on the 5th day of March, then, or as soon thereafter as possible, to be organized into one regiment, and to be officered agreeably to law.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, 7th February, 1814.

JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq., Inspector of First Brigade, Seventh Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

SIR: You will immediately, upon the receipt of this communication, order the militia of your brigade, designated for the service of the United States under general orders of the 12th day of May, 1812, to rendezvous on the most early day possible, at the place you shall deem most convenient, within the bounds of your brigade, and thence to march to Erie, the place designated by the Secretary at War for general rendezvous, to compose part of a regiment of militia to be there organized agreeably to law.

It is fondly anticipated that those of the militia who have heretofore patriotically volunteered their service in substitution of drafts will, with unbated zeal, submit to such officering and organization of their several corps as will conform to the rules and regulations of United States army, recognized by an act of the General Assembly passed the 29th March, 1813. For your guide, as respects brigade organization, you are referred to an act of the present Legislature, passed this day, a copy whereof is herewith transmitted.

It is essential that the several Brigade Inspectors, viz: of the First and Second brigades of the Seventh division, and of the Second brigade of the Fifth division, before they shall have marched their several whole detachments, make such arrangements amongst themselves as that one thousand men, rank and file, with competent number of officers, will be delivered to the Adjutant General, or his deputy, at Erie, on the 5th day of March next, for organization.

It is strictly enjoined that the arms within your brigade be collected and put into the hands of the marching troops. Any unavoidable deficiency will be supplied at the place of rendezvous.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

[NOTE.—Similar orders were sent to William McClelland and George Welsh, Esqs., Brigade Inspectors.]

N. B. BOILEAU TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

HARRISBURG, February 8, 1814.

To JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq., Inspector First Brigade, Seventh Division:

SIR: You are entrusted by the Governor with the sum of seven thousand dollars, for the purpose of defraying the expense of marching to Erie one thousand men, rank and file, with a competent number of officers, agreeably to general orders of yesterday. This sum you will apportion among the Brigade Inspectors of the Second brigade of the Fifth division, Second brigade of Seventh division, and yourself, of the First brigade, Seventh divison, in proportion to the number of men you shall respectively march to the place of general rendezvous, taking from each of the Brigade Inspectors responsible receipts for the sums they respectively receive from you, which receipts you will transmit to the Auditor General. You will forward from Carlisle, by express, with all convenient dispatch, the general orders of the 7th inst., to William McClelland. Inspector of the Second brigade, Seventh division, and to George Welsh, Inspector of the Second brigade, Fifth division, the expense of which will be allowed you in the settlement of your accounts.

By the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO STEPHEN DECATUR.

HARRISBURG, February 11, 1814.

Commodore STEPHEN DECATUR, of the United States Navy, New London:

SIR: I have the honor and satisfaction to enclose a copy of a preamble and resolution, by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, adopted with an unanimity and cordiality which are the surest evidence of the high sense entertained by their constituents of the eminent services you have rendered your country. The language of the preamble so fully expresses the general feeling and opinion that nothing is left for me to add, other than that I entirely concur in those feelings and opinions, and feel proud that, in the discharge of my official duties, the Legislature have imposed one so gratifying as that of presenting you the sword, which will be herewith delivered by Colonel John Binns, my aid. Should future opportunities present themselves. I doubt not your distinguished skill and gallantry will call for fresh honors and rewards, which will cheerfully be paid by a grateful country.

Accept assurances of my personal good wishes and respects.

SIMON SNYDER.

[A similar letter was sent to Lieutenant James Biddle.]

N. B. BOILEAU TO HENRY HURST.

HARRISBURG, February 14, 1814.

To HENRY HURST, Esq:

SIR: Yours of the 2d inst., I have received. I trust that we have at length come to an understanding with regard to the $500 advanced by Gen. Mead to the militia who volunteered on board Perry's fleet, and in my letter to the General of the 18th ult., I stated to him that if the sum he had advanced to these men was surely the amount of pay due to them for the whole tour of duty they performed under his call, Mr. Phillips, the Paymaster, could make no difficulty in refunding the money, on his producing the receipts from these men of their having received their pay.

As to the construction of the supplement to the militia law passed 29th March last, we are still at issue. My construction, however, is of little moment as I have no power to instruct or control the accountant officers in the settlement of the expenses incurred under that law. But it is all important that Gen. Mead, and those who concur with him in opinion, should conceive the accountant officers that their construction of the law is erroneous. It is true the Governor in his communication to the Legislature, did not mention particularly the militia called into service by Gen. Mead. This circumstance I am confident did not originate from any unfavorable representations made to him of the conduct of these men, nor from his not properly appreciating their merits in promptly obeying the orders of the General at a season so inconvenient for them to leave their homes. And he noticed them particularly, he must have proceeded to notice those who marched into the State of Delaware under Col. Rush, those who volunteered from the county of Chester, and marched into the State of Maryland, those volunteer companies from the borough of Lancaster, who at their own expense marched to Elkton, who never asked or received a single cent for their services, those also from Philadelphia, who volunteered their services at the fort without receiving any compensation. In fine, when was the Governor to stop. The fact, however is that the omission complained of was wholly unintentional on the part of the Executive.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. DAVID MEAD.

HARRISBURG, February 14, 1814.

To Maj. Gen. DAVID MEAD:

SIR: In answer to your communication of the 4th instant, I have but to repeat as respects the defence of Erie, and the fleet there lying, the suggestions I made in my letter to you of the 4th instant. Such a force would be every way adequate to guard against a sudden surprise; and, under a proper organization, would arrest the enemy until a competent force of the neighboring militia could be brought out. Should the enemy have a disposable force on the straits competent to the apprehended enterprise, and should he have the temerity to march through a hostile country upwards of ninety miles, with a knowledge of being obliged to retrace his steps in a retreat, and with a knowledge, also, to moral certainty of being destroyed in the attempt. To justify such a sacrifice on the part of the enemy, I cannot perceive a motive in even a certain destruction of our fleet at Erie, because, if accomplished, still would we, with the vessels of war lying above Erie, have the command of the lake, and with them could we crush any effort in the enemy's power to make towards gaining the ascendency on that water.

Though the preservation of our fleet is all important, yet permit me, sir, to say that in the communication to you by Lieut. Elliott, commandant of the fleet upon which, and upon the letter of a Major Barns, you predicted the orders as well for the marching en masse of the First brigade, as the subsequent requisition, (nothing having subsequently to your first orders transpired tending to increase danger, as is admitted in one of your late letters,) that officer expressed not any fears for the safety of the fleet under his command. And I must be permitted to remark, also, that at that the vessels were unincumbered by ice, and continued so down to the 27th of January.

You are already apprised that general orders have issued for the rendezvousing at Erie of one thousand men on the 5th March next. Until that force has arrived, I trust the measures I have suggested may be adopted, which, in my opinion, will be commensurated with any danger that may grow out of any disposable force the enemy can have at so distant a point as is the straits from Erie.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO FREDERICK FOERING.

HARRISBURG, 14*th February*, 1814.

To FREDERICK FOERING, Esq., Deputy Quarter-Master General:

SIR: In consequence of a requisition made by the President of the United States, the Governor has ordered a detachment of one thousand rank and file of the militia from the counties of Cumberland, Adams, and Franklin, to rendezvous at Erie, on the 5th of March next. As the men are unwilling to march at this inclement season of the year, without being furnished with tents, and they cannot be supplied from this place, nor a sufficient number be had at Carlisle, the Governor directs that you make application, with the least possible delay, to the proper officer of the United States, at Philadelphia, for thirteen large and fifty small tents out of the United States arsenal, and, if procured, to forward them, with all convenient dispatch, to Carlisle, there to be delivered to James Lamberton, Esq., Brigade Inspector at that place.

Very respectfully, &c.,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO FREDERICK FOERING.

HARRISBURG, 14*th February*, 1814.

To FREDERICK FOERING, Esq., Deputy Quarter-Master General:

SIR: If you cannot procure the tents from the United States arsenal, then take them out of those you procured, by direction of the Governor, for the use of this State. If the expense of transportation will not be allowed by the United States officer, it will be paid here on the wagoners producing a receipt from Maj. Lamberton for their delivery, or any other satisfactory evidence that they have been delivered to any officer of the detachment at Carlisle.

Very respectfully, &c.,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

HARRISBURG, February 15, 1814.

To JAMES LAMBERTON, Brigade Inspector:

SIR: The Governor regrets that the plan for marching the troops in small detachments and quartering them in houses, as agreed upon between himself and Mr. Lamberton, has been abandoned. It was calculated to expedite the march, and would have prevented delay in starting, that is necessarily created by the demand for tents, because these must be brought from Philadelphia. They are written for, and if not furnished by the United States, will be sent on to Carlisle out of the State arsenal. It is all-important (because it will save considerable expense to the State at Erie) that those of the troops, who can have a supply of tents, should march as soon as possible, to take post at Erie, in room of General Mead's requisition. If more money should be necessary, arrangements will be made, either at this place, before you march, or at Pittsburgh, if you shall have marched, so that you may be supplied with what may be deemed needful.

N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. DAVID MEAD.

HARRISBURG, February 17, 1814.

To Gen. DAVID MEAD:

SIR: Yours of the 3d inst., I received last evening. It is, indeed, matter of regret, and to none more than to the Governor, that so much delay has occurred in the payment of the men who served under your orders. To prevent this delay, Mr. Trimble, by direction of the Governor, wrote to Mr. Phillips, on the 4th of October last, requesting him to furnish, without delay, an estimate of the sum necessary to pay the men, having no documents here on which to make a calculation. Colonel Phillips stated he was not able to give the estimate, and even in his letter of 28th January last, he says he is unable to do it, because the captains have not furnished him with their rolls. From a review of the whole transaction, I can perceive no neglect on the part of the Executive; he wished the money to be sent promptly, whenever the amount necessary could be known. In the meantime directed Mr. Phillips to proceed with what he had in his hands, as far as it would go, and any deficit would be forwarded to him as soon as ascertained. By the eighth section of the supplementary act of the 29th of March last, it is made the duty of the commanding officer of each regiment, and, also, for the commanding officer of each company, to furnish the paymaster with complete lists or roll of all the commissioned, non-commissioned officers, and privates under their respective commands. This duty, as appears from Colonel Phillips' letters of the 28th ult., had not even then been performed. May not the delay of payment then be fairly attributed to the neglect of those officers in not performing the preliminary and necessary duty of furnishing the paymaster with the list or rolls.

A sum, however, such as the Governor supposed will be sufficient, (for even at this late hour it can only be guessed at,) to pay off the men, will be forwarded to Colonel Phillips, with the least possible delay. With regard to the other expenses, I beg leave to refer you to the accountant department. I have already intimated their opinion, or construction, of the law, and, unless you can convince them that their construction is incorrect, the difficulties can only be removed by the Legislature, which already is acquainted with the difficulty, as your letters on the subject, and others connected with it, have been communicated. Your last letter, also, will be put into the hands of the committee who have the subject under consideration. Permit me to assure you that, neither in my letter to Mr. Foster, or to any other person, have I ever designed, in the least degree, to treat you with disrespect.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. REES HILL.

HARRISBURG, February 19, 1814.

TO COL. REES HILL:

SIR: By a resolution of the Legislature, the Governor is directed to present to each of those citizens of Pennsylvania who volunteered on board the American squadron on Lake Erie, at the time the British fleet were captured, a silver medal, with such emblematical devices as he may think proper. In order to comply with the resolution, it is necessary he should be furnished with the names of those volunteers. I have, therefore, to request that you will take the earliest opportunity of forwarding a correct list of their names. If you are not in the possession of their names, you will please to apply to Capt. Perry, or to some other person who may be in possession of the proper information, competent to certify their names, and transmit it with all convenient dispatch such information.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

HARRISBURG, February 21, 1814.

TO JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq., Brigade Inspector:

SIR: The Governor has directed me to furnish you with a copy of the opinions of Mr. Dallas, district attorney of the United States, and of Mr. Ingersoll, the Attorney General. Agreeably to which proceedings have been instituted by some of the brigade inspectors against those who were delinquents, and deserted from other detachments which were ordered into the service of the United States.

A difficulty which occurred respecting the expenses of courts-martial has been obviated by the comptroller of the United States Treasury, who directs the costs to be paid by the marshal out of the fines received. The detachments are to be organized at Erie, so as to form one regiment, to consist of ten companies of one hundred men each, rank and file, to be officered as follows: One colonel, one lieutenant colonel, two majors; to each company, one captain, first, second, and third lieutenants, one ensign, four sergeants, and four corporals, and customary staff. The regiment to be divided into two battalions, each to be commanded by one major. Col. James Fenton, Colonel Commandant, lieutenant colonels and majors those designated by law. You will please to furnish Mr. McClelland and Mr. Welsh with a copy of this letter, also with copies of Mr. Dallas and Mr. Ingersoll's opinion, as I had not time to prepare copies for this day's mail. You will also please to ask Mr. McClelland to furnish you and Mr. Welsh with copies of the special instructions he has received from the marshal on the subject of his procedure in collecting the fines.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM CLARK.

HARRISBURG, February 23, 1814.

TO WILLIAM CLARK, Esq.:

SIR: Yours of the 14th inst. was received by the last mail, (yesterday.) So far as regards the payment of the privates who served under the orders of Gen. Mead there can be no doubt. It is desirable that they should be paid promptly. This you will do as soon as the proper officers furnish you with the lists or rolls agreeably to law. With regard to the officer's pay there is certainly great difficulties. These have not been produced by any of the departments here. You are perfectly aware that neither the Governor, myself, nor accountant officers are authorized to give any other instructions than those contained in the laws. These laws are before you and they must be your guide, as they will be the rule of settlement by the accountant officers, before whom I have laid your letter, and who do not authorize me to give more specific instructions. You will please to furnish Quarter-master General Wilson Smith with certified copies of the muster-rolls, agreeably to the militia laws, to enable him to settle the ration accounts, who, it is to be regretted, will have similar difficulties with yourself as it regards the officers.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

HARRISBURG, February 24, 1814.

TO JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq., Brigade Inspector of the First Brigade, Seventh Division:

SIR: I answer to yours of the 23d inst., I have the Governor's directions to reply, that in drafting men you confine yourself to the quota required from your brigade. Messrs. Welsh and McClelland will be instructed that in case their first draft will not furnish the requisite quota, to proceed to a second, to make up the deficiency. Should Welsh in his first draft be deficient, and send on the men he has obtained, you will take them in charge, and march them on to the place of general rendezvous, and furnish them with subsistence.

I wrote this day, by order of the Governor, to Messrs. Welsh and McClelland, instructing them as above suggested.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEORGE WELSH.

HARRISBURG, February 24, 1814.

To GEORGE WELSH, Esq., Brigade Inspector of Second Brigade, Fifth Division:

SIR: As it may possibly happen that your first draft may not furnish a quota sufficient when added to those from other brigades, to make one thousand rank and file, in that case the Governor directs that you send on the men that you have obtained, under the direction of such officer as you may deem suitable, and proceed to a second draft to make up the deficiency, and march them as early as possible to the place of general rendezvous. It is suggested whether it might not be expedient to march the present draft to Carlisle, and put them under the direction of Mr. Lamberton, to march them on with the quota from his brigade, while you proceed to make up the deficiency by a second draft, as above directed.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM McCLELLAND.

HARRISBURG, February 24, 1814.

To WILLIAM McCLELLAND, Esq., Inspector of Second Brigade, Seventh Division:

SIR: In answer to your letter of the 21st ult., to the Governor, I am directed to state that in case your first draft does not furnish a quota sufficient when added to those from Mr. Lamberton's and Welsh's brigades to make one thousand men, rank and file, then you put under the direction of Maj. Lamberton the number you may have ready to march, and proceed to make another draft to make up the deficiency of your quota, and march them on to the general place of rendezvous as expeditiously as practicable. You will make an arrangement with Mr. Lamberton as to the point where your detachment will join his. A sufficient number of tents, together with those at Carlisle, to accommodate the whole detachment are now on the road from Philadelphia, and will be at Carlisle on Saturday next.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILSON SMITH.

HARRISBURG, February 24, 1814.

To WILSON SMITH, Esq., Quarter-master General:

SIR: Yours of the 15th inst., I have just received, containing a request for the transmission of a further sum of $20,000, to pay expenses incurred at Erie, under the orders of Gen. Mead. It would appear, from your letter, that the check I forwarded to you, in a letter under date of the 4th inst., has not been received. An account allowed by Gen. Mead, amounting to $18,404 27, for rations furnished, was presented yesterday, (copies of which Mr. Bryan states he has forwarded to you,) and $16,000 has been paid on account. Of the intention of presenting those accounts, I presume you were not informed, or you would not have asked for so large a sum. In paying expenses you will discriminate between those which come under the notice of your department and those not contemplated by any law, and, consequently, may be of doubtful nature. Such as house rent, building block-houses, rations to supernumerary officers, and certain grades or descriptions of officers not designated or recognized by law. With regard to such items, it might be proper for you first to consult the accountant officers, to prevent embarrassments in settling your accounts with them. The subject has been brought before the Legislature, but not yet acted on. If, after the receipt of the $10,000, there should still be a deficit, write to inform me what will be sufficient to meet legitimate charges, in order that it may be transmitted.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. ROBERT BULL.

HARRISBURG, February 25, 1814.

To Lieut. Col. ROBERT BULL:

SIR: In answer to yours of yesterday to the Governor, relative to the regimental staff, I have to refer you to the seventh and eighth sections of the act for the regulation of the militia, passed 9th April, 1807. By which it appears the field officers of the regiment are to appoint their staffs. Colonel Fenton, yourself, and the other field officers of the regiment ordered into service will, therefore, arrange the staff in a manner conformable to the law as above mentioned, and which may be most agreeable to yourselves. A Paymaster has been already appointed by the Governor, under the act supplementary to the militia law passed at the last sesson of the Legislature.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. D. MEAD.

HARRISBURG, March 3, 1814.

Gen. D. MEAD, Meadville:

SIR: Yours of the 21st of February has just been handed me, together with the copy of a requisition from Major Marlin, on you, for two thousand militia, to constitute a force for the defence of Erie and the United States fleet there remaining. In compliance with your request that I would be explicit in my communications to you, I take the freedom to say that whatever cause may have heretofore existed for the maintenance of troops at Erie, more than the United States force at that place, there cannot be the slightest grounds for its continuance. I infer this from the trifling disposable force, if any, the enemy have on the straits, from your own communications, and from the opinion given me a few days since, at this place, by an officer of prominence lately under your command, and from a general view of the subject, and I hope it may be distinctly understood that the acts you may do, under the orders of Major Marlin, cannot be the result of a discretion vested in you by any law of the Legislature. That the execution of any orders you may issue, predicated on the Major's requisition, and the expense growing thereout, are not warranted by any law of the State, and the expense cannot be paid out of its funds. Such were my impressions when I referred you, in my letter of the 1st February, to Major Marlin's orders from the Secretary at War; but that nothing may remain for construction, I have thus explicitly put down my views on the subject of a continual defence at the expense of the State. You will hence infer that any troops so ordered into service will consider themselves as volunteers, in the service of the United States, and to that government they must look for pay and subsistence. I should, ere this, have been more explicit in my communications to you did not the language of the law under which you act seem to vest in you a discretionary power to continue a detachment of militia in service for thirty days. Whether the law warrants, by a succession of calls, the maintenance of a permanent force under your orders, is rendered very doubtful, both by the letter and spirit of the law, and were the subject not now under consideration of the Legislature, I should feel inclined to give my voice against your construction, and to add my disapprobation of the longer continuance at Erie of any militia force at the expense of the State.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. WILLIAM BROOKE.

HARRISBURG, March 5, 1814.

To. Gen. WILLIAM BROOKE:

SIR: In answer to yours of the 1st inst., to the Governor, I have to state that one thousand stand of arms and equipments, under the act of Congress for arming the whole body of the militia, will be deposited in the State arsenal, at Philadelphia, under the care of Frederick Foering, Esq., Deputy Quarter-master General of this State, by Callender Irwin, Commissary General of the United States, ready to be delivered when necessary. Mr. Foering has also purchased a sufficient quantity of ammunition. To him, therefore, application must be made when any exigency may arise that requires those articles. The cartridge boxes sent to Chester, although not of the best quality, will at least serve for a short campaign. Any man who receives a box can easily put a few more tacks to secure the belts. Should they be entirely unfit for use, a supply can be had from Mr. Foering. The necessary instructions will be given to Mr. Foering on the above points.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO FREDERICK FOERING.

HARRISBURG, March 5, 1814.

To FREDERICK FOERING, Esq., Deputy Quarter-master General:

SIR: The Governor received a letter from Callender Irwin, Commissary General, stating that he had orders to deliver to the order of the Governor, one thousand stand of arms and equipments, a part of the State's quota from the United States.

The Governer directs that you call on the commissary for these arms and equipments, and when received to receipt for the same, and have them deposited in the State arsenal.

There is also about two hundred stand of State arms in possession of Joseph Henry, (son of William Henry, of Northampton, who manufactured them,) No. 288 Third street, which you will also have removed to State arsenal. Those arms are probably in boxes, as well as the former, and if the racks in the arsenal are not made, the boxes can be deposited in the arsenal; if not boxed they can be set up in the arsenal until the racks are ready.

The Governor further directs that in case of a threatened invasion of the shores of the Delaware, and you should be called upon by Brig. Gen. Brooke, of the Third division, or Maj. Gen. Steele, of the said division, for arms, equipments, and ammunition, that you furnish them with what may be deemed necessary.

Very respectiully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. SAMUEL COOPER.

HARRISBURG, March 7, 1814.

To Capt. SAMUEL COOPER:

SIR: In answer to your letter to the Governor of the 23d ult., relative to pay due your companies, I am instructed to say that there is no power vested in the Governor to order payments to the militia, other than such disbursements as are authorized by law. Your claim for pay not coming within the notice of any existing law of the State, cannot, therefore, be allowed by the accountant officers. The militia of other States who, like you, have been in the service of the United States, urge similar claims. The subject, it is said, is now before Congress, and it will probably soon be determined by that body whether such claims ought or ought not to be paid by the United States. Gen. Tannehill being now in Congress has a fair opportunity of urging the justice of your claim against the United States, which ought of right to pay the militia from two days before marching from their respective brigade, for this very substantial reason: The government of the United States claims the fines imposed on those of the militia who are delinquent in not marching to the place of rendezvous in consequence of a requisition by the President of the United States. You will please to show this letter to Capt. Turbett.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, March 8, 1814.

To N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

The detachment of one thousand men, Pennsylvania militia, of which you are constituted and appointed Colonel commandant, having arrived, or the major part of it, at Erie, the place of general rendezvous, you will as soon as practicable organize (and any that may subsequently to a commencement of organization arrive) into one regiment, to consist of two battalions, and each battalion to consist of five companies. The officer in command is to be a lieutenant colonel. Each battalion is to be commanded by a major. Each company to be officered as follows: one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, and one ensign, four sergeants and four corporals, and each company to consist of one hundred men rank and file. The officers to rank and be selected and appointed according to law. The regiment to have the customary staff, and be constituted and appointed according to law. In the performance of which duty it is commanded, that the officers of your regiment be to you aiding and assisting, and strict and complete obedience is hereby enjoined on all the officers and men of your regiment to all your lawful commands.

As soon as you shall have organized the regiment as commanded, you will report yourself, and the number of the men under your command, to the nearest general officer commanding for the United States; and you are ordered and directed to yield complete obedience to any orders issued by your superior officer commanding at Erie, or elsewhere, for the United States.

From the alacrity with which very many of your detachment volunteered there services at an inclement season, the Commander-in-Chief anticipates honorable results from citizen soldiers, whose valor is not circumscribed by geographical limits of territory.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the State of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN JOHNSTON.

HARRISBURG, March 8, 1814.

To JOHN JOHNSTON, Esq., Postmaster at Pittsburgh:

SIR: I have taken the liberty to enclose to your care a letter for James Lamberton, Esq., Brigade Inspector, who is now conducting a detachment of militia, from the Fifth and Seventh divisions, at Erie, requesting that you will have the goodness to have it delivered to him as soon as you shall have learned his arrival at Pittsburgh. By the same mail, you will also receive a package directed to Col. James Fenton, commandant of the said detachment, which I have also requested you to have delivered to him as soon as he shall arrive. If he should not arrive with the detachment, you will then please to have it put into the hands of Mr. Lamberton.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. JAMES FENTON.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, March 8, 1814.

To Col. JAMES FENTON, Pittsburgh:

SIR: Agreeably to the authority in him vested by the fourth section of a supplement to the militia law, passed 29th March, 1813, (a copy of which and a copy, also, of another supplement passed by the present Legistature, is herewith forwarded,) the Governor has, by general orders of this day, authorized you to organize the Fifth detachment of Pennsylvania militia under your command. Blank commissions, forty-two in number, are also forwarded to you, signed and duly attested. These you will cause to be filled with the names of such officers as shall have been selected before marching from their several and respective brigades, or as may be elected at Erie, agreeably to the first mentioned supplement. You will observe that in all cases of selection it will be necessary to change the word "elected" in the commissions, and substitute therefor "designated" or "selected." The number of blank commissions will be sufficient for two majors, ten second and ten third lieutenants, and ten ensigns. First lieutenants already commissioned, it is presumed the full number have marched, and probably a sufficient number of ensigns, but to guard against deficiency, ten blanks are also sent for the last named officers. Not having any return from the several Brigade Inspectors of the officers marched, entitled to command under the militia law, it is probable that those intended for majors, and, perhaps others, may be useless. All such you will return to this office.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEORGE ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, March 10, 1814.

To GEORGE ARMSTRONG, Esq., Brigade Inspector, Greensburg, Westmoreland county:

SIR: Yours of the 5th ult., has been received. When I wrote you on the 27th November last, it was my impression that the fines were to be collected under the militia law of this State. Some time after I saw a letter from the Marshal to the Adjutant General, directing that report should be made to him of the amount of fines imposed; that it was his duty to have them collected. I then wrote to the Marshal, that if the fines were to be collected by him, or under his order, and paid over to the United States, that it appeared to me that it was incumbent on him to instruct the Brigade Inspectors as to the mode of procedure. In the meantime I wrote to Mr. Ingersoll, Attorney General, for his opinion on the subject. After a considerable lapse of time, I received his opinion, accompanied by that of Mr. Dallas, District Attorney of the United States, whom the Marshal had also consulted, they concurred in opinion that the fines should be collected under the laws of the United States, and for their use. The law of the United States directs that delinquents should be tried by courts-martial, to be composed of militia officers, but gives no direction of the manner of forming that court, nor who is to summon it. It appears to me, however, that it was the duty of the Governor, as Commander-in-Chief, to direct the Adjutant General to have the courts-martial formed. The President of the United States required the Governor to furnish, for the service of the United States, a certain number of men; it was his duty to obey this requisition, and enforce obedience to the orders by him given, in consequence of orders given to him by his superior officer, the President. I consider the court-martial as organized under the authority of the United States, through the medium of the Governor. It is certain that the law is not as explicit as could be wished. It is equally certain that delinquents ought to be punished, and it is no evidence of patriotism for any individual or set of individuals to encourage the evasion of laws intended for the defence of the rights of our country.

If official copies of the orders received by the Governor from the President of the United States, requiring those detachments of militia, is deemed necessary, they can be furnished to the courts-martial. It is presumed, however, that court will put sufficient faith and confidence in the Governor as not to doubt the fact, as stated in his general orders, that the requisitions were made by the President. With regard to the expenses of the courts-martial, I wrote you on the 11th ult., and gave you a copy of the Controller General's letter, in which he states that these expenses will be allowed out of the fines collected by the Marshal.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN SMITH.

HARRISBURG, March 11, 1814.

To JOHN SMITH, Esq., Marshal, Pennsylvania District:

SIR: The court-martial which sat for the trial of delinquent militia men in Washington county, did not think themselves authorized to proceed against such as refused to appear in their proper persons; nor did the court consider they had the power to issue compulsory process to bring them before the court, and if they had such power who was to serve the process. In consequence of these doubts and difficulties the refractory escaped punishmen

On this subject the Governor declines giving an opinion to Mr. Dunlap, the Brigade Inspector, as the proceedings were under the United States laws, and directed him to call on you and Mr. Dallas for instructions. Mr. Dallas states that he had so done, but has received no instructions from either of you. The Governor considers the matter of much importance, and directs me to request of you, and through you, of Mr. Dallas a decisive opinion on these points, to be furnished to this department, or to the several Brigade Inspectors immediately concerned, of whose names you have a list, that they may have such directions as to enable them to bring this tedious business to a satisfactory and just conclusion. If the refractory escape, a total insubordination amongst the militia will ensue.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO DAVID FULLERTON.

Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth,
Harrisburg, April 16, 1814.

To David Fullerton, Esq., Greencastle, Franklin county:

Sir: Mr. Boileau being absent, I answer, by direction of the Governor, your letter dated April the 4th inst., in which, as a member of a court-martial, held for the trial of delinquent militia men who refused to march, agreeably to general orders of the 7th day of February last, predicted on a requisition of the President, you ask information as to whom return of proceedings must be made. That a return, duly certified by the court, must be made to the marshal of the district, appears from the face of the law you cite. That this ought to be done as speedy as possible, and before the proceedings transpire, is evident. The officer of supervisor of the revenue of the district does no longer exist. Samuel H. Smith, Esq., of the city of Washington, is commissioner of the revenue; to him it may be proper to send a duplicate; but I know not of any law that requires it to be done.

I am, respectfully,
Your friend and humble servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO WILLIAM CLARK.

HARRISBURG, April 18, 1814.

To WILLIAM CLARK, Esq., Paymaster:

SIR: In accordance with your letter under date of 23d March, 1814, requesting the transmission to you of another check on the Branch Bank at Pittsburgh for $7,000, to enable you to pay the troops lately ordered into service by Maj. Gen. Mead, I do now (Mr. Boileau being absent) transmit to you such a check, the receipt of which you will acknowledge. It was not known here, before the receipt of your letter, that the first detachment from the Second brigade had been retained in service over thirty days. Nor is it recollected that the Governor, in any of his communications, directly or indirectly authorizes such a detention in service. It will, therefore, behoove you to conform strictly to the supplement of the 29th March, 1813, and to the act of the last session, intended to cover all lawful expenditures. Your letter has been submitted to the Auditor General, and I give you verbatim his opinion, in which the State Treasurer concurs, as follows:

"AUDITOR GENERAL'S OFFICE, March 18, 1814.

His Excellency the Governor:

SIR: Agreeably to your request, I have read Mr. Paymaster Clark's letter of the 23d of last month, addressed to Mr. Boileau.

In respect to the continuance of the first detachment of the Second brigade, in service the second month, it will be necessary for Maj. Clark to furnish, with his accounts of the pay, the requisite evidence for such service; that is to say, if the second month's service was in consequence of orders from Maj. Gen. Mead, it must appear that the call and consequent service of said detachment were in conformity to the act for the regulation of the militia of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. For, although the act of last session contains a very broad provision as to the pay, &c., of the officers and men called out by Maj. Gen. Mead, the accountant officers are of opinion that the calls must appear to have been made, conformably to the act of the 29th March, 1813.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your Excellency's most obedient servant,
GEORGE BRYAN."

I am very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. JAMES FENTON.

HARRISBURG, May 16, 1814.

To Col. JAMES FENTON:

SIR: In answer to yours of the 4th inst., I am directed to say that there is not in the late, nor in the present, militia law any provision favoring the opinion that volunteers in regimental arrangements are entitled to any particularly eligible station on parade or otherwise. In the present case, the volunteers having offered their services in substitution of drafts, they appear to stand on the same ground with drafted militia. It is, indeed, matter of regret that under existing laws, no mark of distinction can be conferred no the volunteers of your regiment, as they truly merit some honorable notice for their patriotism and zeal in the cause of their country. I refer you to the thirteenth section of an act passed 26th March, 1808, of this State, containing the only provision on the subject, but in it there is nothing as you will perceive, recognizing the preference, which your volunteers claim. The United States laws are also silent on the subject, except that officers of the United States shall take rank of the officers of the militia of equal grade whatever may be the dates of their commissions. By the articles of War, see act of Congress April 10, 1806, articles sixty-five and sixty-six, it becomes your duty to order courts-martial for the trial of delinquents and deserters, and such ought to have been the course of procedure in the first instance. Perhaps the proceedings had by the Brigade Inspector against delinquents may yet be authenticated by you. On this subject it would be advisable for you to consult the Secretary at War. Deserters ought most certainly to be tried by a court-martial, constituted by you of officers of the respective brigades to which deserters may belong, brought under guard to Erie for trial. This mode, however, would be more uncertain, tedious, and expensive than to have them tried at home, within their proper brigade bounds. On this point it would also be advisable for you to consult the Secretary at War. With regard to the pay of the soldiers, you will have to look to the United States. The extra pay under the State law, will be paid at the expiration of their term of service, and arrangements will be made for that purpose.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. JOHN BINNS.

HARRISBURG, May 16, 1814.

To Col. JOHN BINNS:

SIR: By direction of the Governor, I herewith enclose a copy of resolutions, passed by the Legislature at their last session, directing medals to be presented to Capts. Perry, Elliott, and Yarnal, and the Pennsylvanians who volunteered on board the fleet on Lake Erie, with suitable emblematic devices thereon, with a request that you consult one or more of the most eminent artists in the city, and communicate the result to him. Perhaps, one die might do for the officers, and one for the privates, having the proper names of the persons engraved on the medals after they are struck. This, however, is submitted to your better judgment.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. JAMES FENTON.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, May 24, 1814.

To Col. JAMES FENTON:

SIR: Yours to the Governor, of the 6th inst., has been received. By a reference to the general orders of February 7, 1814, you will perceive that the detachment under your command was called into service under a requisition of the President of the United States, and, consequently, in the service of the United States, and not of this State. To the United States, therefore, you are to look for monthly pay. The extra pay allowed by the Legislature was, in part, paid at the time of marching; the residue cannot be paid until the term of service has expired, or until the detachment shall be discharged under the authority of the United States. It will be well for you to write to the Secretary at War, requesting his attention to the subject of making arrangements to pay the men as it becomes due.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO MR. FULLERTON.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, June 8, 1814.

To Mr. FULLERTON, Judge Advocate:

SIR: Yours of May ult. has been received, requesting some information on the subject of courts-martial. The Governor does not think it proper to give any official instructions, as the detachment of militia were called into the service of the United States, and are to be tried for delinquency under their hands. He thinks it most proper that the proper organ of that government should give the necessary instructions for carrying the laws into effect. On the subject of fines, his private opinion is that they ought to be regulated by the monthly pay now existing. This opinion is corroborated by the act of Congress, passed April 8, 1814, (for which see Binn's paper of May last,) the second section of which declares, in all cases, "imposing a fine, limited by the amount of pay, the same shall be taken to have relation to the monthly pay existing at the time the offence was committed," and in the proceedings of courts-martial that have been submitted to the Governor, the rule adopted, I believe, has been variant. It appears, however, most rational that as the law of 1795 took the monthly pay as the rule by which to regulate fines, the same rule should prevail in all cases, until a different rule should be pointed out by law. With regard to the officer to whom the proceedings of courts-martial shall be submitted for approbation, the sixty-fifth section of the articles of war directs that the officer who orders the court is the person to approve. In the former cases, the Governor directed them to be held. Some of the proceedings of those courts have been and some have not been laid before him for approbation. In the present instance, he gave no direct orders for the purpose. If Col. Fenton, the commanding officer, gave the orders for holding them, and the Governor is rather of opinion he is the proper officer to order them, or at least to sanction the order, then the proceedings ought to be submitted to him. The question, however, is attended with difficulty, and it would, perhaps, be advisable to consult the Secretary at War on the subject, and request specific instructions from him as to the mode of your procedure.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. The above was enclosed to the care of William McClelland, Brigade Inspector.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. JOHN BINNS.

HARRISBURG, June 24, 1814.

To Col. JOHN BINNS:

It having, by a resolution of the Legislature, devolved upon the Executive to procure medals commemorative of the victory obtained over a proud and vaunting enemy in a naval conflict on Lake Erie, by Capt. Perry, his officers, and amongst many other valiant men, by certain of the militia of Pennsylvania, who volunteered their services and fought on board the American squadron, on the ever memorable 10th of September, 1813, to be emblematically finished and inscribed with suitable devices for presentation to the said officers and volunteer militia aforesaid, and inasmuch as no personal communication by reason of the distant residence of competent artists can be had, it becomes necessary to confide the said trust to a confidential person. I do, therefore, by these presents, appoint and authorize you, the said John Binns, aid-de-camp, to contract for, and have sunk the dies and executed the said medals, agreeably to the intent of the Legislature, and within the scope and purview of the before mentioned resolution, first having submitted the design or designs to me for my approbation and further order thereon. And I do also authorize you, by such ways and means as shall to you appear best adapted, to procure a designation by name of each individual of those of the Pennsylvania militia who patriotically volunteered their services as aforesaid, and if practicable, of their respective places of residence.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, July 14, 1814.

To JOHN ARMSTRONG, Esq., Secretary at War:

SIR: In the absence of the Governor, I deem it my duty to inform you that your communication, containing a requisition for a detachment of fourteen thousand Pennsylvania militia, came to the office this morning, and immediately forwarded by express to the Governor, at Selinsgrove. Be assured the requisition will meet with all the promptness that circumstances possibly will permit.

With high consideration and respect,

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. HENRY SHIPPEN.

HARRISBURG, July 18, 1814.

To Capt. HENRY SHIPPEN:

SIR: I have had a conversation with the Governor on the subject of procuring rifles. He has determined to direct the Adjutant General to procure the requisite number. You are, therefore, authorized to state to such as are disposed to enter your company, that they will be supplied with rifles on loan; you and your officers entering into bond to deliver them, when called upon by the Executive for that purpose. I presume, that in case they were lost in actual service, then, in that case, you would not be called to account for them in any other way than to establish the fact of their being so lost.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN CONNELLY.

HARRISBURG, July 21, 1814.

To JOHN CONNELLY, Esq.:

SIR: Yours of the 14th inst. was duly received. I have examined the Minutes of Council and also the Journals of Congress, but can find nothing conclusive as regards the right of soil. In the Journals of Congress I perceive that in the year 1777 Congress appointed a committee to wait on the Board of War of this State, to consult and view the works of Billingsport, and report whether or not they should be repaired or abandoned. In the Minutes of Council, of July 8, 1779, it appears that application was made to the Board of War, by the garrison at Billingsport, for ordnance stores, to which application the Board replied: "That it is the opinion of this Board, that as the garrison of Billingsport are placed there at the request of Congress, and to preserve the communication of the Delaware, and that post itself is the property of the United, (the word States omitted, I presume, by mistake,) the supplies may be justly deemed continental, and should the State, in the first instance, furnish them, it would be a proper charge to the United States." The above is all the information I am able to furnish on the subject. If any purchase has been made by Congress, the records of the State of New Jersey will most probably show it.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, July 25, 1814.

To JOHN ARMSTRONG, Esq., Secretary at War:

SIR: The Governor has directed me to inclose to you copies of general orders issued by him in compliance with a late requisition for a militia force from Pennsylvania by the President, communicated by yours, under date of the 4th instant. He has not, as you will perceive, designated places of rendezvous. He thinks it will be in time to do so in subsequent orders, which must issue before the troops can march. The threatened point of attack by the enemy it is probable will then be better ascertained, and a more prudent selection of place can be made. The repeal of our militia law of 1807, and its several supplements on the 1st of August next, the disannulling of all the militia commissions on that day, by a new law of the last session granted under the old law, except commissions of such officers who may be in actual service, the ordering by the new law the holding of elections for officers by the militia after the said 1st day of August, the notice of election returns to be made and the protracting to the fourth Monday of October next, the classification of the militia causes an almost total disorganization of our militia system between the 1st of August and the fourth Monday of October, and presents difficulties in yielding perfect compliance with the requisition of the President insurmountable. It is hoped, however, that the patriotism of the people will obviate the difficulty by a voluntary tender of service, which the Governor has invited, growing out of the unaccountable oversight of the Legislature.

It is strongly doubted whether any orders can be enforced under the present state of things. The requisition refers to the act of Congress, passed 28th February, 1795, under which militia can be held in service three months only, and to the law of 1814, which authorizes the President to keep them six months in service. The law of Pennsylvania, passed at the last session of its Legislature, requires the Governor to mention in general orders the period for which any militia ordered into service is to remain on duty. It is desirable, therefore, to know whether the requisition is intended for three or six month's service. The offices of Deputy Quarter-master General and Assistant Adjutant General are not recognized by any of our State laws. I have taken the liberty of enclosing to you a copy of the militia law of this State, passed at the last session of the Legislature, from a perusal of which you will perceive the difficulties under which the executive at present labors in attempting to comply with the requisition.

With high consideration and respect,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

To JOHN ARMSTRONG, Esq., Secretary at War:

SIR: I am instructed by the Governor to state to you that he has been informed that a number of militia men, to the amount of nearly thirty, belonging to a detachment of this State, now in the service of the United States, under the command of Col. Fenton, deserted and returned home. A number of them have been arrested and committed to prison. The Governor has been asked for instructions with regard to the proceedings to be had against them. He is of opinion, that, inasmuch as they were in the service of the United States, the United States only is competent to give directions on the subject, and for the purpose the present communication is made. In a conversation with Maj. Wallace, of the United States Army, who is at this place, he stated that he should feel himself justified in taking charge of them, and returning them to the detachment from which they deserted, provided that it would not consume more time than what was allowed him send men away to who were under his command at this place of rendezvous. But the distance to Buffalo was so great, that it would require more time than he was authorized to employ in such service, and therefore could not do it without instructions from the War department. The necessity of punishing officers of the above description is obvious, to prevent the evil consequences which must result from their being committed with impunity. I respectfully ask your attention to the subject.

With high consideration and respect,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, July 28, 1814.

To JOHN ARMSTRONG, Esq., Secretary at War:

SIR: I deem it but necessary to lay before you a copy of a letter from Liberty Brown, President of the select council of the city of Philadelphia, representing the defenseless state of that port, and of the shores of the Delaware generally, to call your immediate attention to that very important section of Pennsylvania, in the now very critical state of our country. I have taken the liberty of adding copies of documents transmitted to me at the same time, which have relation to the subject, and with which you may possibly not have been furnished.

The council, it would seem, as long as twelve months since, proffered their aid to the United States in perfecting works of defence. Permit me to say that it is extremely desirable that the fears which appear so strongly to pervade the minds of the inhabitants of our metropolis ought, as speedily as possible, to be allayed, and to add assurances of consideration and respect.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO LIBERTY BROWN.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, July 28, 1814.

LIBERTY BROWN, Esq., President of the Select Council:

SIR: The Governor has duly received your communication dated July 19th, accompanied with the documents having relation to the defence, against an invasion by the enemy, of Philadelphia and the Delaware generally. He has made it a subject of communication to the Secretary at War, and trusts that measures, prompt and efficient in their nature, will now be taken to quiet the fears of our metropolis. The Governor's personal attendance to public business has been almost unremitted for the last eight months, and his presence, now more than ever, required at the seat of government. Neither can he perceive the necessity that he should, at this particular time, be at any other place other than at this place.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM S. SMITH.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, July 28, 1814.

To WILLIAM S. SMITH, Esq., Judge Advocate:

SIR: The Governor cannot approve the proceedings of the court-martial of which you were Judge Advocate, for the following reasons: It does not appear, on the face of the proceedings, to what detachment the militia belonged who were fined; whether they, or any of them, were to have served in consequence of the first, second, or third general orders; whether they were ordered on service before or subsequent to the 1st of December, 1812. There were no marching orders on the 31st March, 1812. If antecedently to 1st December, 1812, the fine may be $60; if subsequently, the fine may be as high as $96. You will, hence, perceive the necessity of such designation as will fix, as well, the time the order or orders issued which were disobeyed, as the precise sum each individual is fined, for as it now stands it is uncertain whether those fined twelve months' pay shall pay $60 or $96 +. It, therefore, becomes necessary, before the Governor can act, that the proceedings have another heading and conclusion, signed by the President and yourself, containing the essential requisites above laid down. The court, certainly, ought to have tried all the delinquents and deserters, under whatever orders they marched, or were to have marched. It has been understood, (perhaps erroneously,) that one description of delinquents only was tried, and the rest, perhaps the most culpable, are permitted to escape.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO WILLIAM CLARK.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 2, 1814.

To WILLIAM CLARK, Esq., Brigade Inspector:

SIR: A certain Moses Scott and Andrew Wilson, have applied to the Governor for remission of fines imposed on them by a court of appeal in consequence of their refusal to obey the order of Gen. Mead calling out the militia en masse. They found their plea for a remission upon the ground, that they had but recently returned from a tour of six months' duty under the command of Gen. Crook, in the northwestern army. I have been instructed by the Governor to inquire of you, whether or not the facts are as stated by the applicants, and if true, that you suspend all proceedings against them for the recovery of the fines, until he has determined on the expediency and justice of granting their request.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. JOHN WILSON.

To Gen. JOHN WILSON:

SIR: Yours to the Governor, of the 25th ult., has been received. As there is no provision in the late militia law relative to division staff, the Governor does not think himself authorized to give any specific instructions on the subject. I understand it is the practice in the army of the United States for the General to select his aids from the commissioned officers of the line, and announcing their appointment in general orders, and directing that they be respected accordingly. In the militia law of the United States, passed 8th May, 1792, section two, the Major Generals are entitled to two aids, to rank as Majors. Perhaps it would be competent for you, under that law, to appoint two aids, and to announce their appointment, and direct them to be respected accordingly by a general order. I, however, only suggest this, without being authorized to instruct you to adopt it.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO EDMUND P. KENNEDY.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 3, 1814.

To EDMUND P. KENNEDY, Commander of Naval Force at Erie:

SIR: Yours of the 21st ult., to the Governor, expressing some apprehensions for the safety of the Port at Erie, has been received.

Presuming that you have made a similar communication to the Secretary at War, the Governor instructs me to state to you that if the government of the United States thinks it necessary to make a requisition for a militia force for the protection of that post, he will, with as much promptness as practicable, comply with such requisition. Should the danger appear so imminent as to preclude the probability of the militia being brought to that point in time by the ordinary mode of proceeding, the Governor has no doubt but the patriotism of the militia in the vicinity, if appealed to, would furhish prompt and efficient means of defence.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO MESSRS. R. M. CRANE, G. EICHOLTZ, AND R. T. LEECH.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 3, 1814.

To MESSRS. R. M. CRANE, G. EICHOLTZ, and R. T. LEECH:

GENTLEMEN: In furtherance of the laudable object contemplated by an association of individuals, for the purpose of forming a company of artillery for the common defence, the Governor has authorized me to state, in answer to your communication of yesterday, that as soon as a company shall have been constituted agreeably to law, he will assume the responsibility of ordering to be delivered to the company one or two pieces of brass ordnance out of the arsenal at Philadelphia, and a competent number of muskets, if required. Every other facility authorized by law or by usage will be given to the company, after it shall have been organized. In case of a call into actual service, the United States officer commanding in the district is authorized by a circular from the Department of War, under date of 22d ult., to furnish such arms, accouterments, and stores as shall be conducive to the public service. No legal existence can, in the opinion of the Governor, be given to the association under any other law than the militia law of the last session.

Very respectfully, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. WILLIAM H. WINDER.

Secretary's Office, August 11, 1814.

To Gen. William H. Winder:

Sir: I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of yours of the 6th and 8th inst., to the Governor, on the subject of the quota of Pennsylvania militia required to be held in readiness for the service of the United States. In consequence of the present deranged state of our militia system, great difficulties occur to the Executive. The only efforts that could be made towards a compliance with the requisition was, to order a designation, for service, of the requisite troops, under the militia law of 1807, before its repeal, which took place on the 1st inst., and all commissions under that law then became void, except of such officers as might be on service on that day. The orders of the Governor under that law have issued, and are now executing. So soon as returns are made to him by the Adjutant General, you will be informed of the number and description of troops detached for service. By an unaccountable oversight of the Legislature at their last session, no legally organized militia can be completely made in Pennsylvania, until after the fourth Monday of October next. Before that time no classification of the militia is to take place, so that it is doubtful whether men can be coerced into service under any existing laws. Proceedings are now commenced for new officering and organization of the militia, under the new system. Anxious as the Governor is to furnish an efficient force, yet he cannot refrain from expressing a wish that no occasion may occur, requiring any militia from this State before an organization has been effectual under the existing laws, as he has strong fears, under present circumstances, that the principal reliance must be had on volunteers alone, and that many delinquencies will happen in what is deemed the ordinary militia, as it is apprehended it may occur with impunity.

With regard to the place of rendezvous, the Governor has thought of fixing it in the neighborhood of Peach Bottom Ferry, on the Susquehanna, near Maryland line, unless you should think proper to suggest some other point as more advantageous.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. HENRY SHIPPEN.

To Capt. HENRY SHIPPEN, Lancaster:

SIR: I received a letter from you some days since relative to the purchase of rifles. The Adjutant General was instructed to procure two hundred and fifty, of which one hundred was to be gotten at Lancaster, and one hundred at Philadelphia, and I was to endeavor to procure the remaining fifty at this place, which I am not able to do. I presume that the Adjutant General has directed Maj. Light to attend to the business at Lancaster. Of this fact, however, you can readily inform yourself. I request you to procure fifty, the number I failed in getting here. It would be very desirable that all the rifles should be of the same calibre with those of the United States. You will consider this letter as authorizing you to procure the number of fifty rifles of the description I have mentioned, if practicable.

Very respectfully, sir, &c.,

N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. WILLIAM GILLILAND.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 12, 1814.

To Gen. WILLIAM GILLILAND:

SIR: At the instance of the Governor, I give you the following extracts from a letter recently received from the Secretary at War, in answer to one I wrote to him respecting deserters from Colonel Fenton's detachmants: "Such deserters as have been apprehended should be safely returned to the corps from which they deserted, to be tried conformably to the usages of service, there being no other difference between those and deserters from the regular army than the right of being tried by militia officers."

The time of service of the detachment of militia now on the lines, and from which desertions occurred, is so short that deserters could not be now returned there for trial before the term would expire, and there being no militia officers now in commission of proper grade to form a court-martial, except those in actual service, it is the intention of the Governor to order a court for their trial, to be formed of their officers now in actual service, as soon as they return. Their commissions, under the new law, are to continue valid until thirty days after their tour of duty has expired. And a court formed of such material will, perhaps, be the most competent, and will be able to procure the best evidence with the least difficulty or delay.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO LIBERTY BROWN.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 13, 1814.

To LIBERTY BROWN, Esq., President of the Select Council:

SIR: I wrote to you on the 28th ult., informing you that the Governor had made a communication to the Secretary at War respecting the defenceless state of the shores of the Delaware, predicated on the information derived from your letter of the 19th ult., and the documents accompanying it. I now enclose to you a copy of his answer to the Governor's communication, from which it appears that he has also written to the corporation on the same subject, a copy of which he furnished the Governor. It is confidently expected that such arrangements will be speedily adopted as to quiet any fears excited in the minds of the people.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO SAMUEL HART.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 19, 1814.

To SAMUEL HART, Esq.:

SIR: In answer to yours of the 12th inst., I have to state that in case of your forming a rifle company and tendering your services, you will be supplied with rifles at the public expense, if they can be procured. I endeavored to procure some at this place, but failed. The Adjutant General has directed one hundred to be manufactured at Lancaster, but they will not be completed before some time in October. He has also directed a like number to be made at Philadelphia.

When they will be done I am not informed. You may consider this letter as authorizing you to procure fifty or sixty in the city or elsewhere, in case your company is formed. If you consult Mr. Binns he probably can inform you who is to inspect those manufactured in the city, and should you procure yours then the same person can inspect them, if at another place, you can suggest a proper inspector, and he will be appointed for that purpose. When inspected and delivered, or ready for delivery, the manufacturer sending an order to me to receive the money accompanied by a certificate of the inspector, the amount will be forwarded either to you or to him. It would be desirable to have all the State rifles alike, at least to calibre. Those already bespoken are to be three feet two inches in length of barrel, and to take one half ounce ball. I presume such are those of the United States. They ought to be plain, without unnecessary ornament. Such, I understand, can be had at Lancaster for fifteen dollars each. Mr. Binns could probably inform you of the price in the city. Horns and pouches for ball you can manufacture yourselves, or procure them at small expense. It will be necessary for the commissioned officers of the company to give bond to the Governor for the value of the rifles, conditioned to re-deliver them when lawfully required, in good order. But if lost or injured in actual service, such circumstance will be duly considered.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 23, 1814.

TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Esq., Adjutant General:

SIR: I received a letter yesterday from Gen. Winder, directed to the Governor, requiring a detachment of one regiment of militia, to consist of one thousand, to be marched to the city of Washington with the least possible delay. The Governor is absent; but I immediately sent the letter to him, and expect he will be here to-morrow evening. It perhaps would be desirable to him that you should be here also, to facilitate as much as possible the marching of the detachment, to assist in the necessary arrangements.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

HARRISBURG, August 23, 1814.

To JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Adjutant General:

SIR: Since writing to you this morning, I have received a letter from Gen. Winder, stating that the city of Washington is seriously menaced by the enemy, and urging the Governor to send on all the force he can with the least possible delay. It will, therefore, be indispensably necessary that you should immediately repair to the seat of Government.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

SIMON SNYDER TO CAPT. GAWIN HENRY.

HARRISBURG, August 23, 1814.

To Capt. GAWIN HENRY:

SIR: You are hereby authorized to purchase, for the use of your rifle company, forty rifles, such as will bear inspection by a competent judge, provided the whole expense shall not exceed six hundred dollars, which will be paid immediately on the delivery of the rifles at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CHRISTIAN SPAYD.

HARRISBURG, August 25, 1814.

To CHRISTIAN SPAYD, Esq., Brigade Inspector, &c.:

SIR: A requisition having been made, under the authority of the President of the United States, upon the Governor, to order into immediate service five thousand militia from this State, for the defence of the city of Washington, menaced by the enemy, it is contemplated to form the detachment from the counties of Dauphin, Lancaster, and York. Your attendance at this place immediately is required, in order to make the necessary arrangements.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

[NOTE.—Similar letters to the foregoing were at the same time written to Archibald S. Jordan, John Light, and Nathaniel W. Sample, Brigade Inspectors.]

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. WILLIAM H. WINDER.

HARRISBURG, August 26, 1814.

Gen. WILLIAM H. WINDER :

SIR : The Governor, in compliance with the requisition contained in your letter, received the 23d instant, ordered into the service of the United States five thousand men to rendezvous at York, in this State, on the 5th day of September next. It becomes necessary to obtain information whether on that day the necessary tents and other camp equipage can be furnished at that place, the State not being able to furnish more than sufficient to accommodate one thousand men. There will also be a considerable deficiency of arms and accoutrements which the State cannot supply.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,

NOTE.—The following is Gen. Winder's letter on which the foregoing letter is predicated :

William H. Winder to Gov. Simon Snyder.

WASHINGTON CITY, August 18, 1814.

His Excellency SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania :

SIR : In consequence of the arrival of a large re-inforcement to the enemy at the mouth of the Potomac, I am authorized and directed by the President to require from you, immediately, the whole number of the militia of Pennsylvania designed for this district out of the requisition of the 4th July last, to wit : Five thousand men.

The letter of Secretary Boileau, see August 11, has just reached me. It is to be deplored that the situation of the militia of your State is such as Boileau represents. The spirit, however, of the people will, I hope, in this awful crisis, supply all defects of the laws, by voluntarily rallying them around the standard of their country.

The danger to the capital of our country is extreme, and I am authorized by the President, without regard to the designated quotas of the late requisition, to call such militia aid as may be necessary. In the present state of things, therefore, and the imminent danger which threatens my district, I must beg you to call out and send to me, from the counties nearest my district, either as volunteers, or in any other manner, all the force you can detach. This requisition, from the situation of your militia, and the pressing urgency of the occasion, is not clothed in the form which more leisure and a better arrangement of the militia would permit and require; but, since we must rely, it seems, principally upon the voluntary form, I have been unlimited, because, I fear, with all the efforts which can be made, the number obtained will be short of the demand.

I am, sir, with very great respect,

Your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. WINDER,

Brigadier General Commanding Tenth Military District.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN ARMSTRONG.

HARRISBURG, August 27, 1814.

To JOHN ARMSTRONG, Esq., Secretary at War :

SIR : I am directed by the Governor to enclose to you a copy of general orders issued yesterday. The letter of General Winder containing the requisition, under date of 18th inst., was not received until the evening of the 23d. The deranged state of our militia system prevented more prompt compliance with the demand. To obviate, as far as practicable, the inconvenience of delay, the Governor has directed the flank and volunteer companies to push on as rapidly as possible, without any regard to the time fixed on for the general rendezvous of the ordinary drafts. The commanding officers of the companies or detachments are instructed to report themselves, with the number of men, to General Winder, or the officer who may have the command of the troops in the service of the United States in the Tenth military district.

The tents, camp equipage, as well as arms and accoutrements, belonging to the State, being insufficient to accommodate the troops called into service, the Governor relies on the deficiency being supplied by the United States as promptly as practicable, to render the men comfortable and efficient.

With high consideration and respect,

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

To N. B. Boileou, Aid-de-Camp:

The landing upon our shores by the enemy hordes of marauders for the purpose avowedly to create by plunder, burning, and general devastation, all possible individual and public distress, gives scope for action to the militia of Pennsylvania by repelling that foe, and with just indignation seek to avenge the unprovoked wrongs heaped on our unoffending country. The militia, generally within the counties of Dauphin, Lebanon, Berks, Schuylkill, York, Adams, and Lancaster, and that part of Chester county which constitutes the Second brigade of the Third division, and those corps particularly, who, when danger first threatened, patriotically tendered their services in the field, are earnestly invited to rise, (as on many occasions Pennsylvania has heretofore done,) superior to local feeling and evasives that might possibly be drawn from an imperfect military system, and to repair with that alacrity which duty commands, and, it is fondly hoped, inclination will prompt, to the several places of brigade or regimental rendezvous that shall respectively be designated by the proper officer, and thence to march to the place of general rendevous.

Pennsylvanians, whose hearts must be gladdened at the recital of the deeds of heroism achieved by their fellow-citizen soldiers now in arms on the lake frontier and within the enemy's country, now the occasion has occurred, will, with ardour, seek and punish that same implacable foe, now marauding on the Atlantic shores of two of our sister States. Under these impressions, and confident that obedience will be given to the pressing call of our country, the Commander-in-Chief issues the orders, following:

General Orders.

Harrisburg, August 26, 1814.

To John M. Hyneman, Adjutant General:

You are commanded, in conformity to a requisition from the constituted authorities of the Union, to have prepared for marching, and to have marched to York town, in the county of York, the place of rendezvous, five thousand men, Pennsylvania militia, from the Second brigade, Third division, and from the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth division, which detachment is to consist of volunteers who have, or who may tender their services, of flank companies, infantry, and riflemen, who are to march in companies, and of drafted militia designated for service under general orders of the 22d July, last past, which shall be organized into one division and two brigades, (if not otherwise directed,) on the 5th day of September next, agreeably to law, and conformably to the regulations prescribed for the United States Army.

For the command of which division I designate Maj. Gen. Watson and Brig. Gens. John Forster and John Addams. The Major General and the officers and men under him are to obey the commands and execute the orders of Gen. William Winder, commandant for the United States within the Tenth militia district.

The troops may be marched from York, either in division after organization, or in smaller bodies before organization, if it further the service and Gen. Winder shall so direct, and to such place as by him shall be designated.

The term of service to be six months unless sooner discharged by the authority of the United States.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

JOHN M. HYNEMAN TO GEORGE WELSH.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, August 26, 1814.

To GEORGE WELSH, Esq., Inspector Second Brigade, Fifth Division:

SIR: Agreeably to a general order of this day, you will have prepared for marching and have marched to York town, in the county of York, the place of rendezvous, the quota of militia of your brigade, which you were ordered to have detached and organized, by a general order of the 22d July last, on the 5th day of September next.

The infantry and riflemen in your brigade are considered as a part of the quota, and will march in companies. The officers and men must be (as far as practicable) armed and furnished with blankets and knapsacks.

JOHN M. HYNEMEN,
Adjutant General, P. M.

[NOTE.—Similar orders were sent to Messrs. Spayd, Shoemaker, Jordan, Light, Sample, and Stanley, Brigade Inspectors.]

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEORGE WELSH.

HARRISBURG, August 26, 1814.

To GEORGE WELSH, Esq., Inspector Second Brigade, Fifth Division:

SIR: You will direct such volunteers and flank companies as soon as practicable to march on towards Baltimore, or to such other point as your information may enable you to judge most proper at this crisis, without any regard to the time fixed for the general rendezvous, and direct the commanding officer of each company or detachment to report himself to Gen. Winder, or any other officer commanding under the United States.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
A. D. C.

[NOTE.—A similar order and letter were sent to Arch^{d} S. Jordan, Inspector of York county.]

N. B. BOILEAU TO A. S. JORDAN.

HARRISBURG, August 27, 1814.

To A. S. JORDAN, Esq., Brigade Inspector:

SIR: The Adjutant General stated he would write to you with regard to making arrangements to provide provisions for the men as they shall arrive at the place of rendezvous. If he has not, you are hereby authorized to employ some suitable persons for that purpose. I have written to Mr. McCoy, at Carlisle, contractor for the Pennsylvania district, on the same subject. You can communicate also with him. The Adjutant General will be at York in a few days, provided with the means to defray any expenses that may have occurred. All the camp equipage belonging to the State is at Philadelphia. It has been ordered to York. It will not be there until near the close of next week, and is not more than sufficient to supply one thousand. The Secretary at War has authorized the delivery of such articles by the commander of the district. Gen. Winder commands the district of Maryland, the Tenth. The Secretary at War is probably at Fredericktown, and perhaps Gen. Winder is in that neighborhood, to either of whom application might be made for supplies.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. WILLIAM HAMILTON.

HARRISBURG, August 27, 1814.

To Captain WILLIAM HAMILTON:

SIR: The tender of service by you and the other gentlemen composing the corps is cheerfully accepted by the Governor, who directs me to express to you and, through you, to the company, the high sense he feels of your patriotism exhibited at this alarming crisis. You are hereby authorized to purchase the requisite number of rifles to supply the company, the expense of which will be immediately paid at the treasury, on the production of the necessary vouchers for their having been delivered to you. The earlier you march the more gratifying it would be to the Governor. The commissions will be made out with the least possible delay and forwarded to you. A letter was written to Major Light yesterday requesting his immediate attention at this place, for the purpose, among other things, of furnishing him with the means of defraying any expenses that may be incurred in the performance of his duties. By him I hope to have the opportunity of sending the commissions.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HARRISBURG, 27th August, 1814.

To N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

The recent destruction of the capital of the United States, the threatened and probable conflagration of the metropolis of sister States, and the general threatening aspect of affairs, warranting the opinion that an attack is meditated by the enemy on the shores of the Delaware, the Governor, to guard against surprise, and to have ready an efficient force of freemen to repel the enemy in case of such an event, orders and directs that the militia generally, within the counties of Philadelphia, Bucks, Montgomery, Delaware, Chester, Lancaster, Dauphin, Lebanon, Berks, Schuylkill, Lehigh, Northampton, and Pike, (in addition to those drafted and designated for the service of the United States, under orders of the 22d of July, who are already subject to the orders of Gen. Bloomfield,) be held in readiness to march, at a moment's warning, to such place as may be named in subsequent orders that will issue, if the exigencies of our country shall require.

The several Brigade Inspectors, within their respective bounds, are commanded to execute promptly this order. The Generals and other officers are urged to assist in the providing of equipments for the men. Those for whom arms cannot be found, within the respective brigade bounds, will, it is presumed, be furnished by the United States, at the place of rendézvous.

It is confidently expected that the ardor and love of country which pervade the hearts of Pennsylvanians, at the present alarming crisis, will induce many to form themselves into volunteer corps, and immediately to march for Philadelphia. It is thus a proper spirit, to resist an intolerant foe, will be evinced and many difficulties obviated. The Governor promises himself the satisfaction of meeting there an host nerved with resolution to live free or die in defence of their liberties and their country. He will act with them in any capacity for which his talents shall fit him.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO ROBERT McCOY.

SECRETARY'S OFFCE, August 27, 1814.

To ROBERT McCOY, Esq., Contractor:

SIR: In compliance with a requisition made under the authority of the United States, the Governor has ordered into actual service five thousand men, to rendezvous at York on the 5th of next month. It becomes necessary to apprize you of this circumstance, that you may make the necessary arrangements to supply them with rations. It would be proper for you to communicate with Archibald S. Jordan, Inspector of the First brigade, Fifth division, as the flank and volunteer companies are directed to move on as rapidly as possible without any regard to the time fixed for the general rendezvous. The whole detachment will not probably be there at the same time.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEORGE WELSH.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, August 27, 1814.

To GEORGE WELSH, Esq., Brigade Inspector:

SIR: I have this day sent to your care, three hundred stand of State arms and one hundred and eighty-nine cartouch-boxes, for the use of the militia who may volunteer their services to march to the defence of Baltimore, by John Sanderson. I enclose to you fifteen dollars to pay the said Sanderson, on delivery of the arms and boxes, it being the balance for his amount, for which you will please take his receipt, and enclose it to me.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. JACOB EYSTER.

HARRISBURG, August 27, 1814.

Gen. JACOB EYSTER:

SIR: To aid, as far as our scanty means will permit, the patriotic citizens of Gettysburg and its vicinity, who have resolved to march into a neighboring State, and there to assist its citizens to defend against the enemy, the important city of Baltimore, threatened with destruction, I have taken immediate measures that there be transmitted to your care (300) three hundred muskets, (out of about six hundred at this place.) Horsemen's swords and pistols the State possesses not any, nor have we any camp equipage but what remains in Philadelphia, which is ordered to York town, to supply, as far as it will go, five thousand militia from this State, ordered to rendezvous there on the 5th September, and are to be placed under the command of General W. Winder, the commandant for the United States in the Tenth military district. That officer is ordered by the Secretary at War to furnish militia the articles you desire. To him, or to the Secretary at War, both of whom I presume are near you, I would advise an application whilst the volunteers are organizing. The honorable feeling which now pervades the breast of Americans it is hoped will induce a submission to unavoidable inconveniences, and those privations inseparable from war, and induce, also, a reliance, with confidence, for remuneration on the justice of their country. You will please to receipt to the carter for the muskets and cartridge-boxes, and transmit a duplicate thereof to the Secretary of the Commonwealth; and be pleased, also, to make known the contents of this letter to the gentlemen whose resolves you enclosed to me. For them, and for yourself, accept assurances of high respect.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO CHARLES BIDDLE.

HARRISBURG, August 28, 1814.

To CHARLES BIDDLE, Esq.:

SIR: Impressed with the importance of the subject of your communication, under date of the 26th instant, and of information previously received through other channels, I have issued general orders (of which I do myself the honor to inclose a copy) for the assembling at Philadelphia a military force, which, I trust, will prove sufficient to protect the city of Philadelphia, and for the repelling of any enemy that may be thrown on our shore. The other matter contained in your communication in the nature of queries, can be answered when an investigation and closing of the accounts by the Adjutant General has been had. Nor can I perceive it to be of importance to know whether a portion of any specific appropriation is to be applied for the defence of any particular section of the State. The present militia law, however, imperfect in many of its parts it is discovered to be, in its twenty-ninth section has made provision commensurate with any necessary expenditure connected with the militia system. So soon as the necessary arrangements are here made, to permit my absence, I shall have the honor to visit Philadelphia.

I beg you accept for the committee of defence, and for yourself, personally, assurances of consideration and esteem.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

JOHN HYNEMAN, Esq., Adjutant General:

SIR: A warrant has been drawn in your favor for $6,000. The money will meet you at York, in the hands of Mr. Robert Harris, who is appointed paymaster to the detachment to rendezvous at that place, or in the hands of Archibald S. Jordan. It may not be improper to mention to you that, in consequence of the alarm at the city of Philadelphia for the safety of that place, and the pressing solicitations of the citizens, the Governor and myself propose leaving this place to-morrow for the city, to assist in making arrangements for the better security of that section of the State.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

COMMITTEE OF DEFENCE OF PHILADELPHIA TO GOV. SNYDER.

PHILADELPHIA, August 30, 1814.

To his Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: The Committee of Defence were this day informed, that, by an order from the Adjutant General of this Commonwealth, dated the 27th inst., the Brigade Inspectors of the two brigades of the First division of Pennsylvania militia, have been required to forward to York, all the camp equipage, &c. in their possession, and the Deputy Quarter-master General has been required to forward to the same place, all the arms and ammunition belonging to the Commonwealth in this quarter.

The Committee presume that this order was given before there was a knowledge of the necessity there might be for an assemblage of militia in this part of the State, and they have therefore instructed us to represent to your Excellency that all the arms, ammunition, and camp equipage thus ordered, are requisite here, and that there removal might be attended with the most serious injury, and to express their hope that your Excellency will see the propriety of immediately countermanding the order.

The person who bears this letter will wait for your Excellency's answer.

We are, with great respect,
Your Excellencey's most obedient,
GEORGE LATIMER,
JOHN SERGEANT,
JOSEPH REED,
Committee of Correspondence.

P. S.—Under an impression that your Excellency will be here on Thursday, we have concluded to send this by mail.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO MESSRS. THOMPSON BROWNE, JAMES L. CRAFT, AND DUNCAN S. WALKER.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, August 31, 1814,
Half past four, A. M.

TO MESSRS. THOMPSON BROWNE, JAMES L. CRAFT, and DUNCAN S. WALKER, Carlisle:

I have received your letter dated yesterday; but, as the Governor and Secretary of the Commonwealth have gone from this place, in consequence of a very pressing invitation from the councils of Philadelphia, to consult on the best means for defending that city against the enemy, I am not able now to answer your letter addressed to him. It shall be immediately forwarded, by this day's mail, to the Governor, at Philadelphia, and as soon as I am authorized, I will lose no time in communicating his answer to you.

I am, very respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO C. BIDDLE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 2, 1814.

C. BIDDLE, Esq.:

SIR: The Governor has directed me to submit, through you, to the Committee of Defence, the following enquiries, which, he flatters himself, the committee will, as early as possible, answer.

He prefers written communications for many reasons, amongst which are this obvious one, that misapprehensions frequently arise from verbal communications.

First. What is the present state of defence, other than that authorized by Government, as to men, arms, ammunition, equipments, and camp equipage?

Second. How many men, and what species of force are (under the present state of information as to the enemy) deemed necessary for defence?

Third. Have any plans of defence been agreed upon independently of, or in conjunction with the United States Government, and how far (if any have been agreed upon) have they been executed, and what is expected from the Commonwealth?

Fourth. What provision is made by the committee, or by the United States, for the volunteers from the country, as to quarters, rations, and forage.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JACOB G. TRYON AND DANIEL SHARP.

PHILADELPHIA, September 2, 1814.

To JACOB G. TRYON and DANIEL SHARP, Brigade Inspectors, Second and First Brigades, First Division:

SIR: The Governor has directed me to enquire of you what progress has been made in the purchase and procuring by you, in your capacity as Deputy Quarter-master General, of the several articles of military stores and equipments, directed to be purchased and procured under general orders of the 18th July last. You will suspend, until otherwise instructed, the transportation from this city to York, under orders of the Adjutant General of the 27th August last, any ammunition, camp equipage, arms, or other military stores. To prevent unauthorized interferences, it is necessary to state that there is no officer known to our laws other than Brigade Inspectors, or the deputy or deputies of the Adjutant General, in any of the capacities in which, by virtue of his commission, that officer is authorized to act.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

REMONSTRANCE OF PHILADELPHIA VOLUNTEERS.

CAMP BLOOMFIELD, September 2, 1814.

Brig. Gen. BLOOMFIELD, Commander-in-Chief of the Fourth Military District:

SIR: The undersigned officers of the volunteer corps now encamped at Kennett Square, beg leave to address you on a subject closely connected with the welfare of the companies under their command.

If the services expected from them are worth exacting, they conceive that they should be enabled correctly to perform them, and finding obstacles to their improvement and utility, they would be wanting in their duty to the cause in which they serve were they to omit to represent them.

They left the city under an impression, founded no less upon their own belief in the incompetency of the commanding officer of the draft of Pennsylvania militia, than upon assurances, derived as they understood from yourself, that he would have no opportunity to expose their honor or their lives.

They were informed that they should either be permitted to select their own leaders, or that officers of the United States Army, on whose experience, talents, and tried integrity they might cheerfully and confidently repose, would direct their operations. Having been disappointed in these expectations, they trust that it will be no departure from military duty or violation of respect for theservice in which they are now enrolled, to suggest their earnest and united desires that the person who now officiates as the commanding officer at this camp, may be superseded in his command. Of his utter incompetency, arising perhaps principally from a total want of experience, they are compelled to express their firmest conviction. Whether the battalion be designed promptly to meet a well appointed and experienced enemy, or to undergo a course of dicipline preparatory for future services, they conceive themselves equally interested in a change. To your own sense of what is due to them and their corps they submit these suggestions, and merely will add that if consistent with the arrangements of your district, they will gladly place themselves under the command of Maj. Charles W. Hunter, a gentleman who has been long known to some of them, and whose deportment, since their immediate connection with him began, has inspired them all with the utmost confidence.

We have the honor to be, with the utmost respect,

Sir, your most obedient servants,

CONDY RAGUET,

Captain, First Company Washington Guards.

JOHN R. MIFFLIN,
First Lieutenant, First Company Washington Guards.
T. J. WHARTON,

CONDY RAGUET TO THOS. CADWALLADER.

CAMP BLOOMFIELD,
KENNETT SQUARE, September 3, 1814.

THOS. CADWALLADER, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: I take the liberty of making a communication to you, which, though not to be considered as official, may, perhaps, be serviceable to you as a member of the sub-committee of defence.

Colonel Berry made his appearance here on the 1st inst., and took command of this encampment on the 2d. He was accompanied by Major Bozarth, as commander of the battalion of militia. Immediately on the Colonel's arrival the officers of the battalion of volunteers held a conference, which resulted in a resolution to protest against his continuance in command, and, in consequence thereof, a remonstrance to General Bloomfield upon the subject was prepared and signed by all the officers present in the camp, without a single exception. In order to save the feelings of Mr. Berry, a copy of the address and signatures was communicated to him, accompanied by a note, in which it was stated that if he would resign, the remonstrance would be suppressed. He has made no communication in answer thereto, and the document has been, officially, handed to Major Hunter, the Brigade Major of General Bloomfield.

Yesterday Major Vogdes appeared, and it was announced on parade this morning, in orders, that he would take command of the battalion of volunteers precisely at twelve o'clock. Captain Biddle and myself felt it incumbent upon us to state to him the sentiments which were entertained by the officers upon this occurrence, and explicitly declared to him, that "there was not an officer or soldier in the battalion of volunteers that would march into action under Colonel Berry, or either of his field officers, and that the proper course for them to pursue was to withdraw from their respective commands."

Now as these gentlemen have not yet manifested any intention of this kind, it is absolutely necessary that these officers be removed, or the troops at this encampment cannot be viewed as an effective force. The difficulty, I think, can be remedied in one way only, which is to get the Major General to organize the volunteers now in camp, and those expected to join us, into a regiment. This would, perhaps, be practicable, and would, I think, be satisfactory to all. I am clearly of opinion that the Committee of Defence should interefere in this business, and endeavor to remove the obstacles which are so injurious to the public service.

Captain Biddle is well, and is acquainted with my intention to write to you upon this subject.

Yours respectfully,

CONDY RAGUET.

DEAR SIR: I perfectly concur with Captain Raguet in the opinion he has expressed, as to the immediate necessity of organizing the volunteers at this camp into a regiment, as the only mode of rendering our services efficient. Should the present militia field-officers continue in command here, the most alarming confusion will certainly take place.

Most truly yours,

CLEMENT C. BIDDLE.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CHARLES BIDDLE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 3, 1814.

To CHARLES BIDDLE, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Defence:

SIR: I have it in charge from the Governor, in answer to your letter of the 30th August last, to inform the Committee of Defence that he has ordered a suspension, until further orders, of the order by the Adjutant General, dated 27th same month, directing the transportation, to York town, of camp equipage, &c. It is deemed proper that the committee be informed that no officer coming under the denomination of Deputy Quarter-master General can exist under the present militia law.

Very respectfully, sir,

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO DANIEL SHARP.

HEAD-QUARTERS,
PHILADELPHIA, September 3, 1814.

To DANIEL SHARP, Esq., Inspecter of the First Brigade, First Division:

SIR: The Governor directs that in your capacity of Deputy Commissary General, you provide rations for the Pennsylvania militia who have and shall volunteer their services and march to this place, in compliance with the general orders issued at Harrisburg on the 27th of August last, and that in your capacity of Deputy Quarter-master General you provide them with good quarters.

By order of the Governor.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Aid-de-Camp.

[NOTE.—A similar order was issued to Jacob G. Tryan.]

SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. JOSEPH BLOOMFIELD.

HEAD-QUARTERS,
PHILADELPHIA, September 3, 1814.

Brig. Gen. JOSEPH BLOOMFIELD:

SIR: It is of importance at this eventful crisis to know how much of the ordnance, small arms, ammunition, military stores, and camp equipage now deposited in the United States arsenal near this city, can, in case of emergency, be furnished on your order for the Pennsylvania militia, in conformity to any order you may have received from the Secretary at War. If, as is represented, there are in the arsenal a quantity of rifles, the best weapon in the hands of undisciplined men, it is desired to know whether any of them and how many can be had on loan, or on any other terms, for the use of such of our militia who are now or that may eventually be ordered into service.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN GOODMAN.

No. 6 North Fourth Street,
Philadelphia, September 3, 1814.

To John Goodman, Esq.:

Sir: When the Governor had the pleasure to see you at his quarters, you mentioned that you knew of a number of muskets in this city that were for sale; and as he is determined to purchase some good arms for the Commonwealth, he requests, through me, the favor of you to let him know the name of the person or persons who have such to dispose of.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN REITZEL.

Philadelphia, September 3, 1814.

To John Reitzel, Esq.:

Sir: Your letter of the 31st ult. was not delivered to the Governor till yesterday, consequently you could not have an answer within the period requested.

As the militia that are drafted, as part of the detachment which are ordered to rendezvous at York town on Monday next, will have marched before this reaches you, it is not now necessary to answer that part of your letter which relates to those that have been drafted. I shall, therefore, only observe that, if the contemplated volunteer corps bring themselves within the provisions of the militia law, commissions will be granted to the officers that may be elected.

The patriotic feeling of you and your associates is highly and justly appreciated by the Governor, and he trusts that your example, and that of others in Lancaster, will have the happy effect to excite in may more the like spirit which has influenced your conduct.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

HEAD-QUARTERS,
PHILADELPHIA, 3*d September*, 1814.

To JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Esq., Adjutant General:

SIR: You are directed and required, upon the organization of the detachment of militia at York town, to repair immediately to this place.

Yours, &c.,
SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO SECRETARY AT WAR.

PHILADELPHIA, September 3, 1814.

To Secretary at War:

SIR: I am directed by the Governor to apprise you, that one thousand muskets, deposited in the United States arsenal, near this city, assigned to Pennsylvania as part of the quota from the United States, have by mistake, he presumes, been delivered by the order of Gen. Bloomfield to a detachment of militia from this city, and now in the service of the United States. Before the Governor was informed of the disposition of the arms by Gen. Bloomfield, he had directed them to be transported to York town to be placed in the hands of the militia who were ordered to rendezvous there on the 5th instant, in consequence of a requisition made by Gen. Winder, and who were not furnished before their arrival at that place.

The consequences likely to result from this measure, may prove detrimental to the public service, unless the same number of arms be immediately delivered by the United States in their stead, at York, the place of rendezvous of the detachment.

With high respect and consideration,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 4, 1814.

His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: The uncertainty existing, respecting the movements of the enemy, at this time, calls the attention of the government, with much interest, to those cities which are most likely, by their wealth and importance, to invite an invasion. Among these Philadelphia holds a distinguished place. Everything will be done for their defence that may be practicable.

The distance not being too great, the force called into service for the defence of each, acting in combination, must, so far as circumstances will permit, contribute to the defence of the whole. I have the honor to enclose you a copy of a letter to General Bloomfield, which will explain more fully the views of the President on this subject, and to assure you that I shall be happy to communicate with you fully on the measures which may be deemed necessary for the defence of our country, and to coöperate with you in the same.

I have the honor to be,

Your Excellency's most obedient servant,

JAS. MONROE.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 4, 1814.

His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: By accounts from the mouth of the Patuxent, at nine o'clock last night, the enemy's fleet, with all their troops on board, was still suspended there, awaiting, as was supposed, the return of the squadron from the Potomac. Every effort which the means in possession of the Government have permitted has been made, and is still making, to cut off their retreat and destroy this squadron. Many gallant officers of the navy have united their exertions with those of the land forces in this undertaking, and much hope is entertained that it will not be unvailing. It is possible that the force at the mouth of the Patuxent may, in case this squadron should be put in imminent danger, attempt to relieve it. Such an attempt would only be made by an attack on our batteries, which might be approached either by land from the Patuxent to the Potomac, or by sailing up the Potomac. For either of these movements, the best preparations will be made here that circumstances will permit.

It is equally possible that the force at the mouth of the Patuxent has already moved either against Baltimore, Philadelphia, Norfolk, or Richmond. That it will soon move against some one of those places cannot well be doubted. Desolation is its object, and the wider it is spread the more completely will that object be accomplished. It is known that the enemy promises themselves, from the waste of our country and distress of our people, a base submission to their will. Little do they understand the true character of this virtuous and free nation. They deceived themselves by those visionary calculations in our revolution, and the result of this contest will prove that the American people are not less faithful to their principles than the British Government is to its vindicative and barbarous policy.

Should either of these cities be invaded, all possible support will be given to it by the Government. The force already organized in the defence of each will be relied on principally, especially in the first instance, for the purpose.

But as the enemy, in making either the distinct object of their vengeance, relieving the others, for the moment, from the pressure, a portion of the force assembled for the defence of the latter may be spared for that of a neighboring sister town. This object will be attended by the Government in due time; and I state it, that having it view, you may be enabled to give it the best effect which circumstances will permit.

The city of Philadelphia, I am aware, offers by its wealth a strong inducement to the enemy to make an attempt on it. Its population, however, being great, its organized and well trained force considerable, much confidence is entertained that it will make a defence worthy the high character which it sustains with the nation.

To repel such danger, it will be necessary for you to have your force in the best possible preparation for action; to watch the enemy's movements in every direction, and to communicate to me without delay every circumstance deserving of attention.

I have the honor to be, with
Great respect, your very obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

JAMES MONROE TO N. B. BOILEAU.

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 4, 1814.

To N. B. BOILEAU, Secretary of State, Pennsylvania:

SIR: Your letters of August 27th and 28th, have been received. Orders have been given for depositing at Carlisle, ten thousand stand of arms and equipments, to meet the exigencies of the times in supplying such militia as may be called into the actual service for the defence of the sea board. These will be made subject to the requisition of the Governor of Pennsylvania, with the provision that such as may be received must be receipted for conformably to the provisions of the act for arming the whole body of militia.

Such arms and equipments as may be taken from the public stores at Philadelphia, must be receipted for in the same way.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

JAMES TRIMBLE TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

HARRISBURG, September 5, 1814.

To JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Adjutant General:

SIR: I acknowledge the receipt of your letter by Mr. Bryan. About an hour before the Governor left this place on Tuesday last, I had some conversation with him about sending some blank commissions to the place of rendezvous; at first he seemed inclined to order them on, but at length, upon further consideration, he concluded that it would not be necessary, and directed me to fill up and issue those that he had signed from time to time as returns would be made to the office. This I have done, as far as returns have been made by the inspectors, without waiting for returns from you. Those returns must be made by you, hereafter, from the returns we have. Considering, however, the urgency of the business, the delay that may happen in writing for the returns, and afterwards sending on the commissions, and being satisfied that you will not issue the commissions without having regular returns and vouchers, I have ventured to forward to you, by express, fifty blank commissions for officers elected under the provision of the militia law for seven years, and thirty-two of another description, intended for officers of volunteer corps that have engaged for short periods, and who are not within the districts called upon or ordered into service, for which you will give the express a receipt, expressing the number of blanks and description of the commissions. Of all the commissions that you issue, you will please to forward to this office a correct list to be entered in your books.

I am, respectfully,
Your friend,
JAMES TRIMBLE,
Deputy Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. JOHN CONNELLY.

PHILADELPHIA, September 5, 1814.

To Col. JOHN CONNELLY:

SIR: It has been represented to the Governor that there is a brass field-piece in the neighborhood of Sites' tavern, on the Lancaster turnpike road. The Governor requests you to enquire into the fact; and you, or any person you may appoint, are authorized to demand and receive from any person in whose possession said piece may be, and have the same brought to this place and put into complete repair for field service.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO MESSRS. GROVES & WORRELL.

PHILADELPHIA, September 5, 1814.

To Messrs. GROVES & WORRELL, Contractors for Building the Arsenal:

GENTLEMEN: Not having received an answer to my letter addressed to you some time since, on subject of the State Arsenal, and the various representations made to the Governor with regard to its situation. I am directed to urge you to make report, to him, of the state of that building, whether it is completed and sufficiently clean and fit to receive arms, camp equipage, &c., which may be procured for the use of the Commonwealth.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO THOMAS CADWALADER.

PHILADELPHIA, September 6, 1814.

To THOMAS CADWALADER, Chairman of Sub-Committee:

SIR: The resolution adopted by the Committee of Defence, dated yesterday, presented to the Governor by the sub-committee, of which you are the chairman, contemplating an application by him to the Secretary at War, for permission to the city of Philadelphia to enlist three regiments of infantry, to be employed in the service of the United States in this military district, is not, in his opinion, sufficiently explicit on the head of expense which may be incurred by such a measure, in the first instance, nor as to what is eventually expected from the United States.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. NATH'L WATSON.

PHILADELPHIA, September 6, 1814.

To Gen. NATH'L WATSON:

SIR: I enclose to you a copy of a letter from the Secretary at War. By this you will perceive a deposit of arms and equipments is made at Carlisle, for supplying the militia called into the service of the United States, and made subject to the requisition of the Governor. His requisition is enclosed. The next day after the Governor issued his orders I wrote to the Secretary at War and to General Winder, informing them of the deficiency of arms, equipments, and camp equipage, for the detachment ordered to rendezvous at York, urging that provision should be made to meet that deficiency. I fear, however, that, owing to the confusion that probably occurred in consequence of the disasters at Washington, it has not been made. I trust, however, that the patriotism of the men under your command is such that they will submit cheerfully to privations that were out of the power of the Governor, or the United States, to prevent. It would be gratifying to the Governor to hear from you.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO THE KEEPER OF MILITARY STORES AT CARLISLE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 6, 1814.

To the Keeper of Military Stores at Carlisle:

SIR: Please to deliver to the order of Gen. Nathaniel Watson, such number of muskets and equipments as he may require to supply the militia under his command at York, who have been called into the service of the United States. And also such a number of tents and camp equipage as he may require for the accommodation of the men. For which articles, upon evidence being furnished of their being supplied, I will give the proper receipt.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(Copy.)

JAMES MONROE TO GEN. BLOOMFIELD.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, April 6, 1814.

Brig. Gen. BLOOMFIELD, Philadelphia:

SIR: I have had the honor to receive your letter of the 2d of this month, by Col. Duane, Adjutant General of the Fourth District.

Considering the city of Philadelphia by its wealth and importance a principal object of the enemy in the desolating and barbarous system of warfare which it has adopted, my attention was drawn to it, with a view to its protection, as soon as I took charge, by request of the President of this Department, although at the time many of its duties, particularly the operations in the neighborhood of this city, pressed heavily on me. The passage of the enemy's squadron down the Potomac, notwithstanding the opposition made to it, while it has relieved us from pressure here, increase our apprehension for other exposed cities.

It is the decided opinion of the President, that preparation for the defense of the city of Philadelphia should be made without delay, and on an enlarged scale, looking, nevertheless to important and essential points, and carrying the measures adopted into effect with the utmost degree of economy.

The approach of the enemy to the city by water ought to be rendered utterly impracticable, which it is presumed may be soon done. For this purpose a strong work at the pea patch appears to me to be an object of great importance, another at Mud Island, cannot fail to be very useful. Batteries on the shore contiguous to those places may be necessary for their support; and at other points slight works for the annoyance of the squadron as it moves up, should the attempt be made.

Gen. Swift, aided by Gen. Williams, will be able to decide on the proper plans in each instance, and to execute what may be decided on. What works it may be proper to erect for the defense of the city by land, it is impossible for me to suggest at this distance, with such information as I possess of the land force which the enemy may take against it, and of the force which we may have there to oppose it, my decided opinion is that wherever the enemy may land, we should have a force there to oppose them; that we should attack them by light parties, if not at the moment equal to them in the field, and never give them a moment's rest. The enemy's force at this time ought not to be estimated at less than eight thousand men; the soundest opinion seems to be, that they brought up against this city not less than five, and many persons who had good opportunities of obtaining correct information think that it exceeded six. Hence then some re-inforcements have been received, and we ought to count on others. I think, therefore, that the preparation for the defense of the city of Philadelphia should be formed on that scale. It may not be necessary to call the whole force alluded to immediately into the field, but a respectable force from counties at some distance, which could not be brought into service in time to repel the invasion after it should be made, should the call be so long delayed, ought to be assembled, and a camp formed of it at some proper point without the city, bearing on the quarter from which the enemy may be expected to approach. The precise point at which this camp ought to be formed I cannot pretend to designate. I am inclined to think that it ought to be on some commanding healthy ground between the Schuylkill and the heights of the Brandywine. Should such a camp be formed of a force drawn from counties not immediately in the neighborhood of the city, and every arrangement necessary for it, and for the additional force which the contemplated invasion may require be employed, it is presumed that the additional force to be drawn from the city and the neighboring counties may in that event soon be brought into activity. By this suggestion I do not mean that any force now collected not exceeding the number requisite from whatever quarters drawn, should at this time be dismissed. We must keep together a nucleus, at least of an army, with every necessary equipment sufficiently strong to oppose the enemy on his landing, till you can get the whole together to overwhelm him.

The force assembled must be armed at once, and arms must be collected for any force which may be hereafter called into the field. The Commissary General will be instructed to procure such arms and tents as are necessary.

In the present state of affairs here, it is impossible to remit to you the money which may be absolutely necessary for these purposes. I have, however, already accepted a draft in favor of Mr. McKoy, which has satisfied that demand; and to put you at your ease for the future, I transmit to you a letter of credit on the Bank of Pennsylvania, for the sum of $200,000, which I hope the directors will not hesitate to advance as you may require it, especially as the whole sum will be expended in the payment of the troops, and in erecting works for the defence of the city.

In carrying these objects into effect, a free communication will be proper and eminently useful with the Government of Pennsylvania and the Committee of Safety in Philadelphia; on their support full confidence is reposed; on it, and on the virtue and patriotism of the citizens of Pennsylvania, the safety of the city may depend; and by reposing full confidence in them, you will do them only justice, and by appealing to, and relying on, generous motives, you will secure to the execution of necessary measures, by their powerful coöperation, greater utility and effect.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

(Signed) JAMES MONROE.

N. B. BOILEAU TO TIMOTHY BANGER.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7, 1814.

TO TIMOTHY BANGER, Esq., of the office of the Commissary General's Department:

SIR: The Governor has received your letter of yesterday, covering an order by the War Department, dated 3d inst., directing that you should issue, on the requisition of the Governor, from the stores of the Commissary General of Purchase, arms and equipments. It is of importance to know in time what may be the quantity of the several articles at your disposition, so that should there be deficiencies, the energies of the State may be exerted in procuring the necessary supply.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

SIMON SNYDER TO THE SECRETARY AT WAR.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7, 1814.

To the Honorable Secretary at War:

SIR: I have the honor to submit to you a copy of a resolution adopted by the Committee of Defence for the city of Philadelphia. Its importance, I presume, will command an early attention, and. if consistent with the arrangements of the War Department, an immediate compliance with the request it contains.

The application to enlist troops to be employed exclusively in this military district is made with the greater confidence of success, because the citizens of New York (as it is said) have a similar species of force assigned for their protection. I enclose, also, copies of a short correspondence between the Secretary of the Commonwealth and a chairman of a sub-committee of the committee of defence, from which will be learned more particularly the views of the committee as regards the expense of the contemplated measure.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO COL. THOMAS HUMPHREY.

PHILADELPHIA, September 7, 1814.

To Col. THOMAS HUMPHREY:

SIR: The Governor directs, that in case the field piece belonging to the company formerly commanded by you requires repairs that cannot be made in the country, that you will direct it to be brought to Philadelphia for that purpose. Direct it to the care of Daniel Sharp, Esq., Inspector of the First Brigade, First Division. If the company are organized and prepared to march, let them come on immediately, and their piece will be returned to them in good repair, if sent to this place for that purpose. You will urge their preparation, as well as all other volunteer companies within the bounds of your regiment.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO BRIG. GEN. BLOOMFIELD.

PHILADELPHIA, September 8, 1814.

To Brig. Gen. BLOOMFIELD, Commanding Fourth Military District:

SIR: I have in contemplation to make a suggestion to the Secretary at War, to order the detachment of five thousand Pennsylvania militia that rendezvous at York on the 5th inst., for the defence of the city and the shores of the Delaware, if occurrences on the Chesapeake do not urge their march there, agreeably to Gen. Winder's requisition. But before I do so, the high consideration I have for the commandant of this military district, dictates this communication. If, sir, it has your approbation, I will feel obliged for a statement of the force you now have, or contemplating in the field in a short time.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

TIMOTHY BANGER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

COMMISSARY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
PHILADELPHIA, September 8, 1814.

N. B. BOILEAU, Esq.:

SIR: In reply to your letter of the 7th instant, I have the honor to communicate the following information: There is now on hand the following arms. Their condition is as correctly described as it is in my power. From the total amount, however, 3,500 must be deducted, as they have been ordered for the States of New Jersey and Delaware and for Fort Mifflin. Those for the fort are brass mounted British muskets.

1,640	Springfield muskets, fit for service.
1,200	French	do.	do.
1,465	English	do.	do.
1,520	Contract	do.	do.

3,000 English muskets will be fit for issue in one week.

2,117 German muskets unfit for service, and will require much repair to make them in any respect serviceable.

4,200 Contract muskets also wanting very considerable repairs.

There are not a sufficient quantity of equipments in store to comply with existing orders.

A number of rifles are in store which might, perhaps, be rendered fit for service, at least a part of them, originally 1,700. Perhaps 200 of them have been issued.

The camp equipage in store is as follows, viz:

Wall tents,	357
Flys for tents,	270
Common tents,	485
Camp kettles,	1.220
Mess pans,	249
Bell tents,	400

Canteens, several thousand; 1,800 hatchets and about 3,000 axes. Powder, a very large quantity.

Not having received Mr. Taylor's statement until after two o'clock, it was out of my power to make you an earlier communication.

With great respect, I am, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
TIMOTHY BANGER,
for C. IRVINE, Commissary General.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

PHILADELPHIA, September 9, 1814.

To JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq.:

SIR: By a letter from the Secretary at War, dated the 4th inst., the Governor is informed that he has ordered to be deposited at Carlisle, subject to the order of the Governor, ten thousand stands of arms and equipments. If they are deposited there, if not, as soon as they arrive, the Governor directs that you have five thousand stands of those arms, with the requisite proportion of equipments, transported to this place, with the least possible delay. You have herewith enclosed a requisition of the Governor, authorizing you to receive them. Direct to Major Sharp.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN WILLIAMS.

PHILADELPHIA, September 9, 1814.

To JOHN WILLIAMS, Esq., Chairman:

SIR: I accord, in sentiment and opinion, with the sub-committee of defence, dated the 3d inst., (a copy of which has been submitted to me by General John Steele, a member of said committee,) on the subject of a communication to the committee, from the corresponding committee of the Northern Liberties, wherein they request that the Commiteee of Defence will take measures to enable the several district committees to give a pledge that the members of organized volunteer corps, whose service shall have been accepted by the committee, shall not be liable to militia duty, "For the obvious reasons that (however much is to be applauded the general American spirit which prompts the volunteer tender of service under consideration, and however willing to foster it) it is not competent for the constituted authorities of this, or of the United States, without the express sanction of law, to employ, for local purposes, and in a particular manner, any such volunteer associations.

SIMON SNYDER.

SIMON SNYDER TO JAMES MONROE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 9, 1814.

To JAMES MONROE, Esq., acting Secretary at War:

SIR: If the army now assembled at Baltimore be deemed adequate to a defence of that place, against any disposable force which the enemy may land on the shores of the Chesapeake, I would like the liberty to suggest, if consistent with other arrangements, the propriety of employing the detachment of Pennsylvania militia that rendezvoused at York town on the 5th instant, for the defence of this city and the shores of the Delaware. This suggestion grows from strong doubts whether a sufficient force can, on a sudden emergency, be collected on the shores of the Delaware to repel an invading foe. For we must, at present, rely more on the patriotic feeling which pervades Pennsylvania, than on coercing obedience to our militia law, and before that feeling may have an effect, the enemy, by rapid movements, may have effected his depredatory incursions. If this suggestion cannot be acceded to, then I would beg leave to intimate that it might contribute to the security of this city, as well as of Baltimore, if an intermediate point was selected for the encampment of the detachment, from which it might be marched in a few days either to the Delaware or Chesapeake.

SIMON SNYDER.

SIMON SNYDER TO JACOB G. TRYON.

PHILADELPHIA, September 10, 1814.

To JACOB G. TRYON, Inspector of the Second Brigade, First Division:

SIR: Believing from my own observation, as well as from the information of others, that the task at present of discharging the various duties attached to your office is too great for the exertions of any individual, I therefore authorize you to employ one person at the expense of the Commonwealth, to assist you in performing the same during the period for which you may supply and furnish the volunteer corps, who have, or are now assembling at Philadelphia, under general orders of the 27th of August last, and for whose conduct you are to be responsible.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JAMES MONROE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 10, 1814.

JAMES MONROE, Esq., Acting Secretary at War:

SIR: In pursuance of an invitation in your general order of the 27th August last, about six hundred volunteers have arrived and many others are on their march hither, for the defence of this city. They are organized into companies and officered agreeably to the militia law of this State, which admits of some of volunteer companies to consist of forty-five privates. It has been suggested by Gen. Bloomfield that they form a camp at Marcus Hook, about twenty miles from this city, and be organized conformably to regulations adopted by the army of the United States, and to be place under his command. They evince a disposition cheerfully to march to and serve at any point to which they may be directed. But as each company volunteered their services under the impression that they would be commanded by officers of their own choosing, a right guaranteed to them by the law of the state, they would not readily submit to a consolidation of companies, or any organization that would divest them of their legal privileges; and an attempt to enforce the measure would, I apprehend, be attended with consequences highly injurious to the public service. I would, therefore, propose that after they shall have been organized into battalions and regiments, agreeably to the militia law of this State, they could be placed and continued so organized, under the command of Gen. Bloomfield for three months, the term for which they tendered their services. I shall only add that no other mode occurs to me at present by which harmony can be maintained.

I am, sir, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

SIMON SNYDER TO CAPT WERSLER.

GENERAL ORDERS.

PHILADELPHIA, September 11, 1814.

To Capt. —— WERSLER:

You are hereby constituted and appointed major commandant, for the time being, of the volunteers encamped at and near the city hospital. And you are hereby authorized and required to introduce and enforce all requisite discipline, and the police in the camp to promote the order, health, and comfort of the troops. And all officers and soldiers are required and enjoined to pay strict obedience to all such orders as you may deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp.

N. B. BOILEAU TO MAJ. HUNTER.

PHILADELPHIA, September 12, 1814.

To Maj. HUNTER:

SIR: Your tender of service this morning, I have communicated to the Governor. He highly appreciates your patriotic motives, and, wishing to avail himself of the benefit of your military talents and experience, requests the favor of you to assist the major commandant of the detachment of volunteers now stationed at the city hospital, in instructing the officers and men in their respective duties, and in establishing a camp police, which may promote discipline and preserve the health of the troops.

With much consideration and respect,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. NAGLEE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 12, 1814.

To Capt. NAGLEE :

SIR : I enclose herewith, for your company officers, their commissions, which you will have the goodness to deliver to the proper persons. The Governor has been informed that John Shull, who belonged to your company, has been elected Major under the new militia law, and as such was engaged in holding elections within the bounds of his battalion, agreeably to law. That this morning a file of men from your company has arrested him, and taken him to your camp. The Governor considers this procedure, if the statement be correct, as improper and unlawful, and hopes that this expression of his opinion will produce an immediate release.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. CADWALADER.

GENERAL ORDERS.

PHILADELPHIA, September 12, 1814.

To Brig. Gen. THOMAS CADWALADER :

You are hereby designated commandant of the militia volunteers and drafts detached from the First brigade, First division of Pennsylvania militia, for the service of the United States, under General Bloomfield, commandant for the said United States, within the fourth military district, and now encamped at Kennett Square, to be formed into one brigade, agreeably to the regulations establishe for the army of the Union. And in discipline, as well as all other duties that are attached to your office of Brigadier General, you will conform to the rules and customs of the said army.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CHARLES BIDDLE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 12, 1814.

TO CHARLES BIDDLE, Esq., Chairman of Committee of Defence:

SIR: The Governer concurs as to the propriety and necessity of adopting all the measures suggested in a report of the General Committee of Defence, dated the 8th, and presented the 9th instant, by their chairman, and is willing to adopt any legal or constitutional means in his power to carry those measures into full and complete operation, but he, in common with the Committee, feels not only the responsibility, but the difficulty, if not impracticability, of enforcing them, so long as no authority can be legally exercised to compel their enforcement. He is sensible that at a crisis like the present it is expected he will exercise not only all the authority appertaining to him as the "first civil magistrate of Pennsylvania," but also all that of "its military commander-in-chief," nor is he at all desirous to shrink from the performance of any duty, or the exercise of any authority which he can constitutionally exercise in either of those capacities. He has, therefore, assiduously examined the constitution and the laws, and he is not aware that it is in his power to compel the people to do the things which the committee have suggested. Under this view of the subject he asks permission to observe that if the General Committee of Defence will prefer for publication a report of the several duties which, under all circumstances, may be imposed upon the citizens, as means of impeding, distressing, or in any way annoying the enemy, that he will cordially and promptly coöperate in recommending their adoption, and in giving them all the effect which can be derived from his official station. He embraces this occasion to state to the committee that the removal up the river, as far as the water will admit, of all the ships and crafts not contemplated to be employed in the general defence, as a measure imperiously called for. It would now be attended with little comparative expense, and it might be better appropriated.

With high consideration and respect,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

PHILADELPHIA, 13*th September*, 1814.

To N. B. BOILEAU, JOHN BINNS, and WILLIAM DUNCAN, Aids-de-Camp:

In conformity with the thirty-first section of an act entitled "An act for the regulations of the militia of this Commonwealth," the Governor directs that the uniform of the Pennsylvania militia shall be as follows:

GENERAL OFFICERS.—Their coats to be blue, faced and lined with buff. They may embroider the button-holes on the collar. Their epaulettes, sword mounting, buttons, spurs, buckles, and trimmings to be gold or gilt. Buff vests, breeches or pantaloons.

THE GENERAL STAFF AND FIELD OFFICERS.—To wear chapeaux of the following form: The fan not less than six and a half, nor more than nine inches high in the rear, nor less than fifteen, nor more than seventeen inches from point to point, bound round the edge with black binding half an inch wide. The wearing of feathers is dispensed with. The company officers may, with the consent of the field officers of the regiment to which they belong, wear any other uniform hat than the chapeau.

The coat of the Infantry and Artillery shall be blue, edged with red. It shall be single-breasted, and have ten buttons, the length to reach to the bend of the knee. The standing collar to rise to the tip of the ear. The cuffs shall be plain, of the same color of the coat, and not less than three nor more than three and a half inches wide; the bottom of the breast and two hip buttons to range. Vest, breeches, and pantaloons white. Blue pantaloons may be worn in the winter. Vest single-breasted, without pocket-flaps.

Epaulettes, sword mounting, buttons, spurs, buckles, and trimmings of the Artillery, gold or gilt; those of the Infantry, silver or plated. The sword to be of the saber form.

Black stock, of leather or silk; cockade blue and red, of leather or silk. It is recommended that the cockade be always worn on duty, or in service, or when in requisition. Volunteer corps may select their own uniform, but the cockade of the State cannot be dispensed with. It is earnestly recommended to the officers of the militia to use their best exertions in their several commands to induce the non-commissioned officers to wear worsted epaulettes. That the expense may not be an obstacle, it is ordered that their uniform be a gray coatee, and pantaloons of the same color. In summer, hunting shirts and trowsers may be worn. A round black hat, the rim not to exceed three inches. Any particulars not above prescribed may be supplied by reference to the regulations prescribed for the army of the United States.

As a due proportion of military pride and uniformity of dress is important to form the character of a soldier, it is expected that every man who may be called upon to defend his home, his country, and his rights, will exert himself promptly, to carry these orders into complete effect. It is judged proper to embrace this occasion to recommend to officers and men to procure all the materials for clothing and equipments of American manufacture.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO THOMAS LEIPER.

PHILADELPHIA, September 13, 1814.

To THOMAS LIEPER, Esq.:

SIR: In answer to an inquiry contained in a resolution of the general committee presented last evening to the Governor, he directs me to state that Gen. Bloomfield having ordered into service the troops for the service of the United States from the Second brigade, First division, he will have in the field shortly four thousand men. About seven hundred men, volunteers under general orders of the Governor of the 27th ult., have arrived, and are now encamped at the city hospital, it is confidently believed the number will increase to two thousand men during the present week. Some volunteer companies from the city have made a tender of their services, the number is not ascertained, nor how many of those patriotic corps are now in the field under Gen. Bloomfield.

The Governor, by a letter of the 7th inst., has suggested to the War Department in defence of this city, the five thousand men, Pennsylvania militia, now at York, originally destined for the command of Gen. Winder.

Independently of the four thousand men now in the field, and ordered out by Gen. Bloomfield, there yet remains detached for the service of the United States, five thousand militia subject to the orders of Gen. Bloomfield. The Governor takes the liberty through me, to suggest to the committee, who have more immediately the subject of fortifications under their superintending care, that if the works planned and projected by Gen. Williams were actually commenced, it would attract the attention of the citizens of the adjacent country to that important object, and prove a strong incitement to aid in their execution. If the intimation should be attended to, and some persons placed at each of the contemplated fortifications, under the direction of a competent person, the Governor would then deem it proper for him to recommend to all civil and military officers and others in the vicinity of the respective works, to render volunteer aid in their erection.

With high respect and consideration,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

PHILADELPHIA, September 13, 1814, late at night.

To JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Esq., Adjutant General Pennsylvania Militia, at York:

SIR: Yours to Mr. Trimble of the 9th instant is now before me, having been forwarded to this place by express.

The old commissions of militia officers designated for service are not expired. See thirty-sixth section of the present militia law, third paragraph. They must command the drafts, unless they relinquish voluntarily to the new officers. That drafts under the old law, which directs there shall be eight classes, and that eight companies shall form a regiment, shall be commanded by officers elected under the new law, which directs there shall be ten classes and ten companies in each regiment, is an absurdity. It was because there could be no drafts made under the new law, until after a classification, which is to take place after the fourth Monday in October next. That the general orders of the 22d July last were framed as they are, having express reference to the old law. Commissions, such as can lawfully issue, are forwarded by John Osler, the express. If any further difficulties should occur, because commissions of the form required should happen not to be now forwarded, let the troops, notwithstanding, march, and forward their names, rank, &c., and such commissions as can lawfully issue should be sent to them. The officers of those companies who have volunteered their services, having associated, perhaps, with a view to obviate the difficulties created by the present law, may have commissions as volunteers; but let them be for seven years. The next Legislature, I am sure, will be disposed to correct the vast and manifold evils of the present law.

Your presence here is absolutely necessary. So various and multiplied are the duties of the Brigade Inspectors of the First division, that it is impossible for them to discharge them all. In a letter to the Secretary at War, I have suggested, for special reasons, which I trust will have desired effect, that the troops at York be directed to march for the defence of the shores of the Delaware. This suggestion grew out of an opinion that the Baltimorians had a force more than sufficient to repel the foe, that here we were almost without any defence, &c.

If Brigade Inspector Stanley's detachment should happen to prove a surplussage of men, over and above five thousand you will, in that case, order them to march his detachment by the nearest and best route to Marcus-Hook, on the Delaware, where, on the 19th instant, will rendezvous a detacinment of militia from Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Bucks.

Very respectfully, your friend,
SIMON SNYDER.

GENERAL ORDERS.

PHILADELPHIA, September 13, 1814.

To —— ——, Brigade Inspectors of the —— Brigade of the —— Division, Pennsylvania Militia:

You are commanded, in conformity with a requisition of this day by Brig. Gen. Bloomfield, commandant for the United States, in the Fourth military district, to march, with all possible dispatch, the flank companies of Light Infantry and Riflemen (who are to march by companies) and drafted militia, the quota detached from your brigade for the service of the Union, under general orders of the 22d of July last, to Marcus Hook, on the Delaware, by the nearest and best route, there to rendezvous on the 19th instant, and to be formed into a brigade, for the command of which I designate Brig. Gen. Samuel Smith, of Bucks county. The term of service to be six months, unless sooner discharged.

The detachment (as far as practicable) must be completely armed, and provide themselves with blankets and knapsacks, &c. But any who do not possess the means of supplying themselves with knapsacks and canteens, will be furnished at the place of rendezvous. Tents and other equipments will be provided by the Government.

All officers of your brigade are commanded to aid and assist you in the prompt execution of these orders.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp.

[NOTE.—Copies of the foregoing orders were directed to the Inspectors of the Second division and the First brigade of the Third division.]

GENERAL ORDERS.

FOURTH MILITARY DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS,
PHILADELPHIA, September 13, 1814.

The militia of the counties of Northampton, Pike, Lehigh, Northumberland, Union, Columbia, Luzerne, Susquehanna, Wayne, Bucks, Montgomery, Chester, and Delaware, who have volunteered their services, and the militia who have been drafted, detailed, and organized, under the requisition of the President of the United States, of the 4th of July last, and general orders of the Commander-in-Chief of Pennsylvania, of the 22d of the same month, will march with all possible expedition to Marcus Hook, equipped completely for the field.

His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of the militia of Pennsylvania will be pleased to designate the senior officers in the respective counties, and cause their names to be returned to the Adjutant General of this district.

JOSEPH BLOOMFIELD,
Brigadier General, Commanding Fourth Military District.

Entered in the Adjutant General's office.

WILLIAM DUANE,
Adjutant General.

NATH'L W. SAMPLE, Jr., TO N. B. BOILEAU.

STRASBURG, September 13, 1814.

NATH'L B. BOILEAU, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: When at York with the militia, the General wished to honor me with the appointment of Inspector and Adjutant of the division. They urged me to accept of it, and I consented, upon condition that it would not interfere too much with the duties of Brigade Inspector. When I returned home, I found that my absence from the brigade, for any length of time, would be attended with great inconvenience, &c., to the militia, and I immediately sent back a person to York to inform them that I could not leave home without, in my opinion, forfeiting the appointment I now hold. As they promised to write to the Governor on the subject, I would thank you to inform his Excellency that I am at home, and ready to execute the duties of the brigade.

The elections for company officers in my brigade will be over this week. I would wish to know whether I should immediately have the militia mustered for holding themselves in readiness for a call.

With much respect,

I remain your obedient humble servant,

NATH'L W. SAMPLE, Jr.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. BLOOMFIELD.

PHILADELPHIA, September 14, 1814.

To Gen. BLOOMFIELD:

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of this date, on the subject of the volunteers assembled at the City Hospital, and have to state, so soon as they, with other volunteer corps who are on their march to this city, in pursuance of my orders of the 27th of August last, are organized into battalions, regiments, and armed, and the field officers commissioned, they will be directed to march to Marcus Hook, or to such other place as you may direct, subject to your further orders for the term of three months, the time for which they volunteered their services. It is, however, to be understood that no change in the organization of the companies, battalions, or regiments can take place, and that they shall enjoy all the rights secured to them by the laws of the State, under the faith of which they have volunteered their services.

Permit me, sir, to suggest that in the present state of alarm it would tend much to inspire confidence if the militia from the Eighth and Ninth divisions, as numbered in the militia law of 1807, being the militia of the first named division within the counties of Northampton, Pike, Lehigh, and Northumberland—Union, Columbia, Luzerne, Susquehanna, and Wayne, composing the militia within the other, under which law the drafts were made, agreeably to my orders of the 22d of July last, and which are designated for the service of the Union, were immediately ordered into service. Those of the Eighth could be brought to this place in a short time; those of the Ninth division are more distant.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO SAMUEL BRECK, BOYD REILY, AND MATTHIAS KEEN.

PHILADELPHIA, September 14, 1814.

Messrs. SAMUEL BRECK, BOYD REILY, and MATTHIAS KEEN:

GENTLEMEN: The Governor duly appreciates your patriotic intentions of forming a volunteer corps, and the tender of your service in the cause of our common country; but a requisition having been made by Gen. Bloomfield for the quota of militia detached for his command, and some of the men belonging to your association, it would appear, have been drafted and detached for that service. Under those circumstances the Governor deems it improper to give any order or opinion that might interfere with the arrangements that may have been contemplated by the commander of this military district.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO LIEUT. FOX.

PHILADELPHIA, September 14, 1814.

To Lieut. Fox:

SIR: As acting Deputy Quarter-master, you are authorized to issue rations to such detachments as may arrive at the encampment at and near the City Hospital until further orders, and procure the necessary quantity of camp kettles and mess-pans.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN SERGEANT.

PHILADELPHIA, September 15, 1814.

TO JOHN SERGEANT, Chairman of the sub-committee:

SIR: To questions contained in certain resolutions adopted by the General Committee of Defence, copies of which were presented to the Governor yesterday, I am instructed to answer –

First. That there are not arms and equipments at the disposition of the Governor, more than sufficient to supply the militia liable to, and called into actual service. As regards ammunition there ample materials, and instructions have been given to have a sufficient quantity fixed, both by the Governor and General Bloomfield.

Second. The Secretary at War, by letter dated the 4th inst., informed the Governor, that he had ordered to be deposited at Carlisle, ten thousand stand of arms and equipments subject to his order. Of this Gen. Watson, who commands the detachment at York, was apprised by letter dated the 6th inst. But a letter from the Adjutant General at that place, with post-mark of the 10th, the Governor is informed that the deposit had not then been made at Carlisle.

On the 9th inst., a letter was addressed, by the direction of the Governor, to James Lamberton, Brigade Inspector at Carlisle, directing him, with all possible dispatch, to forward to this place five thousand stand of arms, with the requisite equipments. This letter was sent by mail to Harrisburg, and from thence forwarded by express. No information has yet been received from Maj. Lamberton. He being a vigilant officer there can be no doubt of his immediate attention to the order, if the deposit has been made.

Third. No answer has been received from the War Department relative to the enlistment of a regular force for the defence of this district.

Fourth. With regard to calling out the whole body of militia, the Governor holds it under advisement. The principal difficulty which presents itself on this question is the impracticability of immediately furnishing the necessary arms and equipments.

The letter of Daniel Hinkle relative to some muskets he has for sale, which the committee sent to the Governor last evening, shall be immediately attended to.

N. B. BOILEAU.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 19, 1814.

His Excellency SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: The enemy having left Baltimore, and passed down the bay, I have deemed it advisable to alter the destination of the Pennsylvania militia assembled at York. General Watson has been ordered to march those troops to the neighborhood of Philadelphia, and dispose of them, agreeably to such arrangements as may have been made for the defence of that city, should it be attacked by the enemy. It is hoped, however, that our late brilliant success on Lake Champlain and pressure on the enemy, on that frontier generally, may contribute to relieve our eastern frontier.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, sir,
Your Excellency's obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

N. B. BOILEAU TO DANIEL SHARP.

PHILADELPHIA, September 15, 1814.

To DANIEL SHARP, Esq., Inspector of the First Brigade, First Division:

SIR: Brigadier General Cadwalader having orders for his brigade, the election of field officers, which election the Major General had directed you to hold, agreeably to law, and which a multiplicity of engagements it is presumed prevented you from ordering and superintending. The reasons which the General assigns for his orders and other considerations will induce you to recognize the elections and returns, so that commissions may immediately issue.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S. You will not omit purchasing the muskets from Hinkle, which was intimated to you yesterday. You will also attend to the purchase of the tents at Montmolius.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. JOHN STEELE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 16, 1814.

To Gen. JOHN STEEL:

SIR: In a conversation I had with the State Treasurer shortly after I had the pleasure to see you on the subject of the appointment spoken of yesterday, that officer said that a commissary general not being known to our laws, his accounts could not be settled by the accountant department without a special act of the Legislature. This, together with the consideration that the greater part of the Pennsylvania volunteers now assembled in and near the city, will shortly enter the service of the United States, and from the expectation that the Adjutant General will shortly arrive here, induces me to hesitate about the propriety of the appointment for the present. If, however, the public service should imperiously require it, such an officer must either be appointed, or one that will act as an assistant to the Adjutant General.

Bloomfield has had the perusal of your letter and order, and, it is presumed, that he will direct the necessary ammunitions and provisions.

The State will advance six dollars to each non-commissioned officer and private to the militia in your brigade, which will enable those who are destitute of blankets, or any necessary article, to supply themselves. This is communicated to satisfy those of Col. Berry's men, for whom he has written to the Committee of Defence for a supply of blankets and shoes.

All officers of your brigade are commanded to aid and assist you in the prompt execution of those orders.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

[NOTE.—Similar orders were sent to John Fogle and John Jones, Brigade Inspectors.]

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN JONES.

PHILADELPHIA, September 16, 1814.

To JOHN JONES, Esq., First Brigade, Eighth Division:

SIR: You will execute the orders herewith enclosed immediately. It was mentioned some time in August last to the Governor that his orders of the 22d of July last, upon which was predicated and to which is attached the Adjutant General's detail, were not executed by you, because there was not time to do so before the 1st of August. He will recollect to have told his informant, (who it is presumed reported it to you,) that the orders must be executed notwithstanding, that it was not too late to do so after the 1st of August. That this construction of the act is correct appears evident from the second clause of the thirty-sixth section of the new law. It is hoped that the opinion given by the Governor may have induced you to make the drafts, and be enabled with the requisite dispatch to execute the orders and march the men; at all events you must go on.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

P. S. $1,000 will be paid to you or order at the treasury in Harrisburg, on account of marching your detachment.

N. B. BOILEAU TO BRIG. GEN. BLOOMFIELD.

PHILADELPHIA, September 17, 1814.

To Brig. Gen. BLOOMFIELD, Commanding Fourth Military District:

SIR: By a letter from General Cadwalader to the Governor, dated 15th, and received yesterday, he states that horsemen would be useful at his command. If you deem it advisable, the Governor will direct Captain Wayne's troop, consisting of seventy men, well mounted and equipped, to proceed, without delay, to the command of General Cadwalader. Captain Wayne requested me to inform him to-morrow whether or not his services would be required.

With great respect and esteem,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO DAVID LENOX.

PHILADELPHIA, September 17, 1814.

To DAVID LENOX, Esq., President of the Philadelphia Bank:

SIR: I learned with much pleasure, by your note, that the board of directors of the Philadelphia Bank have consented to loan to the State one hundred thousand dollars, conformably to my request founded on a provision of the charter of the bank.

I pledge the Commonwealth for the re-payment of said sum within three years after the same is placed to the credit of the Commonwealth on the books of the institution, which, permit me to desire, may be immediately done, subject to the draft of the proper officer.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOS. NORRIS.

PHILADELPHIA, September 17, 1814.

To JOS. NORRIS, Esq., President of the Bank of Pennsylvania:

SIR: I have had submitted to me this day a resolution by the president and board of directors of the Bank of Pennsylvania, dated the 12th instant, founded on an application by the Secretary of State of the United States, to borrow from that institution two hundred thousand dollars, in and whereby the board agree to loan to the United States, on certain terms in their said resolution contained, a part of said sum. That the Bank of Pennsylvania may loan to the United States any sum not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars has my approbation and consent.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO. N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDER.

PHILADELPHIA, September 17, 1814.

TO N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

The Pennsylvania volunteers, who are now assembled in and near the city of Philadelphia, in pursuance of general orders issued on the 27th of August last, will be organized into battalion and regiments, as follow, to wit: The companies of volunteer riflemen, commanded by Captains Robison, Speer, Groscup, McClean, and Wigton, shall form one battalion, and elect one major. The companies commanded by captains Purdy, Horn, Denkey, Rinker, and Ott, shall form one battalion, and elect one major. Which battalions shall form a regiment, and elect one colonel and one lieutenant colonel.

The companies of Volunteer Light Infantry, commanded by captains Wersler, Vanarsdalen, Taylor, and Grosh, shall form a battalion, and elect one major. Which battalions shall form a regiment, and elect a colonel and lieutenant colonel.

The captains composing battalions, respectively, shall meet at the City Hospital, between the hours of eleven and one this day, and then and there elect by ballot a major, and the regiments of Riflemen and Light Infantry shall, respectively, on the afternoon of this day, between the hours of two and five, meet at the same place, and elect by ballot one colonel and one lieutenant colonel for each regiment.

The captains of each battalion shall appoint one judge for their proper regiment, who shall, for their respective battalion and regiment, as the case may be, so soon as practicable after the elections are closed, make out returns and transmit them to the Governor, that commissions may issue.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

AFTER ORDER.

PHILADELPHIA, half past 10, A. M., September 17, 1814.

To N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp:

In compliance with a wish unanimously expressed by the officers commanding companies of volunteers in and near this city, the general order of this morning to hold elections for field officers is suspended until Monday next, to be holden between the hours two and six, P. M., and the said order is so varied, that all the field officers shall be elected between those hours. Judges to be appointed, and returns by them to be made, as is in said order directed, and such companies as may after this day arrive, shall be attached to the regiment of Riflemen or Infantry, as they shall happen to be of either description of troops, until a number shall have arrived sufficient to form another battalion or regiment, as the case may be.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. BOILEAU TO GEN. WILLIAM BROOKE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 18, 1814.

To Gen. WILLIAM BROOKE:

SIR: At the time of the alarm at Elkton last summer, three hundred stand of arms were sent to Chester for the use of the militia. You will enquire where they are. Direct them to be immediately repaired, if necessary. If you cannot get it done in your neighborhood, have them sent immediately to the State arsenal, at this place, informing me of it, that prompt measures may be taken for their repair at this place. Look after the cartridge-boxes which were sent at the same time with the muskets.

Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO N. W. SAMPLE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 19, 1814.

To N. W. SAMPLE, Esq., Inspector of Second Brigade, Fourth Division:

SIR: Yours of the 17th instant has been just received. I am directed to say that you purchase as many rifles as will be sufficient for the company, if you can get them at a reasonable price, as you state in your letter they can be had. You will also procure the camp equipage of tents and kettles, &c., as it is extremely difficult, if not impracticable, to procure them here, as fast as troops come in. Be careful and take responsible receipts from every man to whom you deliver a rifle.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO BRIG. GEN. BLOOMFIELD.

PHILADELPHIA, September 19, 1814.

Brig. Gen. BLOOMFIELD, Commanding Fourth Military District:

SIR: Mr. Derringer informs me that he has a contract with the United States for manufacturing rifles. In consequence of that contract he is obliged to employ a portion of his hands in that service. If he could be permitted to suspend the work for the United States, he could repair nearly six hundred rifles in the course of a week. Several hundred riflemen are here without rifles. Would it not be competent for you, under existing circumstances, to permit Mr. Derringer to suspend, for the present, the work for the United States, and employ the whole number of his hands in repairing rifles already made. The men cannot move from this place without arms in their hands. It is painful for me to increase the number of applications that are made to you at this time. The emergency of the times will plead my apology.

With most sincere respect and esteem,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO BRIG. GEN. J. CADWALADER.

PHILADELPHIA, September 20, 1814.

To Brig. Gen. J. CADWALADER:

SIR: Yours of the 18th inst., inclosing a return of the election of field officers, was handed to me by Lieut. Col. Raguet. I have made out the commissions and handed them to the Colonel, together with the commissions of the company officers belonging to your detachments, which he has engaged to forward. Permit me to present to your view the case of Mr. John Shull, who belonged to a volunteer company commanded by Capt. Naglee. He was elected a Major of a battalion forming a part of Col. Goodman's regiment, and at the time he was holding elections as Major, and which the law required him to hold, he was arrested by order of Capt. Naglee, as the Governor was informed, and taken to camp, and is still retained in the service as a private in Capt. Naglee's company. The Governor directed me to address a note to the Captain, on the 12th inst., informing him "that the Governor considers this procedure as improper and unlawful, and hopes this expression of his opinion will produce an immediate release." I am informed that Mr. Shull is, however, still retained. Will you enquire into the case, and see that law and justice obtain.

With much esteem and respect,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

JAMES LAMBERTON TO N. B. BOILEAU.

CARLISLE, 20*th September*, 1814.

N. B. BOILEAU, Secretary of the Commonwealth :

SIR : Yours of the 10th inst. this evening I duly received, also of the 9th inst. I received on the 13th, inclosing a requisition for five thousand stand of arms, with the equipments, and in compliance of which I immediately waited on the military storekeeper of the United States at this place, and received of him four boxes containing each fifty stand, which I forwarded same day by Joseph Baldwing, Esq., directed to Major Daniel Sharp, Philadelphia, inclosing Baldwin's receipt for the delivery of them in six days. Next day came to this place, from York, a Mr. Hyneman, and received and loaded one thousand stand of arms, agreeable to a prior requisition in the hands of the military storekeeper. On the 17th inst. I forwarded by James Henny, Esq., four boxes, each containing fifty stand, and directed as above. This was all the arms that had came on from Harper's Ferry. Since which time I have been industrious in engaging wagons to be in readiness when the arms would arrive, and this day was under the disagreeable necessity of sending two wagons home again that came to load, owing to the arms not coming on agreeably to the military storekeeper's expectation, and I flattered myself had the arms been here, or having come since I received the Governor's requisition, all or the greater part of them would have been in the city, or at least on the way to it by this time. No camp equipage of any kind are here, nor are they expected.

In yours you omitted mentioning where and by whom the money for transportation of the arms was to be paid. On comparing the above, you will necessarily conclude that I have been industrious, and my industry proceeded from pure motives. First, obedience in complying with the discharge of my duty, and second, my zeal for the success and prosperity of the cause we are engaged in will, in probability, remove your astonishment and regret.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES LAMBERTON, B. I.

Statement of arms delivered agreeable to requisitions, as followeth, viz:

Expected from Harper's Ferry, ...	5,000
Issued on the order of General Watson, of a prior date to the Governor's requisition to me, ...	1,450
Issued to Shoemaker, on the same order, ...	800

Issued to the three companies of volunteers that marched from this place, about,	300
Issued on the Governor's requisition in favor of J. Lamberton,	400
	2,950

Yet due and not received of the 5,000, as above, 2,050 stand of arms.

DEPARTMENT OF WAR, September 20, 1814.

His Excellency SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: While the enemy pressed on Baltimore I could take no decisive measure with respect to the Pennsylvania troops at York.

It seemed most advisable to add all that I could to the force at Baltimore, on the principle that if the enemy made an attack and were repulsed, that town would be saved, and Philadelphia and every other city along our coast would derive very great advantage from it.

I wished the detached troops of Pennsylvania to stand as a corps of reserve, ready to afford such aid in any direction, as circumstances might require. It appeared yesterday that the enemy had passed Annapolis on their way down the bay, which induced a belief that the attack would not be renewed on Baltimore, in consequence of which I gave an order to Gen. Smith to detach the Pennsylvania troops under his command to the neighborhood of Philadelphia, and I sent a similar order to those at York.

The arms which your Excellency had requested, were immediately ordered from Harper's Ferry to York and Carlisle, where they have probably arrived.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

JAMES LAMBERTON TO N. B. BOILEAU.

CARLISLE, September 22, 1814.

N. B. BOILEAU, Esq., Secretary of the Commonwealth:

SIR: Since writing you by express, I have, from day to day, called on the military storekeeper of the United States at this place, respecting the arms to be received on the Governor's requisition, and no arms coming on, yesterday I requested him to give me a satisfactory answer whether they were expected, and when, in order that I would be enabled to let you know what you could calculate on with certainty, and this morning he furnishes me with a letter, the copy you have on the other side; and were I to risk an opinion from his verbal conversation with me, it would be that no more arms are to be expected from this place on the present requisition. On the receipt of these, together with the statement I made you in my former letter, which statement I took from him verbally, you will be able to judge of the consistency of the thing, and if anything necessary is to be done you will write me.

In the interim believe me to be,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES LAMBERTON,

Brigade Inspector.

[A copy.]

Thomas Porter to Major Lamberton.

CARLISLE, September 22, 1814.

Major LAMBERTON, Brigade Inspector, Pennsylvania Militia, Carlisle:

SIR: With regard to the arms that you expect from Harper's Ferry, I can inform you that the ten thousand stand ordered here by the Commissary General, by the Honorable Mr. Monroe, to York, Pennsylvania, and Fredericktown, Maryland, in consequence of that order I have been instructed to have what arms had arrived to be immediately transported to York. The arms, previous to my getting that order, were taken from here on the order of General Watson, of the Pennsylvania militia.

With perfect respect,

THOS. PORTER,

A. D. Q. M. General, Carlisle Barracks.

Extract taken from the way-bill of the express mail from Buffalo, which arrived while writing.

BUFFALO, September 19, 1814.

Our army sallied out from Fort Erie on the 17th inst.; took and destroyed two of the enemy's batteries mounting six pieces heavy artillery; captured near four hundred prisoners. The action continued more than two hours, with considerable severity. The enemy's loss exceeded eight hundred killed, wounded, and prisoners. Ours comparatively small. Loss of officers—Colonel Gibson, Lieutenant Colonel Wood, Captain Armistead, and Captain Hale, killed; General Ripley, Colonel Aspinwall, Major Trimble, and several others of the regular army, wounded; General Davis, of the militia, killed; General Porter slightly wounded. The enemy's loss in officers severe; twelve were taken prisoners.

(Signed) J. B. VARNUM,
Express Agent.

In haste,
JAMES LAMBERTON.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. BINNS.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COL. BINNS.

PHILADELPHIA, September , 1814.

You will proceed to Baltimore as expeditiously as possible, and render to General Watson all the aid in your power to facilitate his marching the troops under his command to the Delaware. The five thousand dollars entrusted to your disposition you will advance to the General as a sound discretion shall direct, if the United States shall not have supplied the necessary means for marching the troops. Four thousand tents ordered on for the division of General Watson are to be at the disposition of that officer.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO HENRY SERGEANT.

PHILADELPHIA, September 24, 1814.

This day Henry Sergeant was appointed Assistant Deputy Quarter-master General for the brigade commanded by Brigadier General Thomas Cadwalader. The commission or appointment was, agreeably to request, sent under cover to Brigadier General Joseph Bloomfield, in the form following, viz:

To Henry Sergeant, Esq:

I, Simon Snyder, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, having confidence in your patriotism, vigilance, and attention, do constitute and appoint, and you are hereby constituted and appointed, Assistant Deputy Quarter-master General for the brigade of militia now in the service of the United States, commanded by Brigadier General Thomas Cadwalader, and you are hereby authorized to execute all the authorities, and to perform all the duties, and to receive all the emoluments attached to said office so long as you shall behave yourself well, and so long as you shall not be superseded by me or other lawful authority.

Given under my hand and seal, at Philadelphia, the twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and of the Commonwealth the fortieth.

SIMON SNYDER, [L. S,]

This appointment returned 25th September, 1814.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

PHILADELPHIA, September 24, 1814.

TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Adjutant General:

You are hereby commanded to procure immediately, for twelve-pound ordnance:

Three ton round shot, twelve pounds.
One ton grape, one pound.
For six pounders:
Three ton round shot, six pounds.
One ton grape, eight ounces.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

N. B. Col. Connelly informs that the above can be had of Mark Richards, merchant of this city.

N. B. BOILEAU TO JOHN W. CUNNINGHAM.

PHILADELPHIA, September 24, 1814.

To JOHN W. CUNNINGHAM:

SIR: Self defence, the first law of nature, dictates the necessity of erecting as many obstructions to impede the progress of an enemy as the nature of the country through which he must pass will admit. Among the means of stopping the march of an invading foe, the felling of trees across the roads and breaking up of bridges, is not the least efficient. Having full confidence in your capacity, enterprise, and patriotism, the Governor requests that you would have enrolled such a number as your discretion may direct, and who are willing to volunteer their services of expert axmen, with their tools well prepared, and who will be ready, at a moment's warning, to proceed and erect the obstructions aforesaid. You will make arrangements to furnish them with subsistence, and while employed in such service they will be paid by the State, together with the expense of their maintenance. You will distinctly understand the object of those instructions is, not to proceed to actual operations until express orders from the Governor or the Commanding General of the district, but merely to have men ready on whom you can call when the exigency of the case may require it.

With high respect and consideration,
I am, sir, your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CHARLES BIDDLE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 25, 1814.

To CHARLES BIDDLE, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Defence:

SIR: In answer to the inquiries contained in a resolution of the Committee of Defence, dated yesterday, and presented this morning to the Governor by their chairman, I am instructed to say, that no answer has yet been received from the Department of War, relative to having two thousand regulars encamped near this city, nor with regard to enlisting of three regiments of infantry to be employed in defence of this district. The Governor received a letter from Mr. Monroe, dated 19th inst., informing him, that he had ordered Gen. Watson, with the detachment of Pennsylvania militia under his command, to march to the neighborhood of Philadelphia. On the evening of the 22d inst., a letter was received from Gen. Watson stating that a number of his men were destitute of tents, as well as the means of being sustained on their march. On the same evening the Governor sent by a confidential person $5,000 to Gen. Watson, to enable him to supply his troops with provisions, and on the following morning sent from the State arsenal four hundred tents for the use of his detachment.

By a letter from Mr. Monroe, dated the 21st September, the Governor was informed that in consequence of the enemy having anchored at the mouth of the Patuxent, the former order to Gen. Watson had been countermanded.

With high consideration and respect, I am, sir,

Your obedient servant,

N. B. BOILEAU,

Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JAMES MONROE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 26, 1814.

To Hon. JAMES MONROE, War Department:

SIR: I am advised from Carlisle, under date of the 22d instant, that not one half of the ten thousand stand of arms ordered by the War Department to that place, had on that day arrived, and that no more were expected. This opinion is derived from a letter written by Thomas Porter, assistant Deputy Quarter-master General, there stationed, to James Lamberton, Brigade Inspector, who had been directed to forward the arms that would remain, after Gen. Watson's division was supplied, to this city. This information adds much to our fears for the safety of Philadelphia. Without a speedy transportation here of the remainder of those muskets, or to some other place from whence they can be conveniently brought, we cannot arm those of our militia that may turn out on a sudden emergency. It is a lamentable fact that our State arms, with little exception, have been neglected by those whose duty it was by law to have them collected and repaired. I am urged to call your attention to a request by the Committee of Defence of Philadelphia, for permission to raise three regiments for the defence of this city, and to have stationed near it two regiments of regular troops, which I had the honor to communicate to the Department of War, under date of the 7th instant.

I have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servant,

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. JOHN BINNS.

PHILADELPHIA, September 26, 1814.

To Col. JOHN BINNS:

DEAR SIR: Yours of the 24th inst. was handed to me this morning, previous to the receipt of which I had learned by a letter from the Secretary at War, under date of the 21st of this month, that he had issued counter orders to which you allude, directing the division of Pennsylvania militia, under the command of General Watson, to march towards Washington, instead of the shores of the Delaware, and which has excited much sensation here.

If his division are not, nor likely to be, furnished by the United States with provisions, and any other thing that may be necessary for their comfort in camp, or to sustain them on their march wheresoever they may be ordered, you will not withhold the money entrusted to your care, but apply it, under a sound discretion, to those objects. If they cannot be furnished with tents by the United States, they must be supplied out of the four hundred lately forwarded from this city, and the balance returned by the wagons that were employed to transport them thither.

The journey which you have undertaken to Washington, at the instance of Generals Smith and Watson, though not originally contemplated, has my entire approbation, and I trust you will succeed in executing their commission, and that the marching of the Pennsylvanians to a point at which I think danger cannot exist, and at which it would be difficult, if not impossible, to procure supplies, may be legally prevented.

Believing the appearance of the enemy in the Patuxent to be merely a feint, I hope the Pennsylvania troops may be ordered to an intermediate point between this and Baltimore, so as they may be ready to act in defence of either, as circumstances may require.

I early intimated to Mr. Monroe the propriety of such an arrangement, and I am pleased to find that General Smith accords with me in sentiment, and that he is willing to coöperate in any measure which may be adopted for the mutual defence of both cities against our common enemy.

Respectfully, sir,
I am your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO NATHANIEL WATSON.

PHILADELPHIA, September 27, 1814.

To Maj. Gen. NATHANIEL WATSON, Baltimore:

SIR: I have received information that a diversity of opinion exists in your division, respecting the cockade shall be blue and red. This, as well as all other acts of the Legislature, I am bound to have faithfully executed. You will, therefore, take proper measures to enforce the observance of this law. If your division can violate the law, with impunity, it may lead to the discretionary violation of any other law, order, or regulation of the State, thereby all subordination would be destroyed, and incalculable evils would be the result.

It would be preposterous to allege that, because you are in the service of the United States, you may dispense with this provision of the law. One object, I presume, of the Legislature in establishing a uniform for the militia of our State, was to distinguish them from the militia of other States, when in the service of the United States.

I have the honor to be,
Your obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

PHILADELPHIA, September 28, 1814.

To JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Esq., Adjutant General:

You will immediately make known to Capt. Jacob Tryer, John Sands, Jesse Weber, and George Senrenderfer, commanding volunteer companies of Riflemen from Montgomery county, and to Capt. George Hess, commanding a company from Northampton county, that their several companies are to form a battalion, to be attached, until further orders, to the regiment commanded by Col. Thomas Humphrey, and that this afternoon, between the hours of four and six o'clock, the officers and privates composing said battalion, are to meet at the new prison, and elect one major to command the same.

The commanding officers of the said companies to select two competent judges to preside at the election, and make return thereo to the Governor, that a commission may issue accordingly.

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU, Aid-de-Camp.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. NATHANIEL WATSON.

PHILADELPHIA, September 28, 1814, 9 at night.

To Gen. NATHANIEL WATSON, Camp Fairfield, Baltimore.

SIR: Col. Binns has just returned, and informs that the strongest assurances were given at Baltimore, that your troops would be supplied with tents and other equipments to make you comfortable. I would, therefore, request that the tents forwarded from hence, be immediately sent back, for here they are much wanted for the accommodation of the militia assembling for the defence of Philadelphia.

I have seen your request to Col. Binns, to order them back if he should meet them on the road. By some accident, he missed the wagons. This induces the belief your own convictions will strongly prompt you to an immediate execution of what is desired.

Yours sincerely,

SIMON SNYDER.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CHARLES BIDDLE.

PHILADELPHIA, September 28, 1814.

To CHARLES BIDDLE, Esq., Chairman Committee of Defence:

SIR: To the enquiries contained in a resolution of the Committee of Defence, adopted the 26th inst., and presented to the Governor last evening, I am instructed to answer, that there is one regiment of volunteer infantry, consisting of five hundred men, exclusive of officers, one regiment and one battalion of riflemen volunteers, consisting in the whole of six hundred and ninety-nine men, exclusive of officers, duly organized, also two troops of horse, consisting of about sixty men, exclusive of officers. The infantry would have been ready to take the field some time since were it not that the drafted militia, called into service by General Bloomfield, and ordered to rendezvous at Marcus Hook, must be supplied with tents and other equipments from the State arsenal, the United States not being able to furnish them. The volunteers having good quarters, while the ordinary militia were destitute, justice and humanity required that every possible provision should be made to furnish them with tents and equipments necessary for the comfort and for defence. The committee are already apprised that the Governor sent on to Major General Watson four hundred tents, for the use of his detachment near Baltimore, who were not provided for by the United States. The rifle volunteers came here but partially armed. Three hundred of those rifles drawn from the United States arsenal have been repaired by order of the Governor, and as many more are rapidly repairing, and one hundred new ones have been purchased, so that in a very few days the whole of the volunteers will be armed and equipped, and ready to take the field if necessary. At the instance of the Governor, I ask information from the committee, how many of the State muskets have been collected by their order, where deposited, and how many repaired? How many, out of the one hundred and fifty rifles put into the hands of the committee, have been repaired, and where they are? What progress has been made in preparing fixed ammunition for artillery and musketry.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,

N. B. BOILEAU.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

General Orders.

Philadelphia, September 29, 1814.

N. B. Boileau and William Duncan, Aids-de-Camp:

The Governor, being accidentally informed of the approach to this city of Maj. Gen. Scott, who has frequently distinguished himself in the service of his country, and believing that, on the present occasion, the feelings of the Pennsylvania volunteers are in unison with his own, and disposed to pay every respect to merit, orders that the volunteer Infantry, Riflemen, and Cavalry, stationed in and near the city, parade at the city hospital, at two o'clock, under their proper officers, and immediately march to Kensington, and from thence escort the General to his quarters in this city. Maj. Gen. Worrell, or, in his absence, the senior officer will take the command.

SIMON SNYDER,

Governor of the Commonwealth, &c.

N. B. BOILEAU TO BRIG. GEN. THOMAS CADWALADER.

PHILADELPHIA, September 29, 1814.

Brig. Gen. THOMAS CADWALADER:

SIR: Yours of the 24th inst., enclosing a copy of a letter from Col. Bary, was duly received. Extreme pressure of business has prevented an earlier answer. I have it in charge from the Governor to states, that the requisition of the President of the United States of the 4th of July last, could be complied with only under the provisions of the militia law of this State passed 1807 and its supplements. One of the latter, passed 29th March, 1813, authorizes the consolidation of companies for organization agreeably to the regulations established for the army of the United States, and the discharging supernumerary officers. That supplement, it is true, is repealed along with the original law, but it is presumed that the Legislature, when they enacted that the commissions, which shall be held at the time of the passage of the present law, should be in force to the 1st day of August last, so far as to enable the officers holding the same to execute the duties which they would, prior to that day, have been required to perform, notwithstanding the repeal of any law, or laws, heretofore passed for the regulation of the militia, &c., did certainly intend that the several supplemental laws, passed for the obvious purposes of amendments, should also remain in force as auxiliaries for the perfect execution of any orders or proceedings had under the original law. From this it will be perceived that in the Governor's opinion, a consolidation of companies of the drafted militia may take place.

Under the head of "actual service," in the existing militia law, in the second paragraph, is contained a provision which, to a considerable extent, corroborates the foregoing opinion.

With respect and consideration, I am, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO ——— ———.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1, 1814.

SIR: Your letter of the 26th ult. was this day received. There are in and near this city, in the counties of Philadelphia and Chester, a considerable number of companies of Cavalry, completely equipped, and extremely anxious to be called into service. They all (like your company) have orders to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's warning. Your patriotism is much applauded, and deservedly so; but, under existing circumstances, it is still thought most advisable that you shall not march for this place before you receive special orders. Tents and other equipments for the field cannot be procured suddenly. It would give the Governor much pleasure to see your company march as Infantry for the defence of this important section of the State. In that capacity you could render much more important service. Impelled, as was your company, from pure patriotism to offer their services, the Governor entertains no doubt they will be willing to render it in any way likely to prove most efficient.

You will find an answer to your enquiries, relative to the right of admission from one corps to another, in the fifteenth section of the militia law of this Commonwealth, passed the 28th day of March, 1814.

N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

N. B. BOILEAU TO CAPT. HENRY JARRET.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1, 1814.

To Capt. HENRY JARRET:

SIR: The intention of the Governor, by general orders of the 27th August last, was to awaken in the Pennsylvanians a spirit of patriotism generally, and a particular invitation was giving for the forming companies of volunteers of such of our citizen soldiers as were not drafted and designated for the service of the United States, under the general orders of the 22d July last. It has been represented that but ten of the men who are under your command are regular members of your company, that twenty-six are substitutes, some of whom are men drafted for the service of the United States, and liable to march under orders 16th September last; that some of the men now under your command belong to a company of horse, commanded by Capt. James Hutchinson, who, by letter to the Governor of the 26th ult., complains they have been received by you as members of your company, without having previously received from him a discharge, as the law directs. It is thought proper to bring to your notice their allegation so that you may have a fair opportunity of refutation, and which, I hope, you may be able to do. By referring to the general orders of the 27th August, you will perceive that drafts were not included in the invitation to form volunteer companies, and by the fifteenth section of the militia law, you will observe the rule laid down for receiving volunteers from one company into another.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. B. BOILEAU,
Secretary.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO N. B. BOILEAU.

GENERAL ORDERS.

PHILADELPHIA, October 2, 1814.

TO N. B. BOILEAU:

The regiment commanded by Lieut. Col. Bache will take up the line of march to Marcus Hook to-morrow morning at —— o'clock.

As the time for which the companies commanded by Capts. Creigh and Halbert, (now attached to said regiment,) who volunteered their services, will shortly expire, they are not to march with the regiment, unless they find it convenient to extend the term of their service. The Governor is aware that suddenly leaving their homes they have made great personal sacrifices to defend their country, and duly appreciates the patriotism they have manifested on the occasion. This consideration, and the recollection of the great and important services lately rendered by the militia of Cumberland county, from whence they came, forbid him to ask, pressingly, from them any additional sacrifices. But as the patriotism and inconveniences of remaining longer in service must be greater to some individuals than to others, and the next object of attack of the enemy unknown, he would intimate that the forming one company out of both, and remaining in service three months, if necessary, with the regiment, will be highly pleasing to him, and heighten the claim they have to the gratitude of their country.

SIMON SNYDER.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO COL. JOHN BINNS.

PHILADELPHIA, October 2, 1814.

Col. JOHN BINNS:

SIR: You will, without delay, proceed from this city to York town, for the purpose of ascertaining, in conjunction with Maj. Archibald S. Jordan, what muskets or other arms may have been there deposited by the Government of the United States, on account of the quota of arms apportioned to Pennsylvania, under the act of Congress for arming the whole of the militia of the United States, and also for making the necessary arrangements to have those arms forwarded to this city, here to be deposited in the State arsenal, subject to the order of the Adjutant General of the militia of Pennsylvania.

Having accomplished this business, you are directed to proceed to Carlisle; there, in conjunction with Maj. James Lamberton, to ascertain what fixed ammunition may have been there deposited for the use of the Pennsylvania militia, which ammunition you are to make, with Maj. Lamberton, necessary arrangements to have it safely transported hither, and deposited in the State arsenal, there to remain, subject to the orders of the Adjutant General of the militia of this State.

Having performed those duties, you will report in writing.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO ARCHIBALD S. JORDAN.

2d October, 1814.

To ARCHIBALD S. JORDAN, Brigade Inspector, &c.:

SIR: This will be delivered you by my aid, Col. John Binns, whom I have dispatched express to ascertain the quantity of arms delivered to your care, or deposited within the bounds of your brigade by the Government of the United States, for the use of the militia of Pennsylvania, under an act of Congress for arming the whole of the militia of the United States. Col. Binns is also instructed to give you all the assistance in his power toward procuring the means of having those arms so delivered by the United States, forwarded with all convenient dispatch, to be deposited in the State arsenal in the city of Philadelphia. The Pennsylvania arms remaining in the possession of Maj. Jordan, he will remain at York and have them repaired fit for use.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JAMES LAMBERTON.

PHILADELPHIA, October 2, 1814.

To JAMES LAMBERTON, Esq., Brigade Inspector, &c.:

SIR: This will be handed by my aid, Col. Binns, whom I have dispatched express to ascertain the quantity of fixed ammunition deposited at Carlisle, or at any other place within your brigade, for the use of the Pennsylvania militia. He is also instructed to assist you in procuring the means of having the said ammunition, with all convenient dispatch, conveyed to the city of Philadelphia to be deposited in the State arsenal, subject to the order and disposition of the Adjutant General.

SIMON SNYDER,
Governor.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

WAR DEPARTMENT, October 2, 1814.

To his Excellency SIMON SNYDER, Philadelphia:

SIR: The recent movements of the enemy, many of his vessels being at this time at the mouth of the Potomac, and the accounts that Lord Hill had either arrived, or might soon be at Bermuda, with powerful re-inforcements, have induced the President to make additional requisitions for militia. I have, therefore, to request your Excellency to call into the service of the United States, and put in march for ———— as soon as practicable, four thousand infantry and Riflemen of Pennsylvania militia, detached conformably to the requisition from this department of July 4th, 1814, properly officered and organized into two brigades. In making this requisition, I have consulted several of the members of Congress from your State, with a view of calling to this point only such troops as will not be required in the vicinity of Philadelphia. They agree with me in recommending that this force be made up from the counties of Allegheny, Washington, Greene, Westmoreland, Fayette, Indiana, Armstrong, Somerset, Bedford, Cambria, and Centre. It is desiradle that as great a proportion of this force as practicable should be riflemen.

Much attention will be necessary to prevent too extensive baggage trains. No more than one wagon being allowed to a company of one hundred men.

It is desirable that these troops should be in the field immediately, and I have designated the position for their encampment, with a view equally to cover and protect Baltimore and this place, as there appears but little doubt that one of these will be his object, should another attack be made by the enemy during the present season.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your Excellency's obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO JOHN M. HYNEMAN.

PHILADELPHIA, October 3, 1814.

To JOHN M. HYNEMAN, Esq., Adjutant General:

You will, as soon as possible, make arrangements for the discharge of the two volunteer companies from Cumberland county, commanded by Captains Creigh and Halbert, first having directed the making and delivery to you of proper pay-rolls. Jacob G. Tryon will assist you in the capacity of paymaster, and take proper receipts. Any arms and other equipments of the public delivered them here, must be returned into the State arsenal. You have it also in charge to express my high sense of their patriotism in volunteering their services in the cause of their country.

SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES LAMBERTON TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

CARLISLE, October 7, 1814.

SIMON SNYDER, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

SIR: In obedience to your orders, and in compliance of my promise in a former letter, enclosed you have copies of the invoices of the arms, equipments, and munitions of war forwarded and distributed. Underneath is a copy of a receipt given Geo. Hacket, Esq., Military Storekeeper at Carlisle Barracks:

Received, Carlisle Barracks, September 22, 1814, on the within order, six hundred and eighty muskets, complete; two hundred and eighty-one cartouch-boxes and belts; seven hundred and fifty-six pistol cartridges; two hundred and eighty-one canteens; two hundred and nineteen knapsacks, &c.

(Signed) J. L., B. I.

Captains Squire's and McKeeney's companies that marched to Baltimore have returned. Captain Squire expressed a desire that the arms and equipments should remain in the possession of the men until your pleasure would be known, the reason he assigned that the company intended to remain as a company, and would be ready. in an emergency, provided there was a necessity. As to Captain McKinney, I have not heard from him since his return. Your order respecting the arms and equipments will be promptly complied with. Captains John Creigh and Halbert's companies marched to Philadelphia, and, no doubt, are under your immediate notice in service, and at the expiration of their time you will have the goodness to direct respecting the arms, &c.

[A copy.]

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 13, 1814.

Major F. MARSTELLER, Quarter-master General:

SIR: All the arms which are at Fredericktown will be immediately transported towards Baltimore, reporting their progress to the commanding General at that place, that his direction may be given in relation to their final destination; reporting, also, that the arms are for the use of the Pennsylvania troops marching from York to Baltimore. Should there be less than five thousand stands of arms at Fredericktown, the balance, to make up that number, must have the same direction from Harper's Ferry. The Commanding General of Ordnance has been directed to send ten thousand stands of arms from that place to Carlisle. The above order will embrace a part of that number. The residue of the ten thousand stand you will have immediately transported, one half to Fredericktown, and one half to York, in Pennsylvania. You will report to me your proceedings under this order as soon as practicable.

I am, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAS. MONROE.

QUARTER-MASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON CITY, September 13, 1814.

Captain Gustavus Harrison, Assistant Quarter-master General, will perform the duties directed in the foregoing order.

(Signed) F. MARSTELLER,
Quarter-master General.

HARPER'S FERRY, September 16, 1814.

Capt. THOS. PORTER, or the Commanding Officer at the Carlisle Barracks:

SIR: I enclose you a copy of an order of the Secretary of War to Colonel Marsteller, Quarter-master General, at Washington City, by which you will see that it is absolutely necessary that the twenty-two hundred stand of arms sent from this place to Carlisle, should be sent immediately to York. This twenty-two hundred is a part of the ten thousand the Secretary speaks in his order.

I am, respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
GUSTAVUS HARRISON,
Assistant D. Q. M. General.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES LAMBERTON,
Brigade Inspector.

GOV. SIMON SNYDER TO GEN. WILLIAM REED.

HARRISBURG, October 12, 1814.

To Gen. WILLIAM REED:

SIR: Your letter, under date of the 26th ult., stating difficulties connected with the electing or designating of a Brigadier General to command the detachment that was to rendezvous at Pittsburgh, and the field officers, I did not receive till late in the evening of the 5th instant. As the attachment was to have assembled on the 2d instant, I thought then too late to give you any explanation of my general orders: but, upon reflection, I think it not improbable that you may be waiting for an answer before you proceed to carry the orders into effect. If the direction to elect a Brigadier General and field officers by the officers and privates composing the detachment be at variance with the letter and spirit of the law, the law must undoubtedly govern you. If the detachment consist of drafts, which you will have ascertained by the report of proper officers, the designating principle must evidently obtain. The militia law contains contradictory provisions which cannot be reconciled, and renders extremely difficult the execution of the duties it enjoins. Such a construction as seems best calculated to promote the public interest, I trust you have already given or will yet give the law.

The officers are to take rank according to the date of their commissions, agreeably to a law which also directs that all commissions shall bear date on the same day, and when two or more of the same grade bear even date, their rank shall be determined by lot; from this view it would appear to be proper for the field officers of the drafted militia to be designated in conformity to the law, and the volunteer companies, if there be any, to elect their field officers, agreeably to the law. If the detachment be composed of both descriptions of militia, there is no explicit direction in the law for the selection of a Brigadier General. In such case no other alternative presents itself to my mind, at present, but that the Brigadiers General of the State (their commissions bearing one date) do meet and draw lot for command, or that the detachment elect one. The former might be attended with injurious delay. The principles of equity, as well as public advantage, would seem to dictate the latter.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your friend and obedient servant,
SIMON SNYDER.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

War Department, October 17, 1814.

His Excellency S. Snyder, Governor of Pennsylvania:

Sir: I have received your Excellency's letter of the 8th inst. It will be perfectly satisfactory to the General Government to have a part or all the troops, required by my letter of the 2d inst., composed of volunteers. These corps may be organized according to the laws of Pennsylvania, if such arrangements will facilitate their march. The place of rendezvous was omitted in copying my letter. An encampment is now formed, consisting of regulars, infantry, and dragoons, and a brigade of Virginia militia, under Gen. Douglass.

Another brigade of Virginia militia is on their march from this place. The whole force is to form an encampment between Snowden's and Baltimore, with a view to cover both cities, as circumstances may require.

The troops from Pennsylvania should be ordered to that point.

I fear it will not be in our power to furnish arms for the detachment required of your Excellency, and our tents and camp equipage are nearly exhausted. Your Excellency may rely on every exertion being made by this Department for the accommodation of troops.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, sir,
Your Excellency's obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

ANDREW MANN TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

BEDFORD, October 29, 1814.

SIR: By your orders of the 15th instant, to order into service two volunteer companies from my brigade that have not performed, according to law, a tour of duty, and if there were no such companies, or not a number sufficient, to appeal to the patriotism of such companies as have performed a tour of duty. There are only three volunteer companies in my brigade, all of which have performed a tour, or part of tour, of duty. Captain Nicholas Beckwith's company have performed a full tour under General Crooks. Captain Hugh Gibson's company, and the company formerly commanded by Captain William Piper, (now Captain Joseph Sparks,) were both out at Black Rock, under the command of General Tannehill, and remained until the militia returned. I communicated your orders to all the officers above mentioned, previous to their muster on Monday last, and urged the necessity of their getting their men to turn out in defence of their country. I am sorry to say the appeal was made in vain, not one of the companies turned out the number that will be accepted by the Commanding General, as appears by your after orders of the 22d instant. From your orders of the 15th inst., I was not certain whether I had the power, or whether it was the intention that I should order into service the companies of Captains Gibson and Sparks, that marched to Black Rock and returned before their term was fully expired, or not. I have to request of you to inform me whether I shall proceed to order the companies of Captains Gibson and Sparks into service or not. Should they be compelled to march, of which I trust you will inform me, I will proceed to have them notified and marched to the place of rendezvous with the least possible delay. I would also request the favor of you to inform me whether I shall march them, provided they are ordered to march, if their number should be less than forty-five privates. I should have asked for this information sooner had I not believed that the patriotism of the militia of my brigade was such as to induce the number of men required to tender their services, without being coerced into service.

I am your obedient servant,

ANDREW MANN,

Brigade Inspector, First Brigade, Twelfth Division.

P. S.—Captain N. Beckwith informed me that in his company there are thirty-two men, officers included, that are willing to march in the present call, provided they have two weeks' notice previous to marching, and can be assured that they will not be transferred, but retained as a company under their present officers, one half of which number are without arms. He further states that by the time of marching he believes he will have a number more to join him, that will increase his company to fifty or sixty. This, however, is not certain. I have thought proper to give you this information, that I might have some instructions from you respecting it.

ANDREW MANN.

NATHANIEL WATSON TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

CAMP SPRINGFIELD, December 1, 1814.

His Excellency SIMON SNYDER :

SIR : I had the honor, a few days ago, to receive your letter directing the arms, camp equipage, &c., of the division, belonging to the State of Pennsylvania, to be left at York and Lancaster.

On the 28th November, I received Gen. Scott's order for the payment and discharge of my division. In conformity to which and your instructions, I have issued the following divison orders :

DIVSION ORDERS.

CAMP SPRINGFIELD, November 30, 1814.

The First and Second brigades of Pennsylvania militia, under command of Brig. Gen. Forster and Addams will, when mustered and paid, proceed forthwith to York, in the State of Pennsylvania. Gens. Forster and Addams will discharge the troops under their respective commands when they arrive at York, the place of destination.

The Generals will accept, for themselves and troops, the thanks of the Major General for the uniform good conduct observed by the respective brigades. It gives the Major General sincere pleasure that the order, regularity, and discipline of the troops under his command have met his warmest approbation. He views their conduct as a pledge that they will never be wanting to themselves or their country.

Gens. Forster and Addams will cause all the property belonging to the State of Pennsylvania to be deposited at York with Maj. Jordan, (Brigade Inspector,) except the property in the possession of the companies commanded by Capts. Musser, Hambright, and Reitzels. Such property as may be in their possession will be deposited at Lancaster with the Brigade Inspector, Maj. Lights. Gens. Forster and Addams will be careful that the proper receipt are taken for the property delivered at York.

The regimental Quarter-masters will provide three days' rations for the troops previous to marching.

The troops will be mustered and inspected at York previous to receiving their final discharge. Those persons who are absent at that time will be returned as deserters, and of course be liable to perform another tour of service.

By order of Maj. Gen. N. Watson.

C. SPAYD,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Many and various reports respecting the troops under my command are in circulation in Pennsylvania, which are entirely devoid of foundation. The men have borne the severity of this wet and inclement season in their tents with patience and forbearance. Many, it is true, being without money to procure necessaries, did complain that they were not paid at the end of two months, but there never was the smallest meeting on that account, as reported.

I have appointed Christian Spade to take into his possession all the arms and accouterments, &c., belonging to the State of Pennsylvania, which have been left here by men sick on furlough, and by deserters, with instructions to him to deliver them to Maj. Jordan, at York.

I shall be glad to receive your instructions, after my return home, how to proceed with courts-martial on delinquents and deserters who have not been taken during our term of service.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your obedient and humble servant,
NATHANIEL WATSON,
Major General of Pennsylvania Militia.

WAR DEPARTMENT, December 15, 1814.

SIR: Late intelligence from Cuba, corresponding with that which had been received from other quarters before, placed it beyond all doubt in the opinion of the government that it was the intention of the enemy to attack New Orleans. Despairing of making any impression on other parts of our coast, their boldest effort for the present campaign seems to be about to terminate in an attempt on that most distant and exposed part of our union. There is cause to believe that they will unite the force which lately infested this bay, with a detachment from Europe, and the garrisons from Guadaloupe and Martinique in this expedition. The best precautions that circumstances admitted of, have been taken to meet and repel it. In aid of the regular troops in that district, a strong force consisting of the militia of Tennessee, Kentucky, and Georgia, has been put in motion. Great confidence is entertained that they will arrive in time to occupy the strong passes which lead to that city, and which, if well defended, cannot fail to secure it. Gen. Gaines having served in that country, being acquainted with its topography, and possessing the confidence of the people, the President has thought that he might be employed there with great advantage to the general interests of the nation, and has accordingly ordered him to that station. The season of the year seems to secure this part of our Union from any serious invasion. The collection and destination of the whole force of the enemy against New Orleans, as we are assured is the case, has increased our confidence in that security. Under other circumstances Gen. Gaines would not have been removed from Philadelphia. In his absence, the command of his district, with this, is committed to Maj. Gen. Scott. These two districts will constitute in effect, but one, and be commanded by the same commander. I mention these circumstances for your Excellency's information, that all the measures in which a joint coöperation between your State and the general government may be necessary for the defence of Philadelphia and the sea-board generally may have that direction.

I have the honor to be, respectfully, sir,
Your Excellency's obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

DEPARTMENT OF WAR, January 1, 1815.

SIR: I have just had an interview with Mr. Roberts and Gen. Lacocke, and find, with great regret, that an order, issued by Gen. Scott has been understood to have a bearing on Gen. Worrel, which has wounded his feelings. They seem to apprehend that this order may have interfered with your own views relative to the command of the militia of Pennsylvania, in the service of the United States, in that district.

With the information which I possess, not having as yet heard from Gen. Scott, it is not in my power to give any explanation of the measures alluded to. I can only remark that, when Gen. Bloomfield withdrew from the command of the district, it was committed to Gen. Gaines, as well to prevent local collision, as to secure to the city of Philadelphia and the district the aid of his acknowledged talents; that the same motives had influence in transferring the command to Gen. Scott, after the departure of Gen. Gaines for New Orleans; and that Gen. Scott, on going to Philadelphia, was instructed to take measures for palliating and removing any unpleasant sensations, in any of the officers, which might have been excited, and particularly in Gen. Worrel. In pursuing which, he was to communicate and harmonize with you. Your absence from the city, and the necessity of his early return to Baltimore, have, I find, rendered this impossible.

In the talents of Gen. Scott, and in his disposition to observe a strict impartiality in the discharge of his public duties, I have the greatest confidence. Should he, by any orders, have given just cause for such excitement, I am satisfied that it has been unintentional.

All that I can do in the present state of this affair is to order a report of the whole proceedings to be laid before this Department, which I shall do, and to assure your Excellency that, as nothing is more remote from the views of this Government, than to violate the rights or injure the feelings of any of those patriotic citizens who have rendered service to their country in this most difficult and try-emergency, the most prompt measures shall be taken to secure to every one the justice to which he is entitled.

I have the honor to be, with
Great respect, your very obedient servant,
JAS. MONROE.

MATTHIAS GRESS TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

BETHLEHEM, January 29, 1815.

His Excellency SIMON SNYDER:

SIR: Agreeable to the orders of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, I have appointed a general courts-martial for the trial of delinquents. The court is now sitting from day to day on those trials, but are at a loss to know in what manner to proceed with the delinquents of Capt. Jacob Shortz, his rifle company, (formerly under my command.) They say that without getting it from under your Excellency's hands, that they were called out for the service of the United States. They cannot act on, and, on that point, they have postponed those trials until they get information from you. If your Excellency will please to recollect that when I called on you at Philadelphia, being the 26th of September last, I was asked what was the reason that my company were not here, and you always had heard that I had such a fine company. My answers were, that the company had an election for new officers under the present law, and that they are quarreling about the captains; that there had been two candidates, and that part of the company are ready to march, and the others not willing to march under the captain elected. Your reply was, to quarrel about officers at this time would not do, and the majority ought to govern; and that I should order them to march immediately, and those that would not march would have to pay their fines. I issued my orders on the 27th September for them to march. I always thought that they had been called for the service of the United States, because the quota was not full, and that those that had been out had been in that service; and especially by the eighteenth section of the new militia law, the Governor hath it in his power to call them for that service. I have nothing to show under what authority they have been called. If your Excellency will please to give it from under his hands that I may lay before the court-martial, they will proceed and fine them, no doubt, which would be nothing but right, for not one of the company would turn out after this, if those were not fined.

I am, with great respect, your Excellency's
Very humble and obedient servant,
MATTHIAS GRESS.

N. B. I should like to have the instructions as soon as possible, if it is thought proper.

M. G.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

WAR DEPARTMENT, February 1, 1815.

His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania:

SIR: I have the honor to transmit to your Excellency a copy of an act, which passed Congress on the 27th ultimo, authorizing the President to receive into the service of the United States any corps which have been, or may be, raised, organized, and officered by the States, individually, whose terms of service shall not be less than twelve months, when received, and who shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and be employed in the State raising the same, and not elsewhere, without the consent of the Executive of such State. It is further provided that those corps shall be considered a part of the quota of the militia of the States raising them, who shall have credit for the same in any call which the President may hereafter make on the militia of such States.

The whole of this force must not exceed forty thousand men. The quota which the President is authorized to receive from the State of Pennsylvania, your Excellency will observe, amounts to five thousand and fifty-five. The President is also authorized by this act to receive into the service of the United States a like number of volunteers, to be organized in conformity to the laws respecting the military establishment of the United States.

The corps to be raised by the States, individually, being intended more especially for their defence, it is important that it should be known as soon as possible by what State the measures will be adopted. Other measures must depend on the success of this; and the advanced season of the year requires that not a moment of delay which can be avoided should take place in providing an adequate force for all the purposes of the next campaign.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, sir,
Your Excellency's most obedient servant,
JAS. MONROE.

JOHN KIRKPATRICK TO NATHANIEL B. BOILEAU.

SALEM MILLS, WESTMORELAND COUNTY,
February 10, 1815.

NATHANIEL B. BOILEAU, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

SIR: I enclose you sundry election returns which have not been heretofore transmitted: First, Capt. Abraham May; the first election set aside and May elected, which I approve. Second and Third, the election returns of Capt. Samuel McColough and Capt. William Reynolds; both returns are approved by me. Both companies marched on the late call of the Commander-in-Chief. Fourth, Capt. Anthony Blackburn. His company is said to be full, which I have also approved. Fifth, an election return for the Congruity Rifle Company, which I do not approve, as yet. The circumstances are briefly as follow: Part of this company had served a tour of duty at Fort Meigs, and returned, say twenty. The company immediately increased, on its return, to its present number. As Inspector, I applied to them to march under the Governor's general order, which they refused, alleging that some of them had served; the others that they could not be called unless they all went—of course, none would go. They are, however, exceedingly anxious to be commissioned. I have not, under these circumstances, approved their return as yet, but leave the whole to the discretion of the Governor.

Sixth, Capt. Samuel Hunter's election return I do not, as yet, approve, alleging it is not more than half full. I have forwarded his return, which can lay over until it is ascertained whether he gets his number or not. Seventh and eighth, I also enclose two returns for troops of horse, one for Capt. John C. Plumer, the other Humphrey Fullerton, captain. Those returns of their election are submitted to the Governor. My reason for this is, that the Governor seemed to disapprove of cavalry in his message to the Legislature at the opening of the present session. Of course, the whole is submitted to him. Capt. William McCormick's return, as Captain of the class militia, was forwarded in my former returns, but has been overlooked at your office. His commission is not come to hand. I hope you will forward it with the others that are yet to come. I have received and distributed all the commissions for the field and company officers as far as they have made returns of their companies to me, except Capt. William McCormick's alone; not forwarded from your office, as stated above.

Accompanying this, you will receive a return of all the militia of this brigade. They exceed the former returns, as received from Mr. Armstrong, four hundred and twelve men. A doubt, however, remains in my mind, whether some inaccuracies may not have taken place in forming the different rifle companies that were early formed. As the same men may be included in both, the late one, I am persuaded, takes in the class militia. Of course, I have not returned them so as to increase the number. There cannot, however, be much inaccuracy, and what is, rests with the returning officers to me. As far as my knowledge went, I have corrected it in every instance. I received the Governor's letter late, and could not get the returns out of the hands of the Captains. The last I only got this day, and one not at all. I have suffered it rather than delay longer.

Shall I pay off the wages of the wagons that were out with the militia? I have paid them in part; they are waiting for the remainder. You will please direct what is the will of the Executive in this particular.

Those companies that marched in November last were Captains Wilson Knott, Irwin Russel, Samuel McColough, and William Reynolds. Those ready to march were Captains William Morrow and Anthony Blackburn. I would be much gratified if those who did march would receive their pay. Many of them were poor. They laid out something more than they could well spare to equip themselves, expecting to be out all winter, and receive their pay, in order to discharge small debts. Would it be in the power of the Governor to pay them one month? I think with this they would be satisfied. You will please direct me in this particular. I am persuaded their services would be much easier commanded in future if something like what I have suggested should take place.

I am, sir, with sentiments of respect and esteem,
Your obedient humble servant,
JOHN KIRKPATRICK.

P. S.—I also forward a return for Capt. Robert Campbill, which I do not approve.

J. K.

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

Department of War, February 6, 1815.

His Excellency Simon Snyder :

Sir : In my circular letter to the executives of the several States of the 31st ultimo, I had the honor to communicate an act of Congress authorizing and requiring the President of the United States to receive into the service of the United States, on the conditions of that act, troops to be raised by the individual States to a number not exceeding forty thousand men in the whole, of which five thousand and fifty-five, exclusive of officers, had been allotted to the State of Pennsylvania.

Although it was my intention to state in the most explicit terms the determination of the President to receive the troops which might thus be raised by the States into the service of the United States, in the manner and on the conditions proposed by the act, yet, on a review of my letter, which was written in haste, I find that I have in some degree taken for granted, and only implied what I intended and thought I had more distinctly declared.

I hasten to supply this omission by assuring your Excellency of the fixed resolution and sincere desire of the President to carry that law into effect by receiving into the service of the United States the troops thus proposed to be raised by the individual States, and performing every other act dependent on him relating to the same.

As other measures of the general government intended for the defence of our principal cities and seaboard of our country generally, must depend in a considerable degree on the part to be taken by the individual States, in regard to this force, and more especially on the aid which may be expected from it in the operations of the approaching campaign, your Excellency will pardon my solicitude to be informed as soon as in your power of the decision of your State respecting the quota allotted to it.

I have the honor to be, with great consideration,
Your very obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

(Circular.)

JAMES MONROE TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

DEPARTMENT OF WAR, February 14, 1815.

His Excellency SIMON SNYDER, Governor of Pennsylvania :

SIR : It is with great satisfaction that I have to inform you that a treaty of peace was concluded between the United States and Great Britain, at Ghent, on the 24th day of December last. A copy of this treaty was received to-day by Mr. Carroll ; has been examined by the President, and it will, I am pursuaded, be ratified, as its conditions are honorable to our country. I lose no time in communicating to your Excellency an event of such high importance to the nation.

I have the honor to be, with respect,
Your most obedient servant,
JAMES MONROE.

WILLIAM CLARK TO GOV. SIMON SNYDER.

HARRISBURG, February 15, 1815.

To his Excellency SIMON SNYDER, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania :

RESPECTED SIR : Permit me to inform you that on examining into the state of the military property within the bounds of the Second brigade of the Sixteenth division, I found at Erie, of various descriptions to a large amount, deposited in several unsafe and insecure places, much damaged and out of repair, on which I am procuring repairs to be done as fast as in my power, but have not been able to procure (in the town of Erie) a suitable building for the safe keeping of so large a quantity of public property. Consequently the State must still continue to suffer great loss and damage in her property, for the want of a safe military deposit. I therefore beg leave to submit to your Excellency's better consideration, the propriety of suggesting to the Legislature the necessity of erecting (at some convenient place within the said brigade) a suitable building for the safe keeping of military property.

I am, sir, with the highest consideration,
Your obedient servant,
WILLIAM CLARK,
Brigade Inspector.

ROBERT BRENT TO N. B. BOILEAU.

ARMY PAY OFFICE,
CITY OF WASHINGTON, July 24, 1815.

N. B. BOILEAU, Esq., Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Pa.:

SIR : I have the honor to enclose, for the information of his Excellency, the Governor, a copy of my letter of the 22d instant, to Brigadier General Thomas Cadwalader, of the Pennsylvania militia.

I am, very respectfully, sir,
Your most obedient,
ROBERT BRENT,
P. M., U. S. Army.

Robert Brent to Thos. Cadwalader.

ARMY PAY OFFICE,

Brig. Gen. THOS. CADWALADER, of the Pennsylvania Militia, Philadelphia, Pa.:

SIR : Your letter of the 18th of the present month is now before me. I wish I could feel myself authorized to assure you of a further supply of funds for the troops who are the subject of your letter; but, until I am further and more particularly advised of what it will require for Colonel Fenton's regiment, General Worrell's command, and others of the interior, I cannot feel myself justified in allotting a further sum to your brigade.

Of the loan made by the State of Pennsylvania of . .		$300,000 00
There has been placed in the hands of Mr. Swift, the Assistant District Paymaster, at Philadelphia, and applied, I believe, principally to your brigade, ...	$50,000 00
Remitted to you for the same troops, . . .	50,000 00
Remitted to General Worrell, for the troops of his command, ...	50,000 00
Remitted to Mr. Albright, District Paymaster, at Pittsburgh, for troops of the interior and west, ...	50,000 00
		200,000 00
Leaving a reserve of		$100,000 00

yet to be applied to the objects of its destination.

It will be seen from the foregoing sketch that the eastern section of the State has already had $150,000, or a moiety of the whole loan, whilst the western has had but $50,000. Should the claims of the latter be such as to leave a further sum for the former, (which it is reasonable to suppose may be the case,) it will give me great pleasure to apply it accordingly. I do not mean by this, to have it understood as conveying an idea that the $300,000 is, by any means, equal to the discharge of all unliquidated claims of Pennsylvania militia and volunteers for services rendered, but that those of the west and interior may not amount to $150,000, and of course leave a balance applicable to others.

The $100,000 in reserve, as aforesaid, is at deposit in the following banks in Pennsylvania, namely:

Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, ...	$40,000 00
Commercial Bank, ...	40,000 00
Bank of Northern Liberties, ...	20,000 00
	$100,000 00

I have the honor to be,
With great respect, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed) ROBERT BRENT,
P. M., U. S. Army.
